Americon Elohnter.

| JOHI B, BBATTO |  | Un counrav-mar |  |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| VOL. 38 |  | RRLISLE, PA., THURSDAY, APRIL 22, |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | intimate ecquaintance with him, will reccignize the gitied pen of the late $\mathbf{H .} \mathbf{P}$ $\qquad$ ar the mogt acentria, if not oxiraord inaty men |  |  |  |
|  |  | ted pen os eccentrio, if not exiraordinaty me of his day. The detaifls of his chequered hilory, thrugh fill of ineidentand interest, I will not dwell |  |  |  |
|  |  | on, and to analyze the strueture of his mindis, confese, a lask beyond my daring. t'o his neareat friands he wis, to. his last moments, an unsolved |  |  |  |
|  |  | friands ha wis, to his last moments, an unsolved myatery. His perceptione were quict, strong and accurate, and so tilled was he in the knowledze |  |  |  |
|  |  |    was unpacalleled devoliun and 1 scarce need add, |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | was unparalleled devoliun, and 1 scarce need add, waite; eachi other's tempers, as well an aeach oifer's ge true is human nature in this partirular. that he sharacturs? $\mathbf{O}$, , it is by leaping tho peaceat home   |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | Was a terrible hie-tulentless and unsparing to-: to chince, instead of purauing it by system, that Hin knowlpdye of the genyraphy, history, re- in also, thnt almost any one can be courteous and pa: |  |  |  |
|  |  | snurres, pulitices hnd men, ifithias Siatie, made hith tient in a neighbor's hnuse. If anything. ao wrung |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | ial groum. A grollo negro the heute, tho lodiee opon six yeare in adorning. An aviery io supplited Large herde of catloo, hheop and doar aro vpread over immenenso tawns. |
|  |  | were those ultered by the Py thian god frum the Dulphic triphod.: He whe an parneat, tilent lover of Nature and a trua pret. After reading the following lines, 1 need not say try you, that in his soul Whs the feeling, in his heart the meloly and at his comnand the languanf to cive eweol expression io the poetry of his Nature.  W. H. M.  WHY DONTT HEC COMRS |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Patacellatreatis. |    |  | dd tithomb, and |  | The Duke of Davonothirp's place at Chutororth,   or pounde a yeara and ho tio sid io apend it all: In |
|  |  |  |  | the uflietions. The humble classen being deprived of all heart and energy, anya a correapondeti, havo |  |
|  |  | And yenily watis the bereze:  'Tis naturn's own most lovely night,  A paragon of aprs.  Why don't he come? |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | py. Let ua not avade the point of these remarks by recurring to the unaxim about allowanceas for |  |  |
|  |  |  | Martonies we woold prove that wo erer gained | Thowariorot in zatioo in in |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | Why don't he come ${ }^{\text {a }}$. . . |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | which they belung, or get a tirenh ridert, or aro or robed by the swill morrunger of deatlo. Othera |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | by yhouting ilemen lirougit the hond. Thero was one |  |
|  |  | 1 knaw hell come full well!  Why don't he come? . |  |  | Within, the entire is uno vana acene or phintingte.   alinot boundlose woalth ind highly rafied tatit. |
|  |  | An intenge fearfinl drad, and eays He's number'd with the dead. Why dna't he come? |  | liga oxirnded, and hina hload orect, mikinz repoated   | $\frac{\text { alinot b buadione woath ind highy rafned tatie. . . : }}{\text { CUABITY. }}$ |
|  |  |  |  |  ol my pieces aloso to himin firtehend and fired; I wa | CHABITY.  Trunt nul to oach accusing tongue. Ao innat wank porsone do: Which oughe nal to bo true. |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | and, wounded mynelf in the thigh alightly.  Amolher besutiful black horwe, very richiy noount. |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | The manine at the latice site,  And cries "ixhy don't tia comet  Why don't he comie ?'1 $\qquad$ |  of julging of its movemenns: Entering. Buffurn | On exnuinumatinn it war fiund that one of tiod fure-   | ) |
|  |  |  |  |  |  a patt of thair derntion,that they cill upon their prophet to preserve thein from ind fuces: |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | York Dutchman in not far from the fact netur" "mpect token bolaw: |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | per anulum wiltamnini to the ordinary rnilo of nie third in ten yeurs-neer enough at least fop atatis- |  |
|  |  |  | tion cuares. Thay wait for the movement to the renewed, but no renewal chille. and fire monithas at-tetwards that immense ridge was still there, and the vessel ulao there-a monumens of God's proteceling care and man's weakness." |  |  |
|  |  | But, atill, ferever. thrughtit of thee Shall ${ }^{\circ}$ er wiy senapa areal :Thy hace, thy form, amblidr noice, Shall winingle with the iight-oty or  The plaintive "Whip-poor-will!" |  | But tha prompect which is hold out by tho mont reasonable calcul.tion of tho growth of this country opoplilion and recourser, may well sharle the |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | The following interesting trife is an extract from a lelter from a corpulent lady on her way to Cali fornia. She is undoubtedly "seeing the elephant," | observer, Lanving out of tho a oencint the additiona which iro minde every year to the aggregnte of nur |  |
|  |  | Glad and exulting in the weight  Or' friendship's burnighed chain,  Forth on the world, alines, I go,  But whien the spring-time's pren'ing hous Sleppie. hallowrd, on the hill, l'il not forpet to think of thee.  And list the s. Whip-pour-will!"' |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | an catimato which, cenuld not ho applied to country. Wo mire   |  |
|  |  |  | 4Our cabin has two boxes in it called berthetheugh coffine would be nearer the ihing, for you |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | fruitit of ago will bo a enod conalitulton; ellorated ar. reotions, and lioly principlen. |
|  |  |  | thing napre of your later ado the then oheives, and theas together make whit they call a |  | ny : "they ara like inumionl intrumentr, Which aland |
|  | off they ilarted, wa imung ile rent, to the hoaso lorf py doalh. The ooronorr was a litlo pulzzed how in |  | L have to olimb upt to the, putling one font on thy band - Mand, whioh is n greal ofretch, snd miaket it very straining - then 1 lift one knee on the berthand roll :in uidewnya. Tuis is very inconvenient |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | Wo hatd uur own agnilutit the wridd, and will do ill. come what may.-Daltimore Americun. |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |    |
|  |  |  | for a woman of my sizo and very dangeroous. Last night I put my foot on Mre. Brownof face, as sho   |  | bird of paradice, winga, tall feathorn, anid $\qquad$ |
|  |  | anows upon the thills, and swell the mountain bruoke ;-that muko the pnola hias ro up theirgina-ay oeteriente of lise, and hurry town the crailing ay betemients of lise, and hurry down the crailing |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | Imid aoloepp elose to the edge or the lower one, and nanrly put out her ofe,off iny knees, and then 1 havo.a large black popl where 1 hava been hurt, and my head is awellest | ges of a good supply of nood, the writer ghowod in tha apring of 1850 a piecu or ground to grato, at tho |  |
|  |  | fruyments into the wasies of the ocean.  1 lova the genile thawa that you onan trate day by day, by the sialnad snow bank shrinking from $\qquad$ |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  to gruw for haty, whictio hat juet boon out and drawn |  |
|  |  | ble duty to the earth, and where the frail anemone or the faime blush of the arbutua. in the midst of |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | don't know wherit la the hardegil to gat in or get out of 8 beth - both are tha mou whal 10 m done | in, (7 wo. 10. 1851) and the produet was fuund to be threo and a hatli tuns por aaro. Whare oan wo find |  |
|  |  | the bloak Maroh atmosplieres, will touch your has Jiku a hope of Heaven, in a field of gravas! Later coine those anft sm |  |  |  and ohatit language. But the coniente 1 |
|  |  | of winiter grain alow erren wnder the bheltef of   | in the world, and $I$ shall be glad when 1 am donn with li. 1 am obllyed to dragas in. bed beforo |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | huthand eagerly oanght up the lettor and commencear randing the nifillothat had been the moang fron cho prinaer "for nina yegre abueot tition!" |
|  |  | ahruinken skeletona of fee, lie tipon the blopit of  nuthern hills, leakling away itheir lifa.  Then tha grase at your door raws into tho oninr  of the a pirnuting grain, and the huda upon the lilace |  |  |  |
|  |  | of the a pirnuting grain, and tha huda upon the lilace awell and turst. :The peaches hlonm upon the Wall, and the plunibs wear bond ficep of white, -The spatkling ntinle ploka utrings for hia hammote |  | aqw, is of much botler quality than whare the alaliki tand thin on the ground.-Albuny Culitivator. |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | from the printar "for nine years bubsortiplion!""  Ratroxil-A mat roididng la i Naw Eafind |
|  |  |  |  till the people laurhnd; and said the bios agreed With me, had grown so fali; but puiting on stookIngs lio the worst, for there ain't room to tioop forward; so you have to bring your foes to youl, and arretohing out on your back, lifi your log till you inos can't al waya do this so enay, I oan lell you. La alwaye gives me the oramip, and takets away my hreaith. You will pity nee, if you could oorcaive. a fomalo suffera being confined in a berth at een. |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| arr, good ot |  |  |  |  | in love, wulked out to the presipice, took off hla   |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |

