Saxton Loads the Column. Saxton Lindds the Column. AFTER drys and nights of unceasing toil and trouble; I have succeeded in marking and ar-rauging my new slock of HARDWARE, and al-though there has been a tremendous rush of custo-mers who know where to deal on reasonable terms, adn who appreciate my old habit of selling cheap without making much fuss about the matter. I am constantly making room for new customers to drop in and examine what is undoubtedly the largest and best assortiment of goods ever offeraid west of Phila-delphia, and embracing everything usually found in a Hardware Store, from a needle to an anchor. All of which are of the best quality and will be sold at prices which cannot fail to give satisfaction. TO CARPENTERS & BUILDERS, I would say that my stock of Cross cut, hand,
