

WHITE HALL ACADEMY.
3 miles west of Harrisburg, Pa.
THE third session of this new and flourishing Institution will commence on Monday, the 3rd of May next. Parents or Guardians having sons or wards to educate, or young men wishing to educate themselves, will do well to inquire into the merits of this school, as it is believed to possess advantages which may not be found elsewhere. The number of students is necessarily limited, the course and plans of instruction are extensive, and the surrounding country is noted for the morality of its citizens and the healthfulness of its climate.
TERMS:
Boarding, washing, edging, and tuition, per session, (five months) $50 00
Instructors: D. DENLINGER, Principal and Teacher of Ancient and Modern Languages and Mathematics.
Miss Row, Assistant Teacher of Mathematics and Natural Sciences.
Mrs. Denlinger, Teacher of Vocal and Instrumental Music.
Circulars furnished and any information given on application to D. DENLINGER, Principal, Harrisburg, Pa.

WOODWARD & SCHMIDT, Carlsle, January 22, 1852.

NEW STORE.
THE subscriber is overstocked with NEW GOODS, and the cash system adopted—the pass-book system abolished—therefore, bring on your "diligent hands" and have from 25 to 40 per cent. off, that otherwise you are required to pay where the credit system is in vogue. The subscriber announces to the public that he has returned from the city with a large and complete stock of GOODS, all new, which have been selected with great care, from first hands, and with special reference to the wants of the people and for this market. They will be sold at 10 per cent. advance on first cost.
The merchant who does business on the cash principle has quick returns, and consequently can purchase his Goods to better advantage and sell at smaller profits than he who sells on time and has to make his paying customers pay the losses on the credit system. Buyers consider well this fact before you purchase.
Farmers, mechanics, laboring men and others, awake to your interests and free yourselves of the enormous tax under which you have been and are still laboring. This you can do by purchasing your Goods at the cheap cash store of the subscriber, at the old stand in South Hanover street, near Scott's hotel. My stock of goods consists of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, the prices of which will astonish every one. In the Ladies department will be found a complete and fancy Delaines, Berage Delaines, Silk Poppins, Ginghams, Prints of the latest patterns and the most fashionable French styles, together with a magnificent assortment of Laces, Edgings & White Goods. Swiss and plain Muslins, plain, figured, striped and barred Muslins of the best makes, latest designs and very low. In addition to the above I have a large supply of Fresh Groceries,
such as Coffee, Tea, Sugar, Spices, &c., the prices of which cannot fail to please; Sugar and Tobacco. By strict attention to business and a desire to please, I hope to receive a share of public patronage.
CHARLES BARNITZ, Carlsle, March 4, 1852—4f
