HATS AND CAPS!
Spring Styles!
Wm. H. TROUT, has just received and opened the Spring styles of Hats, in an elegant article, to which he invites the attention of the public. His Hats are of all prices, from the most elegantly finished to the cheap common article, and of every variety of style now worn. He continues to receive from the manufacturers and keep always on hand a full assortment of HATS and CAPS for men and boys, and he can sell a cheaper and better article than any other establishment in town. Those in want of good, well made, and elegantly finished Hats, would do well to call before purchasing elsewhere.

Remember that the largest and best assortment in town may always be found at TROUT'S, Irvine's Row, rear of the Episcopal Church.

Valuable Mill Property for Sale.
On Thursday, the 24th of June, 1852, the subscriber intending to sell, will offer at public sale the following valuable Mill Property, in connection with Seven Acres and Ninety Perches of good Limestone Land, situated in Silver Spring township, Cumberland county, 1 mile west of Manchester, bearing on the Cumberland Valley Railroad, and the Friends Spring Road, about four rods south of the former and one fourth of a mile north of the latter. This mill is propelled by the never failing Friends Spring, which is the most unobscured and powerful water power during the greater part of the year. The mill is estimated to be the best mill east in the county, it being in the midst of a thriving and grain growing country, and there is no other mill near it. The mill is universally looked upon as having many peculiar advantages connected with it, and it is well constructed and calculated for a Grist and Merchant Mill, has the best machinery for manufacturing flour and meal, and is susceptible at very ordinary expense of vast improvement. The mill is insured by a safe Insurance Company. There is a Corn Sower in it. There are, also, ancient and undisputed water rights to this property. The property is a desirable one for a person of a little capital and enterprise. The subscriber being determined to sell it, will, therefore, be sold, those who desire to see it prior to the sale, are invited to call on the subscriber and proprietor who will take pleasure in showing them all concerning it. Sale to commence at 1 o'clock on said day, when the terms will be made known by
