[From the N. Y. Weekly Messenger, Jan. 6, 1850.]

"Dr. Hosfand's Gernan Bitters.—Here is a preparation which the leading presses in the Union spear to be unanimous in recommending, and the reason is obvious. It is made after a prescription furnished by one of the most celebrated physicians of modern times, the late Dr. Christopher Wilhelm Hoosfand, Professor to the University of Jens, Private Physician to the King of Pressic, and one of the greatest medical writers Germany has: ever produced. He was emphasically the enemy of humburg, and therefore a medicine of which he was the inventor and endorser, may be confidently relied on. He specially recommended it in Liver. Complaint, Dyspopaia, Debility, Vertigo, Acidity of the Stomach, Constirpation, and all complaints arising from a disordered condition of thestomach, the Liver, and the intestines. [From the N. Y. nostrime of the day, that are noised about for a brief period, and then forgotten after they have done their guilty race of mischief, but of a medicine long established, universally prized, and which has met the hearty approval of the faculty itself."

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the ast three years, and the strongest teatimony in its favor is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular physicians of Philadelphis, than all other nostums combined—a fact that can be easily established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.
