Come, desrest, I have trimm'd the lamp—And by our college hearth,
Now lot us, for one little hour,
Forget the wors of earth.

How many lines of anxious care Are written on thy brow !
Who could have dreamed of such a los
For one so good as thou?

And yot amid these weary toils
Why should thy heart repine.
When there is such a world of lose
Within this home of mine?

Oh! blessings on thee for the love That s beaming from thine eyes; I know there's still an Eden teft, To which thy spirit files.

On Tuesday of last week, a young man of this place (whose name we shall withhold,) became intoxicated, and so continued for some three days, to the great mentification of his young wife and acquaintances. During this time his wife visited ## BOOKS
