self.
It is not probable that I can at this time have any at is, not probable that I can at this time have any recollection of having had, the honor of seeing Gon. Scott on the 9th of June, 1817, at a dinner in New York, or of the topic of conversation as he suggestic incumstances so unimportant are not spt to be impressed upon the memory. But I feel a confident perguasion that I did not make use of any expressions incompatible, with the high respect which I entertain for Gon, Jackson.

Also this publication had been before this construction.

After this publication had been before this country a considerable time, De Witt Clinton was elected Governor of New York, and upon his inauguration been mentioned in connection with this slander, and on her account as well as my own, I now pronounce the stories circulated against the lady, and directly or indirectly, in any duel. As soon v. Clinton had taken upon hinself this oath of Sen. Scott challenged him to fight a duel, on at of the above publication, knowing, as he satisfies challenge could not be accepted without took a public oath, of the most binding character, against duelling—that he would not, in fact, be concorned, directly or indirectly, in any duel. As soon of as Gov. Clinion had taken upon himself this oath of office. Gen. Scott challenged him to fight a duel, on did, that his challenge could not be accepted without perjury on the part of Gov. Clinton. In this instance To the Heira and Legal Representatives of Richard Patten, late of Dickinson township, dee'd.
Take notice that by order of the Orphan's Counterface, Gov. Clinton gave Gen. Scott the only reply he could. He informed him that he would hold his challenge under advisoment, until he (Scott), should sattle an unadjusted difficulty between this clinical and one A. Jackson.
