Reflections for the Thoughtful. Strange that counties human beings exist and drag through life as do the bessle of the field, or the insects of the earth, ovincing no more thoughts or rediction than though the nobie Baculities of mind were not voucharfold to them. Many work are humbands and fathers, upon whom are dependent the health, the well-being, and the happiness of a conding and affectionate wife, with perhaps a family of children.

WHFE LINGERS FROM YEAR TO YEAR In that pitiable condition as not even for one day to feel the happy and exhibitrating influence incident to the enjoyment of health. She may not be an invalid confined to her bed, or even to her room; as her pride, ambition and energy induce and nerve her to take personal charge of her household, even when her health will not admit of it; but she is nevertheless perceptibly sinking from day to day, and always alling. Thus, day after day, and always alling.

THE BLOOMING BRIDE.

But a fow years ago in the flush of health and youth, and beoyanoy of spirits, rapidly, and appa-rently inceplicably, becomes a feeblo, slokly, de-bilitated wife, with frame emachated, nerves un-strung, spirits depressed, countenduce bearing the unpress of suffering, and an utter physical and mental presentation.

But oftener, by far oftener, to gross and ineversable ignorance of the simplest and plainest rules of health as connected with the marriage state, the riolation of which entails disease, nuffering and misery, not only to the wife, but often
