MARRIAGE, HAPPINESS AND COMPETENCE.

WHY IS IT

That we behold many females, scarce in the meridian of life broken in health and spirits with a complication of diseases and silments, depriving them of the power for the enjoyment of life at an age when physical health, backyancy of spirits, and happy screnity of mind, arising from a condition of health, predyminant. The causes of her sufferings at first—perhaps year: haps during girlhood, or the first years of marriage— leir origin so light as to pass unnoticed, and of course IN AFTER YEARS,

When too late to be benefitted by our knowledge, we look back and mourn, and regret the full consequences of our morance.
What would we not often give to possess, in early life, the newledge we obtain in after years! And what days and gitts of anguish we might not have been spared, if the noviedge was timely possessed. It is

MELANCHOLY AND STARTLING

To behold the sickness and suffering endured by many a wife for many years, from causes simple and controllable, easily remedied—or better still,—not incurred, if every WIFE AND MOTHER Possessed the information contained in a little vol in the reach of all) which would spare to herself YEARS OF MISERY,

And to her husband the constant toll and anxiety of mind, necessarily devolving upon him from sickness of the write, without giving him the opportunity of sequiring that competence which his certions are suittled, and the possession of which would secure the happiness of himself, wife, and children. SECURE THE MEANS OF HAPPINESS By becoming in time possessed of the knowledge, the want of which has caused the sickness and powerty of thousands able if she neglect to avail herself of that knowledge in respect to herself, which would spare her much suffering, be the means of happiness and prosperity to her husband, and
