THE NEW SCHOOL LAW.

The New School Law has passed both branches of the Legislature, and received the approbation of the Governor. There are several important changes in the Law, although in most particulars, similar to the old Law.

lars, similar to the old Law. It makes each ward in a city, or borough a separate district, cleet three directors who shall hold all property—levy tax and disburse for the bonefit of the ward, exclusively—the Directors of all the wards to constitute a Board of control for the whole town or city. There is a proviso for consolidating the property into one district, however, if the Directors think best to do so. Thirty-first section does away with the pres-ent way of collecting School Tax, and provides for the appointment of a collector.
