DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, "It is seldom that we recommend what are terme Patent Medicines: to the confidence and patroing

Patent Medicines: to the confidence and patroings of our readers; and, therefore, when we recommend Dr. Hoofland's German-Bitters, we wish it to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nostrums of the duy, that are noticed about for a brief period, and then forgotter hier they have done their period, and then forgotter her they have done their guilty race of mischief, but of a medicine long established, universally prized, and which has met the hearty approval of the faculty itself?

Evidence upon evidence has been received like the foregoing from all sections of the Union, the sat three years, and the strongest testimony in its favor is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined—a fact that can be essily established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.
