NONINEVS. If will, be seen by the correspondence below, that all the nominees upon the several Denio-tratiq tickets, have answered the interrogatories propounded to them by the Chairman of the Uity Excentive Committee. Their joint answer is full, explicit, and free from doubt or evasion. The suspitoin that has hitherto lingered around the names of several of the candidates, should the one be abandoned, unless it can be clearly shown that the persons so suspected have re-sorted to some dishonorable shift to email the to sign likeletter to which their names are ap-pended. We now have very confidence in their integrity upon, the subject referred to, and chal-lenge the most stringent examination into the truth of their statement, antilenticated with the sanceity of their names, and fixed by their own hands. Acting upon our own belief, we assert that our tickets are free from the taint of Know-Nothingismy and solioit, in the strongest man-ner, proof to the contrary : PURLADELPHIA, Sept. 6th, 1851...
