Pollock and the Know-Nothing Mayor...An Ab-stract from the Principles of the Order.

stract from the Principles of the Order.

When James Pollock, the Whig candidate for Governor of the free and Independent State of Pennsylvania, in the presence of Robert T. Connad and Sheriff Allen joined the Know-Nothing order on the 15th day of June last, at the North cast corner of Ninth and Arch streets, he was lectured in the following terms by the Instructor of the lodges.

he was lectured in the following terms by the Instructor of the lodge:

"My Brother, the Order which has now received you as a member, may with all propriety be considered a secret organization. It is so secret, in fact, that if you were placed defore A LEGAL TRIBUNAL AND THERE SWORN TO TELL THE TRUTH, THE WHOLE TRUTH, AND NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH, you could not, FOR YOUR LIFE, reveal the name, or objects, or the secrets of that band of brothers among whom your name reveal the families of objects, of the secrets of that band of brothers among whom your name now stands enrolled; and further than this, when you retire from this meeting, you must return to your families and triends as ignorant return to your families and triends as ignorant as when you came, so far as the name of this Order is concerned. In common with ourselves, you "know nothing," and let it be your stern resolution through life to "know nothing." "The high and exalted duties which you owe to your God, to your Country, and to yourselves, for the purpose of the preservation of American Liberty, requires that you should observe the oath which you have this night taken above all other obligation. For the laws of no land are of higher importance to yourselves and your are of higher importance to yourselves and your hildren, than is that obligation which you have just taken, to preserve American institutions by the entire and absolute exclusion of all for cigners, and of all who are not Protestants, from control or participation in the affairs of your country."

To this instruction the candidate, Mr. Pot-

LOCK, bowed his assent. Mr. CONRAD did the same on a previous occasion.

Now, what would be the condition of Mr. Now, what would be the condition of Mr. POLLOGE, or of the vise (?) head of our city government, if he should be called into Court, to testify against one or more of "that band of brothers." Observe there is no qualification to this oath. It must be obeyed whether the observe heads a part, whether the acts and do not be acted to be acted. this oath. It must be obeyed whether the objects be legal or not—whether the acts and doings of "that band of brothers" be in conformity to, or in violation of the law. Is it not a shameless outrage that a man should be at the head of a beautiful thriving city, who thus stands pledged to screen the violators of the law? Is it not a worse outrage to attempt to place in the gubernatorial chair of a Commonwealth, whose political, religious and social liberty is based upon the most unrestricted principles of tolerance, a time-serving demagaque.

walth, whose political, religious and social liberty is based upon the most unrestricted principles of tolerance, a time-serving demagone who, for the sake of a paltry mess of pottage would sell his freedom, and pledge himself before God and man to violate the law of the land, and perjure himself in a court of justice?

Again, we say, Mr. Pollock if you don't be long to this order, take issue and plead not guilty. We stand prepared to convict you before the freemen of Pennsylvania.

The Saare—For Whom Intended,

The Philadelphia Neers refers to the charges of the Argus, that Judge Pollock, the whig candidate for Governor, joined the Know Nothis, in that city, on the 15th of June, but does not deny them. This, then, is a tacit admission of his membership in that proscriptive association, and is another warning to Democratis to keep clear of the snare which whigery is laying for them. That it is intended experially to catch Democrats, there is no longer (if there ever was) room for reasonable doubt. The whigs are straining their utmost to defeat Gov. Bigler, and such is the intent and object of Know Nothingism. Both have one and the same feeling and both are striving for the destruction of the Domocratic party. But, although whiggern may die out, and only regain a lattle occasional vitality by a change of name, they will find the old Democratic party a 'hard knot to crack,' and that the 'sober second thought' of the people will make it stronger than ever. It has been assaild by desperate isms before this, and although the timid and short-slightep may have predicted lasting injury to its ranks, it has all ways exhibited "the true free of the flint," and stronger than ever. mere trick of winggery to enter a contract of the State, Democrats who had joined it are backing out. The silly trick of electing a democrat to a small office of no profit, deceives no one now. It is well known to have for its main design the defeat of the democratic party in the State; and with this design so well understood,—so perfectly apparent—no man of our party, except the angry "get nothings" will join the Know Nothings. Those who have joined, have a right to leave when they please. The oath is not binding.

Trial of a License Case-An Indian Witness.

A few years since, an effort was made by the public of this country to break up the traffle of ardent spirits between the Indians residing on the Allegheny Reservation and their whiteneighbors, who were engaged in the business of sup-plying them with 'fire-water.' In all the trials that were had, the Indians

In all the trials that were had, the Indians were necessarily called as witnesses and as a disclosure of the names of those who were in the habit of furnishing them with drink usually operated to stop the supplies of those who informed, various expedients were resorted to by the witnesses, to evade giving the necessary evidence. On one occasion, where an indictment was pending against an innkeeper for selling liquor to the Indians, John Titus' was called to prove the offence. John loved a drink amazingly, and came upon the witnesses' stand with the air of a man whose mind was made up to baffle the district attorney in his inquiries at all hazards. After the usual oath was administered, the following dialogue ensued:

Well, John, asked the District Attorney, were you at Currier's on the day of the circus?'

Yes,' was the propert and locanie reals.

"Yes,' was the prompt and laconic reply.
"Who else was there, John?"

No effort would induce John to give any other answer, and he was allowed to retire.

THE MARRIAGE STATE; thall Happiness and Health, or Altery Sichness, aftend it f

MOST STARTLING CONSIDERATIONS ! Reflections for the Thoughtful.

Strange that countless human beings exist and drag through life as do the beasts of the field, or the insects of the carth, evincing no more thought or reflection than though the nuble faculties or fining were not vouchasted to them. Many seuth are husbands and fathers, upon whom are dependent the health, the well-being, and the happiness of a confiding and affectionate wife, with perhaps a family of children.

HOW OFTEN IT HAPPENS THAT THE WIFE LINGERS FROM YEAR TO YEAR WHE LINGERS FROM YEAR TO YEAR
In that pitiable condition as not even for one day to feel the happy and exhilterating influence incident to the enjoyment of health.
She may not be an invalid confined to her bed, or even to her room; as her pride, ambition and energy induces and nerve her to take personal charge of her household, even when her health will not admit of it; but she is nevertheless perceptibly sinking from day to day, and always ailing.
Thus, day after day, and month after month transpire. Her health daily sinks, till family even the ope of recovery no longer remains. And thus

THE BLOOMING BRIDE. But a few years ago in the flush of health and youth, and buoyaney of spirits, rapidly, and apparently inexplicably, becomes a feeble, sickly, debilitated wife, with frame emaciated, nerves untrung, spirits depressed, countennee bearing the impress of suffering, and an utter physical and mental prostration. strung, spirits copressed, and an atter physical and mental prostration.

Sometimes this deplorable change may and does arise from organic or constitutional causes. But oftener, by far oftener, to gross and inaccusable agreement of the simplest and plainest rules of health at connected with the marriage state, the riolation of which entails disease, suffering and misery, not only to the vife, but often from the Parents.

And must this continue? Shall we be wise in that concerns the cattle of our fields, our horses, all that concerns the cattle of our fields, our horses, our sheep, our cows, our ozen, the nature and character of the soil we possess, the texture and quality of our goods and merchandise; but in all that concerns curselves as human beings, with human functions and passions, subject to great derangement, involving our future peace and happinessin all that concerns the health and welfare of the wife of our affections, and the mother of our children; in all that concerns the mental and physical well being of those children, we should be instance of in the darkers and turns.

BENIGHTED IGNORANCE,

BENIGHTED IGNORANCE,

AS CULTABLE AS INEXCUSABLE!

How long shall this ignorance provail so productive of its bitter fruits? How long shall the write and muther be ignorant of the nature, churacter and causes of the various womb and sexual complaints, embittering her days by suffering—suffering often prolonged to years, eventuating in a complication of diseases utterly and hopolessly incurable? Shall we for ever close our eyes to the results of physiological science by which we may arrive at an anderstanding of ourselves as men and women, subject to scrious life-long enduring diseases, and perpetuating them to our children.

LET EVERY WIFE AND HUSBAND PONDER No husband or surfe need be ignorant of what concerns them most to know to secure their health and happiness. That knowledge is contained in a little work entitled
