Road Law .- The Supreme Court recently in estion at Harrisburg, has made the following decision;:-...

1. When a road has once been opened by the When a total has once total points by the supervisors, its location cannot afterwards be altered by another supervisor, for the purpose of placing it on what he may suppose to be its proper site.
All authority under the order to open its exhaus-ted by the action of these to whom it was directed.

and cannot be resuring, although the first location was not according to the report of the viewers. 3. But this rule does not prevent aubsequent su-pervisors from clearing out a rode to its proper width. 4. When a track has once been made on which the public can pass, the whole legal breadth of the road is to be taken as devoted to public use, and though the power to make another location is gone, the right and the duty of the supervisors to remove obstructions from any part of it, remains in full force.

AFFRAN AT VICKSBURG .- A telegraphic des. atch in the Natchez Courter, dated at Vicksburg, July 2d, says:

Col. Barksdale and Gen, Renbon Davis, the two Democratic opponents for Congress, yester-day evening about 9 o'clock came together in a room At the Vicksburg Hotel, and Davis stabbed Barkedale, giving him nine cuts. The wounds were not considered serious."

SAGACITY OF A GANDER .--- One day last week, a gander was "on duly" near the Uanal Basin, al Albany, in keeping guard over a flock of goslings. which led to a rencontre between his gandership and a rooster. The contest, however, was of short duration, for the gander seized the cock by the neck and straightway flew into the canal he thrust his antagonist under the water, and there held him until he was dead !
