

American Volunteer.

BY JOHN B. BRATTON.

CARLEISLE, PA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1862.

AT $3 00 PER ANNUM.
NO. 48.

Ahead of all Competition!

FALL & WINTER GOODS.

ARNOLD & LEVI again come before the public with a tremendous stock of Goods at prices so low that will astonish every one. To the vigilant as well as the victors belong the spoils. Call soon as the cheap goods we are now offering cannot remain long on hand. Ladies come immediately and make your selections while the assortment is good. Our stock of Dress Goods consists of Black and Fancy Dress Silks, Plain and figured Cashmeres, Dolmanes, Moulin de Bege, twilled Persian Cloths, Matines, Alpaca, Paromotta Cloths, &c.

Shawls.

Our stock of Shawls is large and complete, comprising every variety of Shawls and varying in price from 37 1/2 cents to $40.

Ribbons & Notions!

In Ribbon Ribbons we have a very large assortment of the latest styles, and lower prices than can be purchased elsewhere.

Embroideries.

We have a beautiful assortment of Embroideries, such as Collars, Cuffs, Chemises, Jaconet and Swiss Bagnings and Insertings.

Men's wear.

In Men's wear we have a great variety of goods, such as Cloths, Cassimeres, Sattinetos, Jeans, Vestings, &c.

Shirts and Drawers.

We have of all qualities of Shirts, Merino and Cotton, which we will sell very low.

September 23, 1862.

Slaves! Slaves!

THE subscriber has made arrangements with the best manufacturers of Slaves in Troy, Albany, New York, Philadelphia, &c., by which he can offer inducements to persons wishing to purchase Slaves equal to the manufacturers. Among his assortment of

COOK STOVES,

will be found the best and most approved patterns adapted for burning either wood or coal, all of which are warranted. His embrace new and beautiful styles, and such as cannot fail to please all tastes. In addition to these he has on hand a large assortment of MADE IN THE U.S.A. STOVES, which he feels satisfied will please purchasers.

Parlor Stoves,

Persons desirous of procuring a good stove will do well to examine my stock, as it will be their advantage to give me the preference.

Wm. D. GORGAS.
West High St., opposite Roads' Warehouse,
Carlisle, Sept. 16, 1862.

WHITE HALL ACADEMY.

3 miles west of Harrisburg, Pa.

THE Fourth Session of this flourishing Institution will commence on Monday the 1st of November next. Parents and Guardians are respectfully solicited to inquire into the merits of this Institution before sending their sons or wards elsewhere. Its location, its internal and domestic arrangements, the course and method of instruction, and the character of the students, it is believed, are such as to recommend it.

TERMS:

Boarding, washing, tuition in the English, French, Latin, &c., per session, (5 months), $60 00
Ancient and Modern Languages, each, 5 00
Instrumental music, 10 00
or circulars and other information, address
D. DENLINGER, Principal,
White Hill, Camb. Co., Pa.
September 9, 1862.

HARDWARE.

THE subscriber having just returned from the east with another large addition to his former stock, making it the most complete assortment of Hardware, to be found in the county, would invite the attention of all desirous of getting bargains to call and examine for themselves before purchasing elsewhere.

I return my sincere thanks to the public generally, for the very liberal patronage heretofore extended, and solicit a continuance of the same.

HENRY SAXTON.
July 24, 1862.

Wood Wanted.

WANTED by the subscriber, at his brick yard, in Carlisle, 200 cords of Oak Wood, & 50 cords of Pine, to be delivered during the coming winter or early in the spring. The cash will be paid for the wood when delivered.

PETER SPAHR.
September 23, 1862—4t

Mount Joy Academy.

MOUNT JOY, LANCASTER COUNTY, PA.

THE winter session of this Institution will commence on the first Tuesday of November. The elementary and higher English branches, Mathematics, and Languages are thoroughly taught. For particulars consulting references, terms, &c., address the Principals.

E. L. MOORE,
J. W. SIMONTON.
Sept 23, 1862—6t

To Coach and Cabinet Makers.

THE subscriber is fully prepared to meet their wants with an enlarged stock of hardware in their line, embracing Mail Castings, Springs, Axles, bands, patent leather, laces, curtains and floor cloth, &c., without end. He has also on hand a large supply of varnishes, oils, turpentine, at such prices that will make it their interest to give him the preference.

H. SAXTON.
July 23.

Shoemakers,

WILL find it to their interest to call and examine my extensive assortment of lasts, patent leather, calf skins, moccasin, lining and binding skins, varnish, awls, thread, wax, and shoemakers kit in general.

H. SAXTON.
July 22.

Cement! Cement!

JUST received and for sale very low, a fresh supply of Hydraulic Cement for Cisterns, &c.—Also Cistern Pumps, at the cheap hardware store in East Main street.

July 23.

Limoburner's Coal.

300 TONS Lyken's Valley Nut Coal, a superior article for burning lime, receiving and for sale by

W B MURRAY Agt.
July 29, 1862—6m

NOTICE.

IN THE MATTER of the application for the discharge of Mrs. Ann Bredin, as Administratrix of James Bredin, deceased.

Notice is hereby given to all persons interested in the said application, to be and appear at our next stated Orphans' Court, to be held at Carlisle, in and for Cumberland county, on Tuesday the 23 day of November next, and show cause why said Mrs. Ann Bredin should not be discharged from her said trust, and such other matter as will be right in the premises.

By the Court.
DANIEL MARTIN, CLK. O. O.
Sept 20, 1862—4t

CARPETS.

A large stock of three ply Ingrain and Vanitie Carpets, Matings and Oil Cloths. For sale by

ARNOLD & LEVI,
September 23.

Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that application will be made to the next Legislature, agreeably to the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth, to renew the Charter of the Carlisle Deposit Bank. And that to make such alteration in the Charter, as to confer upon said Bank the rights and privileges of a Bank of issue, and change the name to that of the "Carlisle Bank."

By order of the Board of Directors.
WM. M. BEETEM, Cashier.
July 1, 1862.—6m.

Estate Notice.

LETTERS testamentary with the will annexed on the estate of John Clendenin, sr., late of Silver Spring township, Cumberland county, deceased, have been issued by the Register of said county to the subscriber living in the same township. All persons indebted to said estate will, make immediate payment, and those having claims against the estate will present them properly authenticated for settlement to

JOHN CLENDENIN, Jr., Ex'r.
Sept 9 1862—6t

Mechanicsburg Institute.

A Select Boarding School, embracing two distinct and separate departments, Male and Female.

REV. JOS. S. LOOSE, A. M.,
Principal of Preparatory Department, Marshall College, Mechanicsburg, Pa.

This flourishing Institute will open its winter session under flattering auspices. Measures have been adopted to erect a large and eligible edifice, adapted to the accommodation of scholars of both sexes. It is located in the healthy and pleasant village of Mechanicsburg, Cumberland county, Pa., 8 miles from Harrisburg, and 6 miles east of Carlisle. The Cumberland Valley Railroad passes through the place, and renders it very accessible from every part of the State. The educational course of the Male Department embraces the usual studies of a thorough English education, and the preparation of students for one of the higher classes in College. The Female Department shall be so conducted as to afford a thorough collegiate education for young Ladies.—It will be under the care of the Principal, assisted by an experienced and accomplished lady.

TERMS:

Ancient Languages, $12 00
English branches, 10 00
Modern Languages, German, French, &c., 10 00
Music on Piano, 10 00
Boarding, including tuition, 50 00
Contingent expenses, 50 00
The winter session will commence on Monday, 11th of October, and terminate on the 1st of March. A weekly lecture will be delivered in the Institute, on Anatomy and Physiology, by J. H. HENNING, M. D.

REFERRERS:
J. W. Nevin, D. D., Marshall College.
P. Schaff, D. D., " "
Prof. W. M. Nevin, " "
Prof. S. C. Porter, " "
Prof. S. Apple, " "
Rev. A. H. Kramer, Carlisle.
Rev. M. Johnston, " "
S. B. Keiffer, M. D., " "
Dr. J. H. Herring, " "
Rev. Geo. Morris, " "
George H. Bucher, Esq., Hogestown.
Sept 9, 1862—2m

Plainfield Classical Academy.

FOUR miles West of Carlisle. The Thirtieth Session commences on Monday, Nov. 3, 1862. This Institution has been in successful operation 7 years, during which times additions and improvements have been made as to render it one of the most commodious and convenient in the State.

In regard to healthfulness it may be mentioned that no case of serious sickness has occurred in the Institution since it was founded. Its moral purity is attested by the fact that depraved associations, scenes of vice, and resorts for dissipation have no existence in its neighborhood.

The course of instruction comprises all branches required by the merchant, professional men or collegians. Also modern languages, vocal and instrumental music, &c.

It is the determination of the Proprietor that the Institution shall sustain the reputation it has heretofore acquired for imparting thorough instruction, and inculcating and establishing virtuous principles in the minds of the youth submitted to its charge.

Terms (prepayment of five months) $50 00.
For particulars containing references, address
R. K. BURNS,
Principal and Proprietor,
Plainfield P. O., Camb. Co., Pa.
Assisted by Wm. A. STRYVELL, A. B., and Wm. LEA, Esq.
September 23, 1862.

100 Piano Fortes.

T. GILBERT & CO'S
New York Ware Rooms, 323 Broadway,
CORNER of Anthony street, and opposite Broadway and Bank and Thos. street, where the largest assortment of Pianos with and without the celebrated improved Zelenka, may be found—all of which have the Metallic Frame, and are warranted to stand any climate, and give entire satisfaction, and will be sold at great bargains. By an experience of eight years, resulting in many important improvements, the Zelenka has been brought to a perfection attained by no others. Nearly 2000 Zelenkas are now applied, and the demand is rapidly increasing. Elegant Builders or Cottage Pianos containing 100 small organs. T. G. & Co's Pianos admitted to be superior to all others, owing to their firmness and long standing in tune. Prices same as at the manufacturers. Dealers supplied at liberal discounts. E.
H. Wade's and the entire Boston catalogue of Music and instruction books furnished at this store at wholesale. HORACE WATKES, Sole Agt.
Constantly on hand an extensive assortment of second hand Pianos in Rosewood and Mahogany cases, varying in price from $30 to $160. Second hand Zelenka Pianos from $200 to $275—Grand Pianos from $300 to $700. Prince & Co's Molo-dians from $25 to $80. Carhart $55 to $90—Guitars from $10 to $75, &c.
August 19, 1862—3m

500 Agents Wanted.

$1,000 A YEAR.

WANTED in every county of the United States, active and enterprising men, to engage in the sale of some of the best books published in the country. The men of good address, possessing a small capital of from $25 to $100, such inducements will be offered as to enable them to make from $3 to $10 a day profit.

The books published by us are all useful in their character, extremely popular and command large sales wherever they are offered.

DANIELS & GETZ,
Successors to W. A. Leary & Co., No. 138
North Second St., Phila.
Sept 2, 1862—3m

BEAUTIFUL assortment of embossed Table Covers, for sale by

ARNOLD & LEVI.
Sept 23.

WOOD WANTED AT THIS OFFICE.

WOOD WANTED AT THIS OFFICE.—Those of our subscribers who desire to pay their subscription in wood, are requested to deliver it during the present and the coming month. We want good wood, and will have nothing else.

THE VOLUNTEER.

John B. Bratton, Editor and Proprietor.
CARLEISLE, OCTOBER 14, 1862.

DEATH OF THE DUKE OF WELLINGTON.

The Foreign news by the Canada, announces the death of the Duke of Wellington, on Thursday, the 14th ult., from an apoplectic fit. ANTHONY WELLESLEY, the Duke of Wellington, son of the Earl of Mornington was born in 1769, and was in his 84th year, at the period of his death. Few names have been more renowned in history, than that of the "Iron Duke," and few men have lived so long engaged in the active affairs of life, or events of such a momentous character. He entered the Army as an ensign, in his 18th year. In his 21st year he was sent to the House of Commons. In five years from the time he entered the service, he had reached the command of a regiment, without having seen any active service. The first service he saw, was in India, against Tipu Sultan, where he speedily rose to the rank of Major General. Next he was engaged in the Maratha war, which he brought to a successful close. In the Peninsula campaign in Spain and Portugal, he did good service for his country, and was rewarded the title of Baron Douro, and Viscount Wellington, for fighting the battles of Talavera, and the Douro, against Soult. In 1815 he, with Blucher, fought the battle of Waterloo, which destroyed Napoleon's power in Europe. He has held the highest civil offices in the gift of the Crown, and had pensions and honors showered upon him, such as no other person in England probably ever received.—His policy in political life, was always to cling to old institutions and systems, as long as they could safely be maintained, and then to accept the new.—No name in the history of England, of the present century, has been connected with more momentous events, than that of the Duke of Wellington.

The only argument, says the Bedford Gazette, employed against Gen. PIERCE by Federal Presses, and Federal Speakers, is low scoundrels, personal abuse, and the little whig, all sowing to the same end, each trying which can excel the other in giving utterance to the lowest dregs of blackguardism. No wonder that Daniel Webster, President Fillmore, and all the leading Whig members of Congress, turn away from such an association in utter disgust, and repudiate the candidate of their choice, Gen. Scott. All the VOLUNTEERS in the Mexican war, of any distinction, both officer and private, go for the "gallant Pierce" and oppose Scott—and they have all brand the slanders of Pierce as fit associates for the enemies of our common country! Such is the verdict of our glorious Volunteers—a verdict that will be fully endorsed by the Freemen of this country in November next.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—It is expected, says a contemporary, that the Governors of the various States will occur in a day of general thanksgiving this year as was done the last. This is as it should be.

A few weeks since, five young girls entered the baths on the Rhine, at Cologne. They were heard laughing and talking in the bathing room which they occupied, when suddenly the noise ceased. The master of the establishment, feeling somewhat alarmed, opened the door, and found that the floor had given away, and that the whole party had fallen through into the river and been carried away by the stream.

GEORGE R. MACFARLANE, Esq., died at his residence, in Hollidaysburg, on the 27th ult., from the effects of injuries received at his brass foundry, by the falling of a heavy casting upon him. The unfortunate gentleman was immediately removed to his residence, and every effort made for his relief, but he expired in less than an hour. The deceased was widely known and universally esteemed. He was the proprietor and editor of the Keystone, published at Harrisburg; an Associate Judge of Blair county; a prominent member of the Sons of Temperance; and the Grand Warden of the Grand Lodge of the Ancient Order of Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania.

"SOUT DOWLS" of immense size, are now being made by the Feds, which are placed on wheels for the purpose of conveying their speakers, glee clubs and delegates to their different places of meeting. It won't do. The people are tired of such humbuggery. The log cabin and coon skin business will suffice for the present generation.

DEAD LETTERS.—During the last quarter the Post Office Department announce, that they have opened one million and a quarter of dead letters, from which the Department obtained over eleven thousand dollars. Owners have been found for a portion of the money.

The Wilmington (North Carolina) Journal says, "Stephens, of Georgia, came through here last week and scared some of Scott's friends bad by giving as his opinion, that Scott was not certain of more than one State Vermont—and was bound to be most badly beaten of any man that ever was started for the Presidency. Stephens has always been looked upon as a very close calculator of political chances."

A LOST CHILD.—The St. John (N. B.) Freeman, of the 14th inst., says.—On the 25th of last month, Mr. Barton, of Grand Lake, sent his three children to search for his cows. The children loitered to gather some hazel nuts, and when they were about to return, the youngest, a boy scarcely five years of age, remained behind. Some time after the father of the parent were excited at his protracted absence, and a search was made for the child, but in vain. The assistance of the neighbors was summoned, and the search continued day after day in all directions, but without success. The weather was very severe and stormy, and all hopes of the child's recovery were abandoned. Strange to relate, however, he was accidentally found on the ninth day, at a distance of six miles, by a party who were not in search of him, and at the time that the party who had again taken up the search, had got on his track. A dog had found the child and led the party to the spot.

The little fellow, when found, appeared quite unconcerned, and gave a very sensible account of his adventures. He was afraid of being chastised for loitering in the woods, and did not return with the other children, and when he tried to get back he could not find his way. He cried the first day, but not afterwards. The first night he slept in a tree, but he said he was afraid he would fall when asleep, and on the other nights he slept on the ground. He ate only the berries that grew low, as he knew those, he said, and was afraid to touch those on the high bushes. He thought he should never get home again.

It is said the little fellow displays extraordinary sense, as if his reasoning faculties were suddenly developed by the extraordinary circumstances in which he was placed, and the people of the neighborhood are flocking to see the child and hear him talk.

Poetical.

DEMOCRATIC SONG.

TUNE—Oh, Susanna.

I had a dream the other night, when all around was still,
I dreamt I saw old "Pulps" sailing down the hill,
His "happy tent" was in his hand, the "fire" was in his eye,
His free soil whistled wondrous, but scattered far and near.

CHORUS—Oh! poor Greeley don't you spit on me,
I'm going up that River.
I'm going up that River,
I'm going up that River.

The Silver Greys were laughing loud, the Southern Whites were grim, While "Godlike" Dan stood cold and proud, he did not like
Some straitened measures to raise a cheer, about Niagara,
Some straitened measures to raise a cheer, about Niagara.

It all fell flat, it seemed so queer, 'twas never done before.
He had a pick of letters too, he'd wrote some forty-one,
With principles of every hue, weighing about a ton;
He had a pick of letters too, he'd wrote some forty-one.

And not a Whig of all the pack could stop to lift a pound.
He called the Trah long and loud, from Patrick up to Barney,
He called the Trah long and loud, from Patrick up to Barney,
He called the Trah long and loud, from Patrick up to Barney.

He called the Trah long and loud, from Patrick up to Barney,
He called the Trah long and loud, from Patrick up to Barney,
He called the Trah long and loud, from Patrick up to Barney.

These metric epics he grasped, Scott were in forty-eight,
His brains were never here he gasped, but all this came
To his mind, we used to hate, we loved it dearly now.
We never talk of "bloody graves,"—dear it is now.

This is the vision of the night when all around was still,
I saw the Whigs in mighty flight far down that slipper hill,
Who once were here, the tan quickly, and the white
Who once were here, the tan quickly, and the white.

"Oh, we were fairly caught you now—Hush for Pierce and King!"

Miscellaneous.

NANCY HART.

OR, THE TOBY VISIT.

BY DR. J. H. ROBINSON.

During the southern campaign, a woman of masculine character lived on the bank of Broad River, in Georgia. The name of this heroine was Nancy Hart, and she was celebrated in that portion of the country for her hostility to the Tories.

"We are in pursuit of our trade with Europe again, and we have become familiar throughout its whole expanse. But the Pacific is comparatively a new world of waters. Mr. Senator Seward, from whose address we quote some weeks ago, in reference to the whole fishery, grounds his advocacy of the expedition in question upon the broad and comprehensive basis of the wants of commerce, the requirements of the age, and the great national interests which make it our special duty to carry it forward.

"We are in pursuit of our trade with Europe again, and we have become familiar throughout its whole expanse. But the Pacific is comparatively a new world of waters. Mr. Senator Seward, from whose address we quote some weeks ago, in reference to the whole fishery, grounds his advocacy of the expedition in question upon the broad and comprehensive basis of the wants of commerce, the requirements of the age, and the great national interests which make it our special duty to carry it forward.

"We are in pursuit of our trade with Europe again, and we have become familiar throughout its whole expanse. But the Pacific is comparatively a new world of waters. Mr. Senator Seward, from whose address we quote some weeks ago, in reference to the whole fishery, grounds his advocacy of the expedition in question upon the broad and comprehensive basis of the wants of commerce, the requirements of the age, and the great national interests which make it our special duty to carry it forward.

"We are in pursuit of our trade with Europe again, and we have become familiar throughout its whole expanse. But the Pacific is comparatively a new world of waters. Mr. Senator Seward, from whose address we quote some weeks ago, in reference to the whole fishery, grounds his advocacy of the expedition in question upon the broad and comprehensive basis of the wants of commerce, the requirements of the age, and the great national interests which make it our special duty to carry it forward.

"We are in pursuit of our trade with Europe again, and we have become familiar throughout its whole expanse. But the Pacific is comparatively a new world of waters. Mr. Senator Seward, from whose address we quote some weeks ago, in reference to the whole fishery, grounds his advocacy of the expedition in question upon the broad and comprehensive basis of the wants of commerce, the requirements of the age, and the great national interests which make it our special duty to carry it forward.

"We are in pursuit of our trade with Europe again, and we have become familiar throughout its whole expanse. But the Pacific is comparatively a new world of waters. Mr. Senator Seward, from whose address we quote some weeks ago, in reference to the whole fishery, grounds his advocacy of the expedition in question upon the broad and comprehensive basis of the wants of commerce, the requirements of the age, and the great national interests which make it our special duty to carry it forward.

"We are in pursuit of our trade with Europe again, and we have become familiar throughout its whole expanse. But the Pacific is comparatively a new world of waters. Mr. Senator Seward, from whose address we quote some weeks ago, in reference to the whole fishery, grounds his advocacy of the expedition in question upon the broad and comprehensive basis of the wants of commerce, the requirements of the age, and the great national interests which make it our special duty to carry it forward.

"We are in pursuit of our trade with Europe again, and we have become familiar throughout its whole expanse. But the Pacific is comparatively a new world of waters. Mr. Senator Seward, from whose address we quote some weeks ago, in reference to the whole fishery, grounds his advocacy of the expedition in question upon the broad and comprehensive basis of the wants of commerce, the requirements of the age, and the great national interests which make it our special duty to carry it forward.

"We are in pursuit of our trade with Europe again, and we have become familiar throughout its whole expanse. But the Pacific is comparatively a new world of waters. Mr. Senator Seward, from whose address we quote some weeks ago, in reference to the whole fishery, grounds his advocacy of the expedition in question upon the broad and comprehensive basis of the wants of commerce, the requirements of the age, and the great national interests which make it our special duty to carry it forward.

"We are in pursuit of our trade with Europe again, and we have become familiar throughout its whole expanse. But the Pacific is comparatively a new world of waters. Mr. Senator Seward, from whose address we quote some weeks ago, in reference to the whole fishery, grounds his advocacy of the expedition in question upon the broad and comprehensive basis of the wants of commerce, the requirements of the age, and the great national interests which make it our special duty to carry it forward.

"We are in pursuit of our trade with Europe again, and we have become familiar throughout its whole expanse. But the Pacific is comparatively a new world of waters. Mr. Senator Seward, from whose address we quote some weeks ago, in reference to the whole fishery, grounds his advocacy of the expedition in question upon the broad and comprehensive basis of the wants of commerce, the requirements of the age, and the great national interests which make it our special duty to carry it forward.

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME.

Way down upon the Brandy river,
Far far away—
Dah's where my heart is turning over,
Dah's who do old folks stay.

All up and down the whole creation,
Saddy I roam—
Still longing for the old plantation,
And for the old folks at home.

All the world am sad and dreary,
Everywhere I roam—
Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

All round the little farm I wandered,
When I was young—
Den many happy days I squandered,
Many the songs I sung.

When I was playing with my brother,
I'd take me to my kind old mother,
Oh, take me to my kind old mother,
Oh, take me to my kind old mother.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME.

Way down upon the Brandy river,
Far far away—
Dah's where my heart is turning over,
Dah's who do old folks stay.

All up and down the whole creation,
Saddy I roam—
Still longing for the old plantation,
And for the old folks at home.

All the world am sad and dreary,
Everywhere I roam—
Oh, darkey, how my heart grows weary,
Far from the old folks at home.

All round the little farm I wandered,
When I was young—
Den many happy days I squandered,
Many the songs I sung.