County, that the Democracy have determined to vote support a regular nomination is unworthy to receive peal to the Anti-Maine law men for support?

In connection with this subject we may ask, why like it. They are afraid to let their sentiments, reso lutions, and letters go before the people, for they know foll well that Democrats at least would see through the trickery they are attempting to practice. To defeat the Democratic ticket has been the main guarranteed them by the provisions of the Constitu-object of the leading spirits engaged in the recent tion of this great and glorious Republic. In view of Maine law meetings held in this place, and to the immense importance of exercising this privilege, accomplish this object they are willing to make the humiliating declaration that Mr. Catheart (one of polls, and avail themselves of the privilege of one of You can offend no honest man, by requirtheir candidates,) is not in favor of such a law!—
This is demagogueism double distilled, and could only of this county have an excellent Democratic ticket be resorted to by those who hold Conventions and massings, and yet are afraid to publish their pro-
