In some remarks on the first week of the lon of Congress, the National Intelligencer of yesterday Bave :

"If the proceedings of the week that has passed have afforded no other indications of importance ad hay salvoted no other indications of importance it should have settled the question—as we think it should have been settled—in regard to the distinguished Hungarian chieftain who has just reached our shores, that, whatever welcome may and will be extended to him by those who greet him too his landing, and by individuals here or else-where here will be no format reception of him as a chitical harmone where the constraints.

The seene which followed the answer may be -readily imagined; ... In the midst of the shout, Ny told the witness she might space.

A MAN WITH NINETT, WIVES, The St. Louis Re A Man wirtt Ninetr. Wives.—The St. Louis Regulities, while it condemns and denounces the imporality and misconduct, of the mormons, depreciates the course taken by the United States officers in abandoning their posts, and refuses to udmit the sufficiency of any or all their reasons. A statement of the affairs in Utah; published in the St. Joseph's Gazetts, and endorsed by the retiring Chief Justice and the Secretary of State, (Mr. Harris of Brattle boro,) has the following on an interesting point of morality for the state of the sta

Minox and his Airny.—A letter received at New York; dated San Joan, Nov. 24. says; On the morning of the 19th instant, General Chambrio, with his kerny of Nicaraguans and Honderas men, entered Leon, the headquarters of Munox, at all of the principal streets, and drove Munox; sold tors to the plaza, where, having no fortifications, they were obliged to surrender, and Munox and his officers, with twenty-seven Americans, were thrown into prison, and are probably shot before this time.
Our Charge, the Hon. John B. Kerr, cannot, of course, assist our deluded brethren who have been taken in similar gainst the State, for he is no more than a private chitican, having reached the country just at the breaking out of the revolution, and having head of the proposition of the Gulf of Mexico

A "Pour" Money.—Santeuil, s poet of the 17th century, returning use night to the abbey of St. Vieter, at 11 o'clock, was refused admittance by the porter, on the pleast that the poet allows the doors to be opened, at so late an hour.—A good deal of alterestion ensued at last the poet alloped a piece of gold under the door, which was lumised stated by the control of the control o teal: Astened the door, and the porter, half maked, was obliged to stand knocking in his turn. 'I am war, serry, for, it; but, the prior has, given positive orders, not to, have, the doors opened at so late an hour?,...'I, dat, you in,', said the porter, in a very humble tone. 'So you did,' replied Santoull; 'and I will do you the same good turn for the same price.' The porter, not liking to sleep in the street, and fearful likewise of losing his place, alipped the piece of gold under the door again, saying, 'I thought a post's morey, would not stay long with me.' And so he galoed admittance.

Thevelin, a' Frenchman, in performing a balloon ascension at Brussels, Belgium, in crossing the city, got foul of the statue of St. Michael, placed on the spire of the City Hall of Brussels, and in oron the spire of the City Hall of prussess, and in order to save limedic clung to the statee immediately, while his apparatus was carried off by the balloon he then proceeded, as his only means of selvation, to descend to the ground, the spire being 300 feet in height, and by dint of extraordinary presence of mind and bodily activity, he got down in safety.
