non the Sabbath. Many houses are conforming woluntarily to the new order of things, and find the loss but trifling, which is fully balanced by the gain of being rid of a multitude of loungers with whom they were previously bored. Indeed, we hope soon to see the Sabbath observed in-a stricter manner than it has for some years been. Not only the tavern keepers, but every man should abstain from following showeldly business, and there should be a universal ocessation. business, and there should be a universal ocssation from all unnecessary labor on the first day of the week.

Summer Complaints.—As this is the season when so many people are attacked with cholera morbus, duarrhea, and a host of other diseases incident to the season, every one should be careful to abstain, as much as possible, from indulging in the cating of vegetables, unripe fruit, &c. Fruits, vegetables, mellons, and every description of trash brought from a distance, and with which our market is sometimes glutted, are almost always decayed and unwholesome, and at a time like this are the prolific source of all manner of diseases. Avoid them as you would SUMMER COMPLAINTS. - As this is the season nanner of diseases. Avoid them as you would the cholers and death.

POLITICAL TOURNATION .- We have read with real pleasure, and, we trust, much profit, the able and cloquent sermon addressed to the congregation of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church. Philadelphia, on the evening of June 5th, by their Pastor, Rev. E. W. Hurten, upon the subject of "Political Toleration." It is indeed a masterly effort, and stamps its author as a man of enlarged, patriotic and liberal views. At the present time, when intolerance is begin ning to show itself in our very midst, the ap-per blo., for standard brands, and $8 a $0 for per arrange of this sermon is most appropriate, and should be carefully read and pondered by men of all parties.

Orners and should be carefully read and pondered by men of all parties.

Orners are all parties and faligues of the occasion. The company was under the command of its Captain, Col. Sanuez, Croor, and mustered, as we learn, 34 men. It is said the old Infantry was one of the handsomest, best captaped, and best deilled companies present on that occasion, making a very fine and soldier-like appearance. Indeed, Col. Cnor is loss accessary, and will benefit both toxable and deportment of a soldier.

Housekeepers and others will be rejoiced to learn, that by the last advices from Europe, the prices of breadstuffs, of every description, had declined considerably. In the cities, too, the price of beef has a downward tendency. What with the late news from Europe, and the abundant supply of breadstuffs which will soon be brought into market, the price of flour mus ore long experience a considerable decline.

Armival of Soldiers.—On Friday morning last, a detatchment of about sixty soldiers, belonging to the 2d Regiment of United States Infantry, arrived at this place by the Eastern train of cars, and immediately proceeded to their quarters, at the Carlisle Barracks. They are a fine looking body of men and appear to be well drilled. The commanding officer at the post is Brigadier General E. A. Hitchicock, an experienced and competent offleer.

MILITARY ELECTION.—Brigadic General Epward Armon, of this borough, was, on Monday the 3d instant, elected Major General of the 15th Division of the Pennsylvania Volunteers, composed of the Cumberland, Perry and Franklin Brigades. Gen. Armon received all the votes cast in Cumberland county (10.) Capt. E. M. Biddle received all the votes in Franklin county (7.) In Perry no election was held. Gen. Armon's majority over Biddle received in the honor that has been conferred upon him.
