Pen and Scissors.

CLERICAL CHANGE.—The unanimous call given the Rev. Mr. Emerson, of Massachusetts, to become the pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Northumberland, Pa., has been accepted.—The new pastor succeeds the Rev. James G. Craighead, who has removed to New York city.

BREADSTUFFS.—The St. Louis Republican says there were 322,100 bushels of wheat, and 17,000 barrels of flour on the Upper Mississippi, awaiting shipment, on the 1st of April. On the Illinois there were 81,000 bushels of wheat, and 4600 barrels of flour; and on the Missouri there were 2000, making 417,100 bushels of wheat, and 21,600 bbls of flour.

PUNISHMENT IN NORTH CAROLINA.—Henry Howard and Asa H. Parks, two white men, having plead guilty to the charge of grand larceny at Wilmington, N. C., on the 5th inst., were sentenced by the court to receive thirty-nine lashes on the bare back, and be imprisoned for twelve months. The first part of the sentence was carried into effect forthwith.

A STRIKE AMONG THE DOCTORS.—Resolutions have been adopted by the Medical Society of Berks county, Pa., directing the members of the Society to furnish to their Secretary a list of such of their patients as do not pay their doctors' bills.

QUARREL AMONG FRIENDS.—A new order of Friends, styling themselves "Progressive," have advertised their yearly meeting for the 21st inst.; in the Meeting House at old Kennet, Chester co., Pa. A committee of the old line Quakers have published a notice forbidding the Progressives from holding sessions in their Meeting Houses, and, further, that if their Meeting Houses "are hereafter forcibly entered, they alone, who thus enter them, must be answerable for the consequences."

MURDER BY A MOTHER.—In Norristown, on Saturday last, a woman, named Maria Dailey, murdered her infant child, some six weeks old, by severing its head from its body with a razor. She was a woman of dissipated habits, and her husband was about sending her to the almshouse. She had previously threatened the life of the child, and it had been removed from her.

DEATH OF AN ARTIST BY VIOLENCE.—A young Artist at St. Louis, named Laidlaw, said to be an accomplished scene-painter, and the reputed husband of Sallie St. Clair, a beautiful English actress, now residing and performing at St. Louis, took a ride a few days ago into the country, from that city, in company with another man, and on the next day was found dead in the woods, with a bullet in the head. His companion has not since been seen. The deceased was a native of Europe.

RUSSIAN FUNDS AT SAN FRANCISCO.—It is stated that the Russian American Company have at San Francisco a million of dollars, derived from sales of merchandise sent there from Sitka; there being at present no safe way of sending the money to St. Petersburg, the company are obliged to allow it to remain on deposit in the United States.

☞ The four Erie rioters left Pittsburg without paying the costs of attachment, &c., as ordered by the Court, forfeited their recognizance each bound in $5,000. Process will be issued against them.

☞ The loss by the fire at Chambersburg, on Friday a week last, is set down at $8000. It broke out in a house in the very heart of the town, and swept two squares without destroying a single dwelling!

☞ On Saturday morning, as four men attempted to cross the river below the Horse Shoe dam, at Tunkhannock, the boat became entangled in some willows, and was overset; one of them, by the name of Firman, was drowned.

☞ There is to be a trotting match, mile heat, for $1000, on the Saratoga course on Wednesday, May 17. The horses entered are Frank Pierce, entered by Charles Wood, of Saratoga, and the Belle, by W. Woodruff, of Philadelphia.

☞ Joseph B. Earl, landlord of the Golden Sheaff, in Somerset, Pa., was killed by a drunken man named Koontz, on Monday last.

☞ Lynch law was applied to a Liquor seller in Gloucester, Mass., on Thursday night last, his shop was demolished and he was ordered to leave the town.

☞ The Ohio Farmer thinks that although the wool clip the coming season must be much greater than the past, prices will range but little lower.

☞ The Cincinnati Gazette learns that a large company of Poles and Hungarians, from various parts of the Western States, left Cincinnati recently, for New York, on their way to Europe, for the purpose of joining the Turkish army.

☞ The Louisville Journal, in a long article denunciatory of the indignant proceedings of the citizens of that place in reference to the result of the trial of Ward, admits, or rather charges that men of the highest respectability and character took a leading part in the demonstration, and attended it in great numbers.

SENSIBLE LAW.—The following has been passed by the Massachusetts legislature, with a view to the preservation of health: "If any person shall kill, for the purpose of sale, any calf less than four weeks old, or shall knowingly sell the meat of any calf killed when less than four weeks old, such person shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $200."

ANOTHER MURDERER TO BE TRIED.—Andrew Williams, charged with the murder of his wife in New York, by giving her arsenic, was arraigned in the Court of Oyer and Terminer yesterday, and pleaded not guilty. His trial was set down for Thursday next.

☞ The Cincinnatti Sun says that a ladies association of "Do Nothings," is about organing in that city. Talking is not prohibited by the rules, but all members in good standing, are required to let the kettle boil over, to let the fire go out, and let themselves be kissed by the good looking men. Their motto is—"I never did nothing."

MONUMENT TO PROF. BUTLER.—The Louisville Courier states that the various committees appointed to canvass the city and solicit subscriptions for a monument to Professor Butler, and the assistance of his widow and child, are meeting with great success. There is a universal disposition among the citizens to contribute to this laudable object.

☞ Some six hundred acres of land have recently been purchased in Iowa, on which a colony of monks have settled. Among their peculiar habits may be mentioned that they never mingle with the world, and when they put on a new suit of clothes, the suit is kept on, waking or sleeping, till it falls off or becomes unfit for wear.

☞ Mr. Henry Jacobs, of York, Pa., was run over and killed by the cars at Wrightsville, on Thursday.

☞ Ex-President Tyler delivered a lecture before a crowded audience, at Petersburg, Va., on Thursday evening.
