The Japan Expedition.

The Japan Expedition Experiment of the Japanese Hall Individual Experiment of the Japanese Hall Individual Experiment of Hall Individual Experiment of Hall Individual Experiment Individual Experiment occurred in Putnam county, on Wednesday inorning, in which two men were instantly killed, and a third one so severely injured as to render his recovery hopeless. It appears that a road supervisor named Forny, called upon an lold man named Rice, a desperate character, for the purpose of swarning? him out to work on the roads at a certain time. The old man refused to obey the call, and angry words passed between them, which ended in the supervisor being dreadfully heaten by the old fellow. Rice, it seems, after having committed a most murder, relented, and took the injured man into the house and cared for him. A brother of the supervisor and two or three others, hearing of the affair, repaired to the scene for the purpose of conveying the womeded man to hus home, but Rice forbade them removing him from the house and taking down a rule presented it to the crowd, when he was shot through the brusst by one of the party. The shot did not take effect, as the old man, after receiving it, turned to the party with his loaded rifle and fixed off indiscriminately—and turning again tell dead. The shot of the dying man took tatal effect, instantly killing one of the party named Berry. These are the items of the case as related to us, and may not be strictly true in every particular.—Prante City Terre Haute, (Ind.) occurred in Putnam county, on Wednesday morning, in which two men were instantly kill-

COMPELLED TO LEAVE.—Wm. W. Morris, a free man, of excellent moral character, having visited his wife in Philadelphia and returned to Virginia, and that fact having come to the knowledge of the Mayor, Morris was arraigned before His Honor on a charge of remaining in the commonwealth contrary to law. After a full investigation into all the facts, the Mayor considers the law in such cases.

THREE BOYS DIO VNED.—Three boys, members of Mr. Marshall Wilkin's family, Hamptonburg, Orange county, New York, were drawned in the Walkill Creek on the 22d uit. They were respectively aged 14, 16, and 19 years. The oldest and youngest were crossing the stream near their home, and the wagon was upset by the current. The lad of 16, hearing their cries, went to their assistance, that and it was granted as quite.

A FATTHTE L Don.—During the night of the 27th ult., the family of Abner Bradileld, Abington Montgomery county, were aroused by the barking of their dog, which had been kept in the house that night on account of the storm. Smyth, alias Thomas Provis, came on. The Court was crowded to sufficiation. The charges against the accused were, that he had feloniously forged a codicil to the will of Sir Hugh Smyth. Bart., with the intent to defraud the rightful heir of his property. Last year, the case which this forged will was intended to sustain, was this forged will was intended to sustain, was tried, and resulted against the present defendant, the whole machinery of the fraud, such as a bought bible, produced as a family heir-loom, the forged-seal, &c., were then exposed. The trial resulted in the conviction of the prisoner. The Court sentenced him to twenty years' residence in lowa, whether he designed removing with his family. He subsequently wrote to his wife, requesting her to come on with the family and meet him at Chicago. She is known to have left Springfield on the 20th of March, since when nothing has been heard of her or the children. The husband has exhausted all his powers and means in attempting to find the lost ones. Have they not fallen victims in some one of the calamities upon the western waters, where graves are found so often without a name to mark the spot?

instance, Isaac Barrow, the great divine, was in his boyhood chiefy distinguished by his propensity for fighting, in which he got many a bloody nose; and his father used to say that, if it pleased God to take from him any of his children he hoped it might be Isaac, who was the least promising of them all. And that prodigy of learning, Dr. Adam Clark, when a boy, was never happier than when 'rolling large stone about,' careing nothing for learning or reading of any sort. But at this kind of work he became "uncommonly hard," though his father proclained him to be a most "grevious dunce." Thanks to Adam Clark's power of rolling about the large stone in his boyhood, he was afterwards able to roll about large thoughts in his manhood.

Napoleon and Wellngton were both dull boys. The former is discribed by the Duchess d'Abrantes, who knew him intimately when a child, as having good health, and in other respects he was like other boys.' Faith and Medicine are about the same Faith and Medicine are about the same thing in the eye of the Tartar. If the Lama doctor happens not to have any medicine with him, he is by no means disconcerted; he writes the names of the remedies upon little scraps of paper, with his saliva, and rolls them up into pills, which the patient tosses down with the same perfect confidence as though they were genuine medicaments. To swallow the name of the remedy or the remedy itself, say the Tartars, comes to precisely the same thing.

THE MARRIAGE STATE;

MOST STARTLING CONSIDERATIONS !

Reflections for the Thoughtful. Strange that countless human beings exist and drag through life as do the beasts of the field, or the insects of the earth, evincing no more thought or reduction than though the noble faculties of mind were not vouchsafed to them.
Many such are husbands and fathers, upon whom are dependent the health, the well-being, and the huppiness of a confiding and affectionate wife, with perhaps a family of children.

HOW OFTEN IT HAPPENS THAT THE WIFE LINGERS FROM YEAR TO YEAR WIFE LINGERS FROM YEAR TO YEAR in that pittable condition as not even for one day to feel the happy and exhilectating influence incident
to the enjoyment of health.
She may not be an invalid confined to her bed, or even to her room; as her pride, ambition and energy induce and nerve her to take personal charge of her household, even when her health will not admit of it; but she is nevertheless perceptibly sinking from day to day, and always ailing.
Thus, day after day, and mosth after month transpire. Her health daily sinks, till finally even the ope of recovery no longer remains. And thus

THE BLOOMING BRIDE.

THE BLOOMING BRIDE,

3ut a few years ago in the flush of health and fouth, and buoyaney of spirits, rapidly, and apparently inexplicably, becomes a feeble, sickly, debilitated wife, with frame enneated, nerves unstrung, spirits depressed, countenance bearing the unpress of suffering, and an utter physical and mental prostration.

Sometimes this deplorable change may and does arise from organic or constitutional causes. But effener, by far offener, to gross and inexcusable ignorance of the simplest and plainest rules of health as connected with the marriage state, the violation of which cutaits disease, suffering and misery, not only to the wife, but often

DREADFUL INHERITANCE

And must this continue? Shall we be wise in all that concerns the cattle of our fields, our horses, our sheep, our cows, our sheep, the nature and character of the soil welposses, the texture and quality of our goods and merchandise; but in all that concerns ourselves as human beings, with human functions and passions, subject to great derangement, involving our future peace and happiness—in all that concerns the health and welfare of the wife of our affections, and the mother of our children; in all that concerns the mental and physical well being of those children, we should be improved in the durkest and most. from the Parents.

BENIGHTED IGNORANCE. AS CULPABLE AS INEXCUSABLE AS CHIFARIE AS INEXCINABLE!

How long shall this ignorance preval so productive of its bitter fruits! How long shall the write and mother be ignorant of the nature, character and causes of the various womb and sexual complaints, embittering live days by suffering—suffering often prolonged to years, eventuating in a complication of diseases utterly and hopelessly incurable! Shall we for ever close our eves to the results of physiological science by which we may arrive at an understanding of ourselvas as men and women, subject to serious life-hong enduring diseases, and per petuating them to our children.

LET EVERY WIFE AND HUSBAND PONDER

No husband on refe need be ignment of what conterns them most to know to secure their health and happiness. That has while is contained in a little work outside.
