All paused for further development. "Now, I wager you a basket of wine, that you cannot guess what piece of a gentleman's wardrobe he had on."

'No, no; it's mine, and I shall keep it.'

'Well,' haid neighbor F., 'suppose we leave it to any lawyer you shall choose.'

'I won't leave it to any lawyer,' said the other.

'Well,' continued Mr. F., 'shall we leave it to any four men in the village that you shall select?'

'No, I shall have the fence,'

Not at all discomposed, Mr. F. said, 'Well, neighbor, thea I will leave it to you whom the fence belongs to, whether you or myself.'

Struck dumb by this appeal, the wrathy man turned away, 'convicted by his own conscience,' 'saying,' I won't have anything to do with a man that won't contend for his rights.'
