The ISIIed and Wounded.

Baltimore, March 28.—The accident occurred at 3 o'clock this morning. The train was coming East from Cumborland. It consisted of a beging Cast, and three passenger cars, drawn by one heavy and one small engine. When passing the "eight for tilling" on section 76, descending a curved grade of 116 feet to Cheet River, the heavy engine started the rails hinding, the rails to the ties. All the train passed over safely, except the two last passenger carr, which, by the parting of the track, were thrown down the river side of the embankment, falling the frighful distance of over 100 feet, and making four somersets before they reached the base, where they were shattered to fragments, and many of the nefortunate inmates werd either sadly injured, or instantly killed.

There were forty passengers in the two cars. The killed.

There were forly passengers in the two cars. The following are deed: Daniel Holt, of Baltimete; Aurolius Sallie, supposed to be from South Carolius; Lowis Deline, a French emigrant returning home from California; Richard Clayton, of Wellsville, Va., a young lady and a middle-aged gentleman, supposed to be from Kentucky; a small step son of Robert Murray, the Supervisor on the read, and a child of Mr. Geise, of St. Louis, on his way to New York.

York, Mr. Golse and his lady were both much injured. They are with their three other children new at Camberland.

A train left Cumberland this morning, for the locality of the sau occurrence, with physicisms and comforts for the sufferers, who will be brought to Camberland at 5 o'clock this evening, when full particulars of the accident, together with the names of the wounded, will be received.

A Tragedy in Ohio.

Bowling Green, Ohlo, March 14, 1853 .- A mos heart rending tragedy occurred in this vicinity a few days since. The circumstances, as far as I have been able to learn them, are as follows: — A man by the name of Valentine Sage had been for about ter days attending a protracted religious meeting in which he took a deep interest. On Tuesday evening last, from the exceeding carnestness with which he which he tooks a deep interest. On Tuesday evening last, from the exceeding carnestness with which he prayed in the public congregation, some of his friends foared that his reisen was about to be again overthrown. He had at orree been insane for a short time, in consequence of excessive grief at the loss of a won. No symptom of insantly was however, discovered on his way home from clurch, but early on the ext morning he went into the house of a neighbor and commenced singing; after which he prayed, and particularly for the wife of the man in whose house he was, that she might have grace to enable him to prepare for death on that day, he went home. Soon afterwards he seized one of his children by the feet, and dashed her brains out on a log. Throwing the child on the ground he exclaimed, "That child is now happy." His wife, who had just been confined, now sprang from her bed and attempted to make her escape. She was, however, overtaken by her husband and felled to the ground. Happily she was not seriously injured. By this time several of his neighbors had collected, and the unhappy man was with much difficulty overpowered and conveyed for security to the jail in Perrysburg. He is now a raving maniao but has a perfect knowledge of what he has done, and says his child is in heaven. One could, almost wish that his reason might never return while he lives, that he may be spared the analysish which would then overwhelm him. Before this he had been kind to his family, and latterly had been altogether exemplary in his general conduct.—Correspondent New York Express.

The Gardener Case.

This case is now on trial before the Criminal Court in Washington. Every person has heard something about it, but perhaps all may not know its history. The counsel for the Government is opening the case to the jury, made the following narrative:

Dr. Gardener, in a memorial to the board of Commissioners, stated that early in the year 1814 he was largely engaged in mining operations in the State of San Louis Potosi, Mexico, employed 500 laborers, had upwards of $300,000 invested 500 laborers, had upwards of $300,000 invested in men, buildings, steam engines, horses, mules, and men of science; that in 1846 he was compelled to abandon the establishment, his property having been despoiled by the Mexican soldiery; that said thines were worth half a million, and would have yielded him $50,000 per annum. The accused filed with this memorial depositions purporting to filed with this memorial depositions purporting to be from persons residing in Maxico, going to show that he owned said mine. The issue was on the truth or falsity of these assertions. The United States affirmed, and expected to prove, that every statement in the memorial, and every paper presented by him, were false from beginning to end, pure fiction and invention,—that Gardener received from the United States, as the fruits of the fraud $428,750, while his mine could not be found $500 had been offered as a reward to any o who would point out its location.
