CHOLERA AT CHAMBERSBURG.—A letter from Chambersburg, dated Sept. 6th, says:—The cholera has again broken out in the town. Last week we had 13 deaths from the disease, and to day, 3 deaths, and several new cases are reported.

THE VOLUNTEER GROSSLY MISREPRESENTS THE CHARACTER OF JUDGE JOHNSON'S SPEECH. It is an outrageous falsehood to say that it was obscene, profane, and nonsensical. On the contrary it was an able argumentative speech, abounding in humorous illustrations, and addressed with powerful effect to the understanding of an intelligent audience. In every respect it was superior to the low and slanderous diatribe against Gen. Scott delivered by Gen. Sam Houston at the head-quarters of the Whigs at Harrisburg. We reaffirm what we said before—the speech delivered by Johnson of Ohio, at the Whig Harvest Home, on the 23rd ult., was obscene, profane, and infamous, and the man who attempts to defend that speech furnishes very good evidence that he is a blackguard himself, and lost to all sense of decency. We could, were we so disposed, give the very language Johnson used in his speech, but we cannot pollute our columns by even hinting at what he did say. The Herald may pronounce our statement an "outrageous falsehood," but we can tell the editor that we have heard dozens of Whigs condemn the speech of Johnson in terms of bitterness. On the day of the meeting we heard a highly respectable Whig of the town declare that "none but a fool and a blackguard would dare use such language before an audience." And yet the Herald, with brazen-faced impudence, is reckless enough to calumniate Johnson because of his "argumentative speech."

We can only repeat that the speech would have disgraced a buffoon, and the man who defends it is either a blackguard himself or ignorant of what constitutes decency.

ASSASSINATION OF WM. YOUNG.—A man named Jos. Davis, is in jail at Lancaster, Pa., charged with inducing five youths, sons of Wm. Neelings, C. Wilson, John Crowl and F. Reese, to go with him to Philadelphia, to embark on a whaling voyage. It is said he has received $10 a piece for them.

JUDGE PRICE OF HILLSBOROUGH, Ohio, who did good service for the Whigs in that State, and is out for Pierce and King. Ohio is good for 15,000 Democratic majority. The fact is the election is going all one way, and the Whigs might as well strike at once.

Immense Meeting.—The Democratic Mass Meeting, at Reading, on Saturday last, was the largest assembly of the kind ever held in Pennsylvania. It is estimated that about 20,000 persons were present, & the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. The Hon. James Buchanan was chosen President of the meeting, and amongst the selections made for Vice-Presidents, were Governor BLOOM, of this State, and Governor LOUIS, of Maryland. Amongst the speakers were Messrs. Buchanan, Hall of Boston, Black and Douglas, of Illinois, Lowe, of Maryland, and Stanton, of Tennessee.

UNFORTUNATE OCCURRENCE.—During the performance of the Potato crop are becoming very general on Monday afternoon last, one of the riders, Mr. A. Levi, fell from a horse, and while in the act of falling, the horse gave Mr. L. a severe kick, the force of which broke his leg, just above the ankle.

MAGNANIMITY OF OUR COUNTY.

The conferees from Perry county voted for our respected townman, J. ELIAS BONHAM, Esq., for Congress. It may seem a little strange that Cumberland county should have refused the nomination when it was tendered her; and when we take into consideration the fact that we have not had a member of Congress for the last ten years, it appears probable that we should, as a matter of choice, refuse to accept the nomination. Well, it is strange, but for their magnanimity—they are clear to a fault. No difference what our claims may be—no difference how much we have been imposed upon, we are always ready to submit. We pay more taxes than any county in the State of the same population, and this is about the only privilege we enjoy, in a political point of view. We are always ready to acknowledge the claims and the "rights" of other counties, but we never think of our own. What other county in the State would have refused the honor of having the candidate for Congress, when offered her, except our own? There is not one. No doubt our friends in this county would have felt gratified could they have had the privilege of supporting one of their own sons for Congress, but then York wanted the man—that was enough; Cumberland could not think of disputing the rights of another county. Well, we are satisfied. Now that Cumberland has refused the candidate for Congress, we hope she may stick to her old habits, and work on for other counties. This is her duty—let her work it out, and we will help her to do it.

Perry county—glorious little Perry—offered us the candidate and we rejected the offer! Many thanks to you, daughter. You are more thoughtful of some old mother than she is of herself. You would assist her and comfort her, but she has refused your sympathy and rejected your kind offers. Let the old lady "slide"—she is in her dotage.

CONFERENCE MEETING.

In consequence of the absence of the Conferees of Perry county, at the first meeting, a second meeting took place at Bridgeport, on Tuesday, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress for this district. The three counties, Cumberland, Perry, and York, were represented in full, and the best of feeling prevailed. It will be seen, by the proceedings in another column, that on first ballot, Hon. Wm. H. Kurtz, of York, was nominated for Congress, he having received the votes of the conferees of Cumberland and York. The Perry conferees, on first ballot, voted for our townman, J. ELIAS BONHAM, Esq. Mr. Kurtz is therefore the regular nominee, and as such will receive the support of the Democracy of the entire district. He is a gentleman of sterling worth, and as firm a Democrat as can be found in the State. Of industrious habits and correct principles, we congratulate our Democratic friends in having a candidate for Congress so entirely worthy their confidence and support.

"The Canvas of Pranks,"—Still Another.

The Whigs of New York, says the New York Register, have got out a counter-foil "Stivageman" life of Frank Pierce, purporting to be genuine, in which all kinds of extravagant and ridiculous stories are told about him. This is another species of whig electioneering, and shows how desperate the action of the whig party has become. The Register will doubtless be ready to cry out that this is only another "hoax"—which, being interpreted by the standard dictionaries, means another "fraud," another "cheat," another "false pretences." It is to be hoped, however, that in this case no congressional signatures have been either really appended or forged. In respect to franks, we suppose they will be forthcoming somehow—either forged or genuine. This mode of canvassing must of itself insure the election of Gen. Pierce. It is a gross insult to the intelligence and honor, and, as such, the people will regard as a recent hit. It results from and attests the federal tendency to distrust and depreciate the character and understanding of the masses of the people.

COUNTERFEITERS IN A TIGHT PLACE.

The Philadelphia Ledger, of the 3d inst., says:—The decent made upon a nest of counterfeiters, in Montour County, a week or two ago, has successfully resulted in the arrest of the whole party, located at and near the rendezvous. On Friday morning last, Capt. Bennett, with officers Mirkle and Bunting, again proceeded to that County. On Saturday they arrived at Muncy, in Lycoming County, and arrested a notorious dealer in spurious money, named James Brass. They then proceeded to Limerick Township, where they arrested Abraham Hanson, another noted character, who has been in the business for about twenty five years past.

On the same day, and at the same place, they arrested Dr. Gettner, who had been admitted to bail, and also took into custody another old offender, named Louis Haas, a son of Abraham Haas.—These parties were all taken before the nearest magistrate, who, after a hearing of the case, demanded bail in the sum of $7000 for Abraham Hanson, $5000 for his son Lewis, and $3000 for James Brass, in default of which they were all committed.

The officers succeeded in recovering the plate which was stolen when the officers made their first visit to Dr. Gettner's house, and also a new plate $1 of the Harrisburg Bank. The latter had not yet been issued, although several thousand dollars had been printed, preparatory to signing. The specimen exhibited to us was the most admirably executed note that we have ever seen. It appears to have been worked upon a steel plate, and the engraving is of such a character as would reflect credit upon the most expert workman. It is a true copy of the genuine note. Upon the right of it is the Goddess of Liberty and American shield, also the Capitol at Harrisburg. On the left is the coat-of-arms of Pennsylvania.

The notes purport to have been engraved by Messrs. Danforth, Bald, & Co., Philadelphia and New York. The notes are printed upon excellent paper, and are well calculated to deceive. The officers obtained about ten thousand dollars of this spurious money, which they destroyed. Dr. Gettner was placed on trial at the Criminal Court of Montour county, on Wednesday last, and pleaded guilty to making the plate upon which was worked the Harrisburg $2's. There has been an immense amount of this money peddled off upon the public.

Mayor Gilpin has been absent from this city for several days past, in Montour county, superintending this affair. The successful manner in which the Mayor, Lieut. Buckley, and the other officers have carried out their arrangements, is worthy of the highest commendation.

Hauso & Son, and James Brass, will be tried at the next term of the Criminal Court of that county. We are informed that these fellows are all related by marriage, and connected with some other counterfeiting establishment.

The engraver of these plates, Judge Allen alias Governor Allen, alias James Allen, has been arrested, and is in prison in this county awaiting his trial.

THE POTATO CROP IN CANADA.—The Hamilton Spectator says:—We regret to learn that complaints of failure in the potato crop are becoming very general in the vicinity. From all we can hear upon the subject, it is evident that although the disease has just made its appearance, the failure will be complete in many places.

ITEMS FOR POLITICIANS.

In Clinton county, Ohio, they have a Scott glee club, who are great manufacturers of whig cantillanery. One of their refrains has a chorus, in which all the ladies join, thus:—
D—m the Locos,
K—ill our ally "em!"
Give 'em hell,
With Scott and Graham!

CONSISTENT.—The Whigs are abusing General Pierce because the London Times happened to speak favorably of his abilities. At the same time they parade with great glee a letter from the West of Wallpapers, praising Gen. Scott! So, according to the mode of reasoning adopted by the Whigs, there must be two "British candidates" in the field!

Col. JOHN W. WALLWATER, of Harrisburg, who has all his life been a leading, talented, energetic, working whig, goes the whole figure for Pierce and King, repudiating Scott and Whiggery. So we go.

OHIO.—The Ohio Statesman, one of the best and ablest informed papers in the Union, thus speaks of the prospects in that State:—"Ohio will give Pierce and King a majority of thousands. The freesoilers claim sixty thousand votes in Ohio for Haly and Julian. If so, Pierce will beat Scott thirty thousand at least. This game is up with whiggery in Ohio on the Scott platform of nativism and the other aims which he claims to be the father of!"

A letter from North Carolina to the editors of the Patriot, dated Aug. 22, says:—"We now entertain no doubt of giving Pierce and King the vote of North Carolina. Graham is no more popular here than Mr. King, who is a native of this State, and who is to meet and address the people at Goldsborough week after next."

BRIEF AND FITTING.—The editor of the Rudny, Miss. whig paper, says:—"We are not going to turn Democrat, but as for sustaining Gen. Scott, we can not and will not."

Col. Alexander K. McClung, who was placed by the Mississippi Whig Convention, which assembled in Jackson in May last, on the electoral ticket for the State at large, has declined service, because he is unwilling to support Scott for the Presidency. He is known far and wide as a gentleman of high position, of ability and influence in the Whig party.

Gen. SIMON has written an admirable letter to a number of his constituents, at Adams, Illinois. In this letter he not only endorses and praises General Pierce's gallantry as a soldier, but also his ability as a statesman and his sterling worth as a private citizen. The testimony of such a man will have more weight with the people than the slanders of an army of bad men.

Can any Whig tell us why it is that every soldier in the Mexican War, or any other, supports Pierce and opposes Scott for President? There is a power full meaning.

A despatch from Washington to New Orleans, said to be of good Whig authority, says that the Hon. Charles Mc. CRAW, Secretary of War, pronounced the nomination of Gen. Scott "a failure," and will not support him.

A Democrat explains Gen. Scott's meaning when he said, "I accept the nomination with the resolutions annexed," by supposing the General considered the Whig party dead; that he was appointed administrator, and accepted the charge cum testamento annexo.

Blackhawk's opinion in favor of Gen. Scott is brought forward by the Whig press, in order to prove his competency for the Presidency. This, with the Duke of Wellington's favorable notice, which is supposed by the Whigs, has great influence among the Cockneys and Kicksops.

There is a great deal of meaning in the following words of Frank Pierce:—"The democratic party sent its delegates to Baltimore, not alone to nominate candidates, but to reaffirm principles, and to present conclusions."

An organization to be styled the "Young Men's Webster Club" is now forming in Boston, and the Bee, says it promises to be a large and most efficient body.

On last Friday week the sturdy Democracy of the Tenth Legion of Virginia, met in mass meeting, numbering some twelve or fifteen thousand, to push on the Democratic column. They had a glorious time of it.

Col. Webb, of New York, who was Gen. Taylor's minister to Austria, declares the nomination of Gen. Scott was accomplished by a dishonest and disgraceful bargain—such a corrupt bargain as was ever placed on paper."

A letter from a gentleman well acquainted with the public sentiment in the States named to the editor of the Concord Patriot, says:—"put down 20,000 majority for Pierce and King in Alabama, and the same in Mississippi."

The democrats of Philadelphia County have instructed their Senators and Representatives to vote against all new and old Bank charters.

X. of the Baltimore Sun, asserts positively that Mr. Cabell of Florida will not support Gen. Scott.

The Democratic County Convention of Berks, at their meeting last week, unanimously nominated Hon. HENRY A. MULLENBAUGH, of Reading, for Congress.

WILSON REEVY, Esq., of Chambersburg, is the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Franklin district.

JAMES C. VAN DYKE, Esq., of Philadelphia, is the Democratic candidate for Congress in the district at present represented by Hon. Joseph R. Chandler, who is the Whig candidate for re-election.

The Whigs of the Second Congressional District, Philadelphia, on Monday evening last, nominated the Hon. Joseph R. Chandler for Congress. The vote stood on the first ballot—Chandler 41—Conrad 21.

PRIVATE OPINION OF WHIGS.—In a private letter of a New York Whig merchant to his printer in Louisville, he says:—"New York is down on Scott. I wonder if he will get one State in the Union!"

The Herald has taken to abusing DANIEL WEBSTER and his Whig friends in Massachusetts and other States, who can't go fass and feathers. We hope the Herald will continue this business until the election. It will help Scott amazingly!

GOOD FOR MARYLAND.—A friend writing from Baltimore, says:—"The cause of Democracy is coming on gloriously in this city. Our friends are more sanguine than ever, of carrying the city by an unprecedented majority—they also count upon carrying the State by a handsome vote, and if our friends throughout the State are to be depended upon, we will establish the Democracy of the Union."

The Whig press are now endeavoring to manufacture Gen. Scott into an eloquent orator. His oratory is like his life, remarkably sup-erficial.

Scott's sup has proven a most unavailing delusion. North Carolina. The Whig party attempted to eat it with such "baste" that they upset the dishes and scalded the party most fearfully. Mangus and Stanley are said to have been the principal sufferers.

Mr. Robinson, of New York, the hired sardiner of Gen. Pierce, is an Irish Protestant. To most Catholics he is known as an itinerate lecturer, extolling at anything to get a living—a man of mischief and lies.

Conferee Meeting.

At a meeting of conferees appointed by the Democratic County Conventions of York, Cumberland and Perry counties, held at the house of Mr. Charles Doleen, in Bridgeport, Cumberland county, on Tuesday, Sept. 7, 1852, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress for this district, the following conferees were present, viz:—
York—A. J. Glosbrenner, George A. Barnitz, Henry G. Side, Cumberland—Skiles Woodburn, D. S. Dunlap, Dr. C. W. Dehn.
Perry—Hon. James Black, Hon. John Junkin, John J.roup.

The conferees proceeded to organize by appointing GEORGE A. BARNITZ, Esq., of York county, Chairman, and DANIEL S. DUNLAP, of Cumberland county, Secretary.

On motion of A. J. Glosbrenner, the conferees proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Congress, with the following result:—
Messrs. Glosbrenner, Barnitz, Side, Woodburn, Dunlap and Dehn, voted for Hon. WILLIAM H. KURTZ, Messrs. Black, Junkin and Group, 3, voted for J. ELIAS BONHAM, Esq.

On motion of Mr. Black, the conferees, for the purpose of putting their unanimity on record, proceeded to another ballot, when all the conferees from the counties voted for Hon. Wm. H. Kurtz, and he was accordingly unanimously nominated as the Democratic candidate for Congress for this district.

On motion, it was resolved, that the proceedings of this conference be published in all the Democratic papers in the district.

GEO. A. BARNITZ, Chairman.
DANIEL S. DUNLAP, Sec'y.

South Middleton Awake!

A large and spirited gathering of the Democracy of South Middleton township, took place at the public school house, on Wednesday evening the 4th inst., where the true spirit of the party was exhibited. The great number who assembled upon so short a notice, evinced a determination not to be mistaken, that so far as South Middleton is concerned, they were ready and willing to do their duty, and would preserve their district free from the encroachments and influences of whiggery.

The meeting was organized by calling Hon. SAMUEL WOODBURN to the Chair, and appointing Hon. JOHN STRAAT, Wm. Moore, HENRY WILSON, JOHN GONN, Gen. W. F. FULK, S. R. RUPLEY, F. HURST, JOHN LEE, JOHN L. HARRIS, JOHN B. BRADLEY, SAMUEL WOODBURN, Wm. BARNUM, and A. B. BOSTON, Vice Presidents; and Hugh Stuart, Alfred Moore, Author Gen. Hugh Augustus Clady, Col. John F. Hunter, John Stuart, Jr., Zog Col S. Crop, and Harvey Cook, Secretaries.

On motion, Hugh Stuart, Arthur Green, Samuel Layman, Samule Bradley, Harmon Bowler, Thomas Crighead, Christian Wine, were appointed to prepare resolutions for the consideration of the meeting, which committee after retiring for a time, reported the following:—

Resolved, That the nomination of Gen. Franklin Pierce, as Vice President, by the Democratic National Convention for the office of President and Vice President of the United States, meets our hearty approbation, and we shall do our duty justly created and taken before a magistrate, when it was clearly established, that he acted entirely in self-defense. She was, therefore, released from custody.

It may truly be said of the deceased, that he was of "meek and quiet spirit," having sustained for many years a consistent christian character. When some of the infirmities which usually attend a life so prolonged, began to gather about him, it was cheering to know that a sense of heavenly and divine things did not forsake him. His love to the saviour was the same; aspirations of prayer and praise were his daily exercises. The promises of the gospel were his stay and comfort. The bible, for years, was his constant companion. The desires of his heart, uttered in child like simplicity, were for the application of the blood of Christ, for grace to prepare him for his last change, so that when death would come, he would have nothing to do but to die. "Thou shalt come to thy grave in full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in its season."—[Com.]

Highly favored, happy children— Highly favored, highly blessed, Goto soon in find your Heaven, Goto to join your endless rest.

Gone like fragile vernal flowers, Withered in the morn of life; But on wings with script's powers, Mounts the soul to worlds of light.

Farwell ye parting little ones, Our loss your highest gain shall be; Nor will we e'er your memories mourn, Since Jesus said "come unto me."

Your bodies now serenely rest, In silence dead, and sleep profound; And prin no more shall heave that breast, While countless ages roll around.

Your happy spirits now may reign, Ed, begun to gather about him, it was cheering to know that a sense of heavenly and divine things did not forsake him. His love to the saviour was the same; aspirations of prayer and praise were his daily exercises. The promises of the gospel were his stay and comfort. Report of Grand Jurors.

APRIL SESSION, 1852. To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Cumberland county.

The Grand Jury of the April Sessions, 1852, respectfully represent.

That they have visited the county Jail, and after having carefully examined it, are unanimously of the opinion that the present building is entirely unfit for the purposes for which it was intended. They are also of the opinion that it can be truly repaired so as to make it safe, neat, and fit for use, without greater expense than we think its condition would justify.

They therefore, earnestly recommend to the court, and to the Commissioners of Cumberland county, that the present county prison be entirely removed, and that a new jail be built by the county, that will be safe, and that in its appearance will be creditable. They would further recommend that the new building should be erected on the site of the old, if that should be sufficiently extensive, and if not that it be made so by purchasing some of the adjoining property for that purpose.

All of which is respectfully submitted. Simon Dreabach, Foreman; John Spahr, Clemens McParlane, Alex. McDowell, David Coover, Henry Harkness, John Henry Speer, John Gustafner, Wm. Hoeb, Samuel M. Hoover, Jacob Jacoby, Benjamin McKeehan, John Peters, Joseph Lindsey, George Anderson, Adam Puffer, Robert Quigley, John S. Hawk, John W. Leidich, Samuel Worst, George Weitz.

The Grand Jury of the August Sessions, 1852, respectfully represent.

That according to the Annexes to the Court they have visited the county Jail, and after having carefully examined it, are unanimously of the opinion that the present building is unfit for the purpose for which it was intended. They are of opinion that it cannot be repaired so as to make it safe, neat, and fit for use, without greater expense than its condition would justify. They therefore recommend to the court, and to the Commissioners of Cumberland county, that the present county prison be entirely removed, and that a new jail be built by the county, that will be safe, and that in its appearance will be creditable. They would further recommend that the new building should be erected on the site of
