Carllele April 29, 1852—3m Selkirk township, Monigomery county, by which three children were killed, and another was severely wongledy.

It appears says the Norristown Watchman, that Mir. Solgrish, had been to one of the neighboring powder mile with a load of empty kegs, where he purchased about four pounds of powder, which he took home with him? Diving the absence of himself and his wife, the children by some means, got possessed on of the powder, and while playing with it near the store, it ignited killing a boy, sged about finio years, sindest instantly, and injuring two others, sged about four and six years, so hady that they died shout four and six years, so hady that they died shout four and six years, so hady that they died shout four and six years, so hady that they died shoutly after for small child lying in the oracle was also burn to severely, that it was not expected to receive A neighbor named Sover, who was engaged in chooping wood close by, hearing the explasion and sceing the emoke, ran to the spat, when he perceived two of the boys with their clothes entirely burned off, with the exception of their sespenders and a small particle of clothing around their waists and so the form of the form of the form of the country of the follows, the found the other boy lying dead upon the fibor, and a little child'ying sin the crafted crying—the lothers of which were on fire. The little thing was birned very severely, but at last accounts was still living, though its sufferings were intense, and but little prospects for its recovery. The two boys survived their brother but for a hort time, and to fine were butted in the Ridge. Valley burying ground, on Sanday last. This is one of the most distressing accidents that has ever fallon, to our lot to record, as by one fall swoop, a whole family of interesting chidren, is destroyed, and a fond father and affectionate mother, left to mourn th
