A Nut for Johnston Whigs to Crack. The following is an extract from the Miltonian, a Whig paper, published in the town where the Hon. James Pollock, the Whig candidate for Governor resides:

for Governor resides:
"No argument is needed to established the fact that Judge P. has never been identified with Johnston in any manner." And again:—Great account, too, seems to be made of him holding Johnston Too, seems to be made of him holding account, too, seems to be made of him holding commission of President Judgo under Johnston, but the fact only proves that the Judgo was a man qualified for the honor and whose virtues and talent would adorn the Bench. THE MARRIAGE STATE: Shall Happiness and Health, or Altery Sickness, attend 41 ?

MOST STARTLING CONSIDERATIONS! Reflections for the Thoughtful.

Strange that countless human beings exist and drag through life as do the beasts of the field, or the insects of the earth, wincing no more thought or reflection than though the noble faculities of infind were not vouchsafed to them. Many such are husbands and fathers, upon whom are dependent the health, the well-being, and the happiness of a confiding and affectionate wife, with perhaps a family of children.

HOW OPTEN IT HAPPENS THAT THE WIFE LINGERS FROM YEAR TO YEAR WIFE LINGERS FROM YEAR TO YEAR
In that pitiable condition as not even for one day to feel the happy and exhilerating influence incident
to the enjoyment of health.
She may not be an invalid conflued to her bed,
or even to her room; as her pride, ambition and energy induce and norve her to take personal charge of her bouschold, even when her health will not admit of it; but she is nevertheless perceptibly sinking from day to day, and always ailing.
Thus, day after day, and menth after menth transpire. Her health daily sinks, till family even the ope of recovery no longer remans. And thus

THE BLOOMING BRIDE, THE BLOOMING BRIDE, but a few years ago in the flush of health and jouth, and buoyaney of spirits, rapidly, and apparently inexplicably, becomes a feeble, sickly, debilitated wite, with frame cancaited, nerves unstrung, spirits depressed, countenance bearing the unpress of suffering, and an utter physical and montal prostration.

Sometimes this deplorable change may and does arise from organic or constitutional causes.
