American Holumter.

|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| 3 | CARLISLE, PA., THU̇RSDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1852. |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | One or the oldan men.  A book entilied "Tho Hundrod Boston Oratora," has jant been publibibed in Boalion. The following picturo from it of the famous John Hancock will doubtloss be interesting to our roadera :  Personal Apprarance of John Hancock,-One | INDIAN SUMEMER.  We do not know tho author of tho following plesant poem, which we find in a recent number of the Musical Reviow. A eweoter funcy of the "ladian Summer," wh hive never seon.  There ts a time, juel are the frost,  Prepzro to pave old Winter's way, Whon Autumn in a revorie lost,  Tho nellow daylime droams atop;  To eqzo once more on hill and dell.  To matk how many ahesves they bind, And see il all is ripened well. | Bitect of Extreme Cold.  The intonsity of cold experienced by the expe-   was truly asionishiog. Dr. Sutherland stalas in his Journal, recently pubtished in London, that Pastorelli's spirit thermometer tiood at $400^{\circ}$ below zeroo and | Samis of Grolt. |
| SOH00L-100 S |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  ho lind the appearance of adpanced afer Ho had beon repeated and severoly offlictud will the gout |  |  tween decks it was $10^{\circ}$ below zero. Yinegar |  |
|  |  |  |  | porter and ale were frozen in the casks; and the in a slate es livens or mis mesicing chest were required. Of the effect of the cold on motale, the Doctor says: |  |
| to catch one golden glanm  unlight through tho door. |  | taya. As recollected at this tisno, Gov. Hancock tooplng a liille, and apparenily enfeeblod by dieroance. Iis fuco had been very handoumo. Dress was adapt- |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | Dying fowers look up and give  Thoir sweetest incenscs ero they go, For her who mado their beaulies live.  She enters 'noalh che woodland thade,  Rer zopligrs litt tho lingering louf  And bear it gendy where ard laid, Tho loved and lost ones of ite griof. | drinking cups. Tin never syited, for it al alvay, adhered to the lipg, and took a portion of the ske fat from an iron shovel, stuck fasi to it, and dragged it by means of his longux, uncil, by a sudden effort, he got clear, leaving several inches of hasskin and eubjacent tissue on the cold metal. One of the seamen endeavoring to change the size of |  |
|  |  | leanen wore when at hom was dresaed i one of fino lin |  |  |  |
|  |      | ${ }^{\text {lomer }}$ |  |  |  |
|  | within him when ho heara of great men and mighig  within him when ho hears of great wand to lo mound the hill of ambition, to troad the paith of honor, to hear the | morocco aliperes. . 1 w was a genoral practico in teel familises to have a tankardo of puncli madeo morning, and placed in a cooler when tha | hat old Autumn, rising takeo, gaiagha socplor and is che |  |  |
|  | hill of a mutition, to troad the path of honor, to hear the shouts of mppiause. Look at himagain: he is now in the meridian of lifo, carohas atamped tho wrinkles |  |  | markling.spike, afier the true sallor-fastlon, into thouth; the result was, that he lost a great por ion of the skin of his lips and tongue." | Pagio does the tortiose-lo get something by he |
| And ayes of afliest blua. I have a sunny curl I atolo | in the moridian of lifo, carohas atamped the wrinkles on hie brow, dienppointment has dimmed tho lustr of his are |  | Bweot Summer, sighing, flies the plain,  And walling Winter, gaunt and grim. And amiles to think it'a all for him. |  |  |
|  |  year seems to diminisish his loppincoss, and tho dis. |  | And smiles to think it'a all for him.  A Struggle for a Kiss.  'Ah, Sully, give mo a kise, and be done will it, | The Lightning...A lew lints. It may be well to encourage timid people who | There may be more water in a flowing atroam only four feet deep, and containing mure force and more health, than in a sulleu pool thirity yarde to |
|  |  |  |  | ning, to state the dociring of chanese. As a genesprace of a bquare mile more than once a yenr. If |  |
|  |  | decoraliona fiationato amone men of forlune of tho peciodi and tho rodo, especiully upon publio occarione | , |  | the bottom.  Love is a compound feeling, and is fed with the |
|  | Lembitue |  |  | equare nite, and if the lightuing gituct rod alter rod, it would take 190 years to go over if; but it | grosest love is more fiery and ardent, it is also more ficklo and uncernin. |
|  | or gouth, folly, be coniderers hou soon tho gloom of death must thatove the one, ond dian, pids the other delighl hin, sill bo woald linuer in it, nud stall |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | sinites here and thero, and that it will smito any spectified rod, there is not mure than one chance | and uncertain.  Most precepts of parents and teachers ara losi gight of at the very time when it is toportant to |
| (igt | would Jengihen out his daye, Hought of beauly's  bloom, of fincy's farb, of inusic's breath, ho is | ith it under his arm, on fool. AMEIRICAN WOMEN. |  | to a hundred billion.  Again, other things being equal, the chance di- |  |
| UN FOR THE DOC'TOR. | fromed to exclaum, 1 l lise no no ploanuro in timo.." |  | come Satly's hair, like a wond in a milt datu broke loose earrying away a liall a dozen of combe. One $\left\{\begin{array}{l}\text { loose, earrying away a hall a dozen of combs. One } \\ \text { cig of Silly's elbow and my blooming ruftes wiled }\end{array}\right.$ | minghese as 18 regards a low objecet, as the differ. ence between the equare of its heightand that of a Jower; so that with a person six frot, and a tree | and visuble when tho door is opened widest, and thrown back against the wall |
|  | coneign him to adocy or thegrave, fot this was the   |  |  |  | back against the wall.  Puliteness is the |
|  |  |  |  |  | good heart and an observing mind. Benevolenco will tanch us temperanoe towards the feelinge of judge promptly and easily what those feeling |
|  | Sen | femalce stand alone. A Gorman ludy, no inatier   | seompering ond running racose very way you cuald thinls of oser the floor | a tree, or house whithout a rod, has danger is proportionably inereased. |  |
|  |  |  |  | Again, oljeecis, non-conductors when dry, beoome good conductors when wet. A dry sidk um- |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | The mixture of one orror whit much truth adal. rendered dangerous by the infusion of iquid is |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | ror, however slight and inconsiderable it may appear. One erive may moon load to a bundred, ay, |
| So mineed. |  |  | ever seon hawk pounco upon a robin 7 or a bumblo beo on a later blossom |  |  |
|  | dom torsely expreased. Nothing, thercforo, can be urther from wit than earcasm, and whore they go together, one is pressed into tho servica, and ie not |  | A simited Lady writer for a northern litorary journal, whoso wriling name is "Fanny F'ern," | less flectric, and herefore less in danger. nally, a death by lightning is the easiosis of all | paar. One eriver may soon lead to a bundred, ay, pear. One ert to a thousand. |
|  |  |  |  | deathe. An electric enters, we are instantly filled, and life is gone without a pang. "Ah! but thehereafter!". Well, live right here, and it will be |  |
|  | Sterem |  | publishes the following tart letter in reply to a shooking asperslon by some graceless wigh on |  | and the most direct.-- |
|  |  | Tre to ie Manaivo--The Tiwn where the or. | shooking aspersion by some graceless wight on the other side of the water-seemingly tho great | all right with you there-if it musi be so. | and will deliver you from soh are the never failing attend- |
|  |  | (taty |  | Ameritan Work Slopis. |  |
|  | no more affected by their anacanat than mastima are by tho gelp of a lap dog. A real wit never condeecends co reply to them. We bave known many of |  |  |  | tage provuces aeedg innuuperable. The windwaitis them away, and wo know not wheo itho lall or where they rise; but this we know, that liey mieel us an every slep upon the path of lifo |
|  |  | cherinhed memory of tho loved and losi, which I |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | cupposed frear burial ousloma might prolong bu   | botule him up in sotrits and kepp him for a terfor  to lines, as sure as his nama is Kit North  Set a lifef to oatrha thief. How fame yon to |  nuaber of lieso popular time serde to I ondon atono 75000  a iondon alono 75,000 cluck | Solstr's Buget: |
|  | seeka to gal enother forlings by saresm; forwhorn it chances o bo recessul, it is line the onp-per shot of the Mexicans, which gangrenes the | stances in witich widowed men, wititi u very ohorttime of the death of their first wivee, rode to the |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | Sel a linef to catrh a thief. How rame you to know when that crisis in a woman's hfe oceurs? | sende to I, i, iddon alono 75,000 clocka por yoar-or abuut 1,500 por wrok. it mual not ba muposed. |  |
|  | Wuad. | house of the lady upon whom they had designe, and without dismountingisent for luer to tho gate. In ond case ahe enme, tha propration wise thore ninde |  | Sen | In? |
|  |  | ond ease ahe came, tho propotilion was thore mide and accepted; in the other tho gentleman was obli | man comes to her wickedness whon she comes to her husband; and, if she knew anything good be- |  |  |
|  |  |  | ! fore, It all pees by the board then-it'e no more use to her alterwards than the fifith wheel of a |  | "Julus, am you onnwalescent dis mornin'!" No, I was conwalescent yesterday, but I took medicine last nipht |
|  |  | Hio wedding of a widower here, at whicha a clergy mny offictutad, who was a atranger aliko to to tho | use to her alterwards than the fifth wheel of a noach. Dhn't ynu know, you wicked calumnia tor, that thunder don't sour milk more effectually | American olock trade to tho Comgission merchanta of tho United Kingdom, that the duties on them have |  |
|  |  | partios and tho habita of tho place. Taking the litilo daughter of the bridegroum upon bis knee | than matrimony does woman's teinger 1  Cume to their wickedness indeed! Snow flakes |  cloch makng, tho poople orforme保 | medicine last night, and worked it off."  A New York alderman was applied to the other day to suppross the catlle nulsance, but he replied |
|  |  | litile daughter of the bridegroum upon bis knee previous to the ceromony, he asked her how long |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | A reenn I raveller stapped ala caboret in Franos; |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | d |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | ut (ioo- - A woman out Weat having heen |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |

