

AMERICAN VOLUNTEER.

JOHN B. BRATTON, Editor & Proprietor. CARLEISLE, PA., JUNE 22, 1864.

Democratic State Ticket:

GOVERNOR: WILLIAM BIGLER, of CLEARFORK COUNTY.

JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT: JEREMIAH S. BLACK, of SOMERSET COUNTY.

CANAL COMMISSIONER: HENRY S. MOTT, of PIKE COUNTY.

State Central Committee. The Democratic State Central Committee, agreeable to previous announcement, met at Buehler's Hotel, in Harrisburg, on Thursday, the 16th inst., and after a full and free interchange of sentiments, it was resolved that a more efficient organization of the Democratic party be effected, and that addresses be issued on the following subjects:

1st. The new position of the Whig party and their allies. 2nd. The principles of non-intervention and popular sovereignty as settled by the Compromise of 1850, and embodied in the Nebraska and Kansas bills.

3d. Review of the measures of the present and late State Administrations. 4th. Federalism and Whiggery from the days of Hamilton down to the present day.

Headed, that the foregoing proceedings be published in the Democratic papers of this State. J. ELLIS BONHAM, Chairman. Geo. C. WILKER, Secretary.

The Philadelphia News has taken the new and mysterious order of Know-Nothingism under its special protection, hoping, no doubt, that the members of that order will in turn take the News under their protection. It announces the formation of a "Council" of this secret society in Harrisburg, Carlisle, Newville, &c., and it really appears to know something in relation to the origin, movements and designs of this proscriptionary body of men.

Our neighbor of the Herald, in common with most of the Whig—We beg pardon, Know-Nothing—papers of this State, has a decided liking for the new organization of Know-Nothingism. This is characteristic of our neighbors—he would defend any organization, and become a member of it, even if "old Nick" himself officiated as high priest, provided the object was declared to be "opposition to Locofocoism."

WHISTLING TO KEEP THEIR COUGES UP.

It is quite amusing to read the vain boasts of the opposition papers at this time. Our Whig friends are good at brag, if nothing else, and if loud boasting can avail him, Judge Postlock will certainly be elected Governor by a very large majority. A Whig or Know-Nothing paper now before us, predicts that his majority will exceed twenty thousand! This kind of "loud talk" might alarm us, but when you consider that boasting has always been a favorite policy in Whig tactics, we are rather amused than frightened at the tone of the opposition press.

Now, we will not pretend to predict the majority Gov. BROWN will be re-elected by, but that he will be triumphantly sustained at the polls on the second Tuesday of October, we feel entirely confident. Why should he not be sustained?—Why should the people discard him? Beyond question he has, thus far, administered the Executive duties to the full and entire satisfaction of every unprejudiced man.

During the present canvass, it is not our purpose to say anything to the disparagement of Judge Postlock, except to firmly oppose his election, from principle. We have known Judge P. for many years, and have always found him a very honorable man, but a yet more decided, and even vindictive political opponent.

Emigrations to the New Territories.

The Abolitionists and Whigs are now seeking to make capital out of pretended efforts to encourage and facilitate emigration from the free States to Kansas and Nebraska, in order to meet and outvote the slaveholders who may locate there. They will find few slaveholders there, says the Pittsburgh Morning Star, and have no rivalry to overcome. The South has no design to enter the contest for the control of those regions. But we hope the efforts to send Northern labor there will be successful, and that the Abolitionists will now show their zeal for the cause of free territory by going themselves in large numbers. Let them show a disposition to labor, and endure the hardships of a frontier and pioneer life, for the sake of their cause, instead of remaining in the old States to preach, and agitate, and stir up riot and murder and treason. A fair field is open before them. If they have any fears that slavery will gain footing in Kansas, why not go there themselves in sufficient numbers to prevent it. They can well be spared from the older communities; and a little disposition to labor, as well as to agitate, is necessary to prove their sincerity. We believe, however, that the Abolitionists of the North and East have no intention to put "their own hands to the plough."

WESTMORELAND COUNTY.—The Democratic primary elections in Westmoreland county have resulted in the nomination of Augustus Drum for Congress, and W. A. Cook and Benjamin Byrly for Assembly.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT YORK, PA.—A fire broke out at York, Pa., on Friday morning, in the stable of Daniel B. Weiser, on an alley between South-George and South Duke streets, which was consumed, together with his barn, a wagon, hay, straw, &c. The reputation says, the stable of Mr. Rudy was next consumed, and that of Joseph Funk next damaged.

Indiana and the Adopted Citizens.

Amongst the admirable resolutions adopted by the late democratic convention in Indiana, there is one pointed directly at the secret organization based upon religious intolerance and hostility to foreigners, which deserves to be especially noticed. This organization was met by the Indiana democracy in the bold and defiant spirit which it becomes the democracy everywhere to resist so ignominious and so dangerous an effort to distract and weaken our party.

THE NEW NAME ADOPTED BY THE WHIGS.

The Whigs have at length dropped the name to which they so long adhered, and the party of Weezer and Clay is henceforth to be known by the senseless title of "Know-Nothings." The Whig party is extinct, its creed abandoned, and its followers have taken shelter beneath the camp of a miserable and intolerant faction.

FROM AND DISCUSS.

Grey of the Cleveland Plaindealer, warns his calculations that if they don't want to see "Steve" Douglas the next Postmaster General, they had better stop their abuse.
