LETTER FROM HON. DANIL. STURGEON. Wo publish with pleasure the subjoined lotter eays the Washington Union, which has been handed to us for publication, from this distinguished and vote-ran democraf, who lately represented in part the Keystone State in the Senate of the United States, and whose truly national patriotism and unflinching fidel-Ity to the domocratic cause are well known to the untry :

UNIONTOWN, June 816, 1852. Drins rown, June old, 1003. Dran Sin !-- Providues 10 roto, wo had hoard here of the nomination of General Frank-lin Piece for the Provideacy. The news arised in -court week, and of course there were many people in town. The nomination was received with the ut-minas enthusiasm. From the course of the ballounge, 'flo fidmination of a new man was anticipated, an flist now man seemed just the one to take with the Ilist now man seemed just the one to take with the public feeling.

 With General Pierce I have the pleasure of a per-tend adquaintence, and can freely bear leatimory to his eminent talents and great private worth. If the expression of opinion here is any indication of the expression throughout the country, it will not be difficult to predict the result of the next November velection. "Gene Pierce will be trimonhanity sustain-ed by the Democracy of the Union. Mark my pre-diction." Yours truly. DANIEL STURGEON.

How GEN. PIERCE WAS INFORMED OF HIS NOMINA-TIGN.-A Boston, paper referring to the nomination of Gan Pierce for the Presidency, says:

bi Gan. Pierce for the Presidency, says: "When the news of the nomination reached this eity (Geh. Pierce was on a visit to Moant Auburn, with his wife.' Isaac O. Barnes, ex-United States Marshell, ar old and personal friend of Gen. Pierce, I immediately started out post hasto to communicate the pleasing intelligence to him. Mooting the Gen-eral near the bronze statue of Bowditch, he said, 'Frank, who do you suppose has got the donination ?' Pierce--Can't say, presume it is General Cass.'-Barnes--Nosir.' It is no other person than your-acif!' Impossible, Col. Barnes I to cannot be,' said 'Freing, 'Fast, Frank, a fact! here's a paper con-taining the despatches from Baltimore.' The party I then rode into town together, and Gen. Pierce recei-to the congratulations of his friends at the Tromont House, during the alternoon and evening.'

A PROFITABLE CROF.-Mr. Charles Cutby, of Partiaz, county, Va., raised this season, on threefourthe of an acre of land, 1,890 quarte of straw berries, which averaged him 12 cents per quartmaking in the aggregato $2,36 25.
