A Know-Nothing Swindle.

Certain members of this secret Order have been detailed by the Grand Master to circulate a report that a change has been made in the principles of the Order, so as to exclude the sons of adopted citizens from the proscription demanded by their articles. This is a mere russ of the country. But such is not the fact. The oaths and obligations still stand in all their naked deformity, the same as when we first gave them to the community. Not only are the sons of adopted citizens proscribed, but in some cases, American citizens have been refused almittance into their Orders because a member of of the family finppened to be attached to the Catholic Clurch. With such facts as these staring the community in the face, it is lost time for the desciples of Know-Nothingism to go from door to door, preaching an affected conversion from a portion of their folly and wickedness. The people will not believe words who opposed to acts. When they see the members of the Know-Nothing Order persecuting vone, for insisting on their religious rights, its idle and ridiculous to talk of reformation.

The news from the Danube continues generally favorable to the allies. Nothing decisive, however, has taken place. On the morning of the 30th the Russians, it is stated, attacked the Turkish-French camp at Giurgeve, and were totally defeated, with a loss of 2000 killed and wounded and a large number of prisoners. The Russians were retreating by forced marches.—They had quitted Frateschi, which was occupied by the Turkis.

ARREST FOR MAIL ROBBERY.—Dr. J. C. Patterson, Post Master at McWhirterville, near Nashville, Tenn., has been arrested on the charge of robbing the mails. It appears that a large amount of money has for several months disappeared from the mails on that route, and that a decoy letter, containing $100 in counterfeit notes, and $2 in good meney, was mailed at Nashville a few days ago, and on reaching McWhriterville it disappeared. On the arrest of Br. P. this letter, it is said, was found on his oerson.

REV. MERVIN E. JOHNSTON.

This brother died at Carlisle, Pa., of homorrhage, on Monday ovenling, July 31st, in the 31st year of his age.

The intelligence will be surprising and sad to very many who knew him, and knew him only to admire him, throughout this region of his nativity and education. He was born near Wellsville, O., graduated at Washington College and at the Western Theological Seminary. Hefore his theological course was quite inished, he was licensed to preach, and attracted special and distinguished notices in the large churches of the cities, and wherever else he was called to make trial of his gifts. This early promise was fully systamed by his subsequent caroer. Ho was at all times, and to all classes and conditions of men a captivating proaches.

For some live years, netwithstanding the most precarious and delicate health all the while, he stood, by the holp of God, in the important and intelligent church of Carlisle, a pastor universally beloved and eminently popular and successful. His amenity of manners, elegant taste, fresh and impressive elequence, warm and devoted plety—not to speak of less prominent qualities, which wore equally real, and beautifully proportiqued, in his character—such as good Judgment, whee behavior, and fatthird frendship—won for him admiration and love, among his own people, and annong the whole community of christian de-

The Democratic Creed.

We are gratified to see that in all sections of the State, the Democracy are planting themselves on the Republican forced and in opposition to all institutions and persecutions either for birth-place or religious faith. In the proceedings of the Fulton County Democratio meeting the platform is thus laid down:

Resolved, That we regard the following as the true cardinal points of Democratio Republican faith in the present and in all other canvasses:

1st. State rights as containing the doctrine of popular sovereignty, and exemplified in those incasures which leave the people of a State or Territory to control their own institutions and to enact their own laws.

2d. Opposition to sectional politics of every name and nature, whether Abolitionism or Free-Soilism.

3d. A defence of religious freedom, as laid down in the Constitution, and protection to all who are ready to become citizens of this country, and who, while they escape from the despotism of the Old World, embrace and defend the freedom of our institutions.
