Reflections for the Thoughtful. Reflections for the Thoughtting.

Strange that countless human beings exist and drag through life as do the beasts of the field, or the insects of the earth, owining no more thought or reflection than though the noble faculties of mind were not vouchsafed to them.

Many moth are husbands and fathers, upon whom are dependent the health, the well-being, and the happiness of a conditing and affectionate wife, with perhaps a family of children.

But a few years ago in the flush of health and youth, and buoyancy of spirite, rapidly, and apparently inexplicably, becomes a feeble, sickly, debilitated wife, with frame emediated, nerves unstrung, spirits depressed, countenance bearing the mental prostration.

Sometimes this deplorable change may and does arise from organic or constitutional causes. But violation of which entails disease, suffering and BENIGHTED IGNORANCE, AS CULPABLE AS INEXCUSABLE! How long shall this ignorance prevail so produc-ve of its bitter fruits? How long shall the wife tive of its bitter fruits? How long shall the wife and mother be ignorant of the nature, character and causes of the various womb and sexual complaints, embittering her days by suffering-suffering often prolonged to years, eventuating in a complication of diseases utterly and hopelessly inourable?
