AMID HIS OWN TROUBLES, HE FORGETS NOT THOSE or OTHERS.—A letter from Concord to the Boston the 4th inst., at 12 o'clock, neen, to act upon the Times, save :- "Soon after the news of the terrible which caused the death of Gen. Pierce's little boy was received here, a poor Irish woman, formerly a servant in his family, hearing of it, and thinking that the remains had been brought home to Mr. William's, his former boarding house in this town, had the misfortune to fall on the ice, and so verely fracture her leg, while repairing thither. As soon as Gon. P. returned from Andover, and learned of the casualty to the poor woman, he made it his first care to repair to her dwelling, half a mile dis. tant, and minister to her wants. This, I learn, he Why bless me, what is the world coming to, did with his usual benificent and liberal manner. when the girls are valued at only soventy-five The poor woman is none the worse off, at least pocuniarly, for the socident."

There appears to be no end to the discoveries of gold and other precious metals. It is now an gentleman in Pittsburg, lately ran off, taking with nounced that gold and auriforous quarts have been him a large sum of money—near $4,000. The found in N. Zeland, and a belief provailed that boy was but about 14 years age, and what is because the san decen't give heat enough to the island toomed with treasures.
