BY JOHN B. BRATTON. "OUR COUNTRY—MAY IT ALWAYS BE RIGHT—BUT RIGHT OR WRONG, OUR COUNTRY."
VOL. 41. CARLISLE, PA., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1854. NO. 13. AT $2.00 PER ANNUM.

Poetical.

Where the golden corn is bending,
And the singing reapers sing,
Where the white clouds are sending
Leafy showers on the grass,
The blue river onward flowing,
Mingling with its noisy strife,
The murmur of the flowers growing,
And the hum of insect life,
I dream that rich plain was gazing
Towards the snowy mountains high,
Who their gleaming peaks were raising
Up against the purple sky.

ILLUSION.

And the glory of their shining,
Dashed in clouds of rosy light,
But my weary eyes were finding
For a moment's rest and bright!
So I thought plain and weary,
Fainting, yet with hope sustained,
Tolled through pathways long and dreary,
Till the mountain top was gained.
Lo! I thought that I have taken,
As to shining from below,
Was a desolate, forsaken,
Region of perpetual snow.

TOBACCO.

The Doctor leans back on his old settee,
And he puffs a grin, for so pleased is he
Whit puffing the smoke afar;
And he puffs and puffs, and he snuffs and snuffs,
Like a man with a bad catarrh.

Blatantness.

From Wallon's History of Cuba.
THE STORY OF MARTI, THE SMUGGLER.
One of the most successful villains whose story will be written in history is a man named Marti, as well known in Cuba as the person of the Governor-General himself. Formerly he was a smuggler and a half pirate on the island, being a daring and accomplished leader of reckless men. At one time he bore the title of King of the Isle of Pines, where was his principal rendezvous, and from there he dispatched his vessels, small boats, to operate in the neighboring waters.

DIAMOND CUT DIAMOND.

"We have recently come into possession of facts in regard to a very peculiar Real Estate transaction in this city, the details of which are interesting as illustrating character, as well as of the method of doing business which is considered sharp by a certain class of business men.

Missionaries of the Sword in Turkey.

An American gentleman, who writes from Yarnu under a recent date, sends the following facts in the presence of the High-Pasha, in the autumn of 1853, it is a gloomy light through the thunder-cloud, and is pleasant to contemplate than a phylloxera in the beams of black.

Love, Suicide and Marriage.

On Monday we gave a brief account of an attempt at self-destruction with a pistol in Chicago in search of a young man who had been trifling with her affections, to break an honest promise in love.

A New Bear Story.

The following, which was translated from a French paper, "Compteur de Tarnet-Gardien" for the Northern Gazette, of Keaville, N. Y., shows all known modes of hunting in the shade.

How a Fellow brought in the Return.

In a county near by, an election was held for the office of High Sheriff. Three popular candidates were in the field, and their chances of success were about equal. Never, it is said, did the yeomanry of that county enter more hotly into political contest than on this occasion. Thousands upon thousands of dollars had been staked upon the result, and this circumstance, perhaps, lent much to the enthusiasm manifested by the people.

Conviction under the New Liquor Law.

The first conviction in Philadelphia, under the new law prohibiting sales of liquor to minors, was made in the case of a young man named Peter Plum, a German tavern-keeper, who was arraigned on complaint of Mary Honcher, for selling to her husband, an immoderate person, after repeated notice to desist.

Important Military Appointments.

It is said that the Government of the United States has appointed Gen. G. M. Meade, for one year from the first of November next, to be the first of the Army of the Potomac, in place of Gen. Burnside.

Value of Publicity.

Notoriety or publicity is an indispensable element of success to the merchant, mechanic, or manufacturer, who would give a speedy and wide distribution to his goods, and who would not be content to exchange for money. He may have capital, skill, convenient position, punctuality, industry, and honesty—every possible fitness for his business, and all is nothing if he have not sufficient publicity.
