CRIME AND DISSIPATION IN LONDON.—We find in the National Temperance Chronicle, the following statistics of vice in London, and add in a second column an estimate for New York city:

	London.	New York.
Children trained to crime,	16,000	3,000
Receivers of stolen goods,	5,000	1,000
Gamblers by profession,	15 000	2,000
Beggars,	25,000	2,000
Drunkards,	30,000	10,000
Habitual drinkers,	180,000	80,000
Subsisting by profligacy,	150,000	50 000
Thieves,	50,000	5,000
Total,	471,000	153,000

Thus, says the Chronicle, we have the tremendous total of 471,000 individuals steeped in crime, demoralization and vice, out of a population of 2,350,000.

A FACT.—Men who attend to their own business well, never call at a printing office to beg for an "extra copy of the latest issue." They live, and are willing to let live—are either regular subscribers, or freely pay for an "extra copy" when they call for one.

TEACHER.—How many points of the compass are there? Boy—two; east and west. There used to be four; but as Mr. Webster said he didn't know any north or south, I suppose there is none.

Marriages.

On the 16th inst., by the Rev. A. Height, Mr. JOHN SHUNK, of Monroe, to Miss MARY FAIR, of Silver Spring tp.

Storrs' Chemical Hair Invigorator

ARE YOU BALD? Is your hair falling off? Or is your head covered with Dandruff or Scruff? If so, then make a fair trial of Storrs' Chemical Hair Invigorator. Hundreds of persons in all parts of the country whose heads were entirely bald, have had their hair fully restored to its original perfection by the use of this valuable article.—Read the testimony.

New York, Jan. 1, 1851.

MR. STORRS.—Dear Sir: Mr. Smith, of Newton, L. I., obtained a bottle of your excellent Hair Invigorator for his little girl, about four years old, her head being entirely bald; no hair of any consequence having grown on her head from birth, and surprising as it may appear, after having used but one bottle, a complete head of hair was produced nearly two inches long of a fine healthy growth.

A. DOOLITTLE, M. C. No. 141, Grand St.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10, 1850.

MR. STORRS—Sir: After being bald for a number of years, and having used numerous preparations to no effect, your Chemical Hair Invigorator has produced a fine head of new hair, and I hardly know how to express my gratitude for the benefit I have received from your valuable article.

J. WADSWORTH, No. 10, Orchard st.

The following testimony is from Mr. McMakin, editor of the "Saturday Courier:"

"STORRS' HAIR INVIGORATOR.—It gives us much pleasure, unsolicited, to record our testimony in favor of the great pleasantness and entire efficacy of Storrs' Chemical Hair Invigorator. On recovering from the recent severe attack of illness, we discovered that our usual healthy and abundant crop of hair was rapidly falling off, and chancing to have on hand a sample of the above article furnished by the manufacturer many months previously, we used but a single bottle, as directed, and found it to operate like a charm, in entirely checking the fall and creating a new and healthy action of the scalp."

We could give many other references to some of our most respectable citizens, but would ask all who are troubled with Dandruff, are bald, or are losing their hair, to give Storrs' Chemical Hair Invigorator a trial, and one trial will do more to convince you of our claims for it than all the testimony of others that we might produce.

CAUTION.—Ask for "Storr's Chemical Hair Invigorator," and never let dealers persuade you to use any other article as a substitute. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Plainfield Classical Academy,

FOUR miles West of Carlisle. The Thirteenth Session commences on Monday, Nov. 3, 1852.

This Institution has been in successful operation 7 years, during which time such additions and improvements have been made as to render it one of the most commodious and convenient in the State.

In regard to healthfulness it may be mentioned that no case of serious sickness has occurred in the Institution since it was founded. Its moral purity is attested by the fact that depraved associations, scenes of vice, and resorts for dissipation have no existence in the neighborhood.

The course of instruction comprises all branches required by the merchant, professional man or collegian. Also modern languages, vocal and instrumental music, &c.

It is the determination of the Proprietor that he Institution shall sustain the reputation it has already acquired for imparting thorough instruction, and inculcating and establishing virtuous principles in the mins of the youth submitted to his charge.
