

THE VOLUNTEER.

John B. Bratton, Editor and Proprietor. CARLEISLE, OCTOBER 14, 1852.

FOR PRESIDENT, Gen. Franklin Pierce, Or New Hampshire.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, Col. William R. King, Of Arkansas.

Presidential Electors. GEORGE W. WOODWARD, of Luzerne. WILSON McCANDLESS, of Allegheny.

THE ELECTION. Below we give such returns as we could gather before going to press.

Table with columns for candidates and vote counts. Includes names like E. Ward, W. Ward, N. Middle, etc.

A Glorious Victory in the State! We have news from about one-third of the State, and in every county Hopkins and Woodward gain.

GOOD FOR DAUPHIN! Old Federal Dauphin is coming to her senses. Waterbury, a firm Democrat, has been elected to the Legislature.

DANING OUTRAGE—On Monday night last, about 11 o'clock, a driver, named JONAS A. JONES, from Greene county, was knocked down in North street.

Our neighbor of the Herald desires us to publish Scott's speeches! We will agree to do so, with this understanding: we agree to publish a column a week.

THE STATE AGRICULTURAL FAIR for this year will be held at Lancaster, commencing on the 20th inst.

THE OLIVEN FOOT.

We have recently met with one of the most remarkable pamphlets that has ever been issued in this or any other political canvass in this country.

So here we go. The Whigs nominating General Harrison in 1840, because they thought him available, and because he had one time opposed the creation of a National Bank.

Forgetting that our government is a constitutional one, and that the Federal party, would go for a consolidation of the country and in Europe, guards the rights of the states and of the people.

WOOD WANTED!—Several loads of good hickory or oak wood wanted at this office in payment of subscription. It is wanted immediately.

Gen. Scott's Principles on a United States Bank.

In a letter written in 1842, he says, "I have long been under a conviction, that in peace, as in war, something efficient, in the nature of a bank of the United States, is not only necessary and proper but indispensable to the successful operations of our treasury."

ON THE BANKRUPT LAW. In the same letter he says, "If I had had the honor of a vote on the occasion, it would have been in favor of the bankrupt bill."

ON NATIVE AMERICANISM. In a letter dated November 10, 1844, he says, "I now hesitate between extending the period of residence before naturalization, and a total repeal of all acts of Congress on the subject—my mind inclines to the latter."

ON ABOLITIONISM. In a letter written February 9, 1843, he says, "I suppose I scarcely need say, that in my opinion Congress has no color of authority under the Constitution for touching the relation of master and slave within a State."

Gen. Scott and Mr. Madison. In reference to the story that Mr. Madison tendered Gen. Scott the Secretaryship of the War Department, the Richmond Enquirer says: "It is the assertion that Mr. Madison once offered the War Department to Scott."

The Two Presidential Orators. Gen. Scott and Hon. John P. Hale—the one the candidate of Seward and Tuck, the other the candidate of Giddings and the National Era—both cordially agreeing that Pierce ought to be defeated.

His Opinions. Wm. A. Graham, the Whig candidate for Vice President, voted at the extra session of Congress in 1841 for the Bankrupt Law, the distribution of the public land fund, and an immense U. S. Bank.

Gen. Thomas Jefferson Sutherland died on the 7th ult., at the Iowa Mission house, at Nebraska territory. Gen. S. was well known as the leader of the Canadian rebellion, or rather, the troops which commenced that outbreak.

THE POTATO CROP.—We are glad to learn that the potato crop of our county is good. The yield is good, and the potatoes large and of excellent quality.

A Ostrous Law Suit was lately going on in Barnstable county, Mass., it being a claim for damages for an assault. The defendant, it appears, seized the hand of the plaintiff to shake it, and in so doing he grasped it so tightly as to crush the bones and thereby cripple it forever.

THE CHOLERA is reported to have respread at Rochester, in consequence of a return of warm weather. A STORM OF GEN. SCOTT'S ORATORY.—It is alleged in a Boston Convention, gentlemen—a LIE—I see aged citizens before me. I see eminent lawyers here.

A Sound Plank for any Platform.

Professional legislative borers are beginning to trace the notice of the people in a manner that is no means flattering to "the men with the augers."

Resolved, That we look upon the system of "Legislative Boring" as the procurement of the passage of laws through the instrumentality of money, as corrupt, and disgraceful to any State; and that the men who permit themselves to be hired promiscuously for such purposes, are unworthy either of public confidence, or honest associates, and should not be trusted either in a private or public capacity.

Resolved, That in the selection of candidates to be supported at the coming election, due regard has been had to the availability, as well as the competency of the persons nominated.

Resolved, That on the day of the election, we will use every honorable influence to secure the success of our ticket.

OH, NO! DON'T BET! Poor Horace Greeley is awfully frightened at the certain prospect of Scott's defeat, and advises his Whig friends not to bet on the election.

ESCAPE OF SLAVES.—A letter from Maysville, Ky., dated September 30, says: "Thirty-one slaves from the neighborhood of Augusta and Dover, escaped to Ohio last night."

COLONEL RIPLEY.—A missionary and general agent among the colored refugees in Canada, has informed the Boston Traveller, that during his visit to America he had seen thirty thousand slaves; that these are chiefly located in Canada West, where they find a comparatively mild climate and fertile soil.

GRANDS OF DRUNKENNESS.—The Providence Post says that "Patrick Collins was fined $1 and costs, for being inebriated drunk," in that city, on Tuesday last.

MASTLAND SHALL NOTE LAW.—The law prohibiting the circulation in Maryland of notes of a less denomination than five dollars, issued by the Banks of the State, went into operation on the 1st inst.

REMARKABLE FLIGHT OF BIRDS. On Thursday last, during a severe southeast storm a number of birds, now in this part of the country, were discovered on the farms in this vicinity, and on the immense numbers of large flocks were observed passing over the city from the northeast to the southwest.

MARRIAGES. On the 7th inst., by the Rev. John Moody, Mr. E. W. SNEY, of Newton tp., to Miss ELIZABETH, daughter of James Keise, of Southampton tp., Cumberland county.

Democratic Meeting.

South Middleton Awake! A large and enthusiastic meeting was held at Bolling Springs, South Middleton tp., on Friday evening, the 6th inst.

Resolved, That in the selection of candidates to be supported at the coming election, due regard has been had to the availability, as well as the competency of the persons nominated.
