A SCENE AT WASHINGTON.

Perhypse digro-is no part of the earth where more ludicerous scenes takes place than at Washington. The gathering together of people from all parts of the world, the varied interests, and the numberless elsimants, all help to form grotesque incidents, which if they could be skillfully combined by a master handwould create a soul under the ribs of death. On one windy morning, he was wending his way through a by-street, when a gust settlet that the nort me abunty, a win own decations of the control of the properties of the control of the properties o

Multitudes are throwing aside the Missona and the Talmod, and betaking themselves to the study of Moses and the Prophets. Among the Jews in London, there is, at the present time, great demand for copies of the Old Testament. The subject of their restoration to Palestine, and the neture of the promises on which the expectation is founded, are extensively engaging their attention. In examining into these matters, they have obtained considerable sesistance from a continential Rabbi, who has lately arrived among them, and exhibited a manuscript, in which he has endeavored to prove from Scripture that the time has come when the Jews must sat about making preparations for returning to the land of their fathers. The first of the control of the cont

It appeared that the child on Wednesday went to the house of a neighbor, and during the absence of all persons from the house, took down a can containing nearly half a pint of the liquor, and drank it, after which she was insensible ill the time of her death. The child, it is said, has had from the sge of infancy a remarkable tasts for liquor, and accrety drank it whenever an opportunity was offered.

One is, to hold on to my hat of a windy day; the other, and more important, never, under, any circumstances, to rush into a room where a lady is dressing; for all the fierce volcanos that nature ever produced, the most terrific is an angry woman!—Why, (added he, dued expletive,) there was 'githing enough in that girl's eyes to have furnished the material for a dozon tropical storms, and enough leff over for a brilliant aurora botealis.
