ject which "contes home" to the pockets of people in every guarter of the country. The Boston Courier spice of the country. on Courier speaks truly when it says that housekeepers must feel specially interested to know whether the high prices which they are now compelled to pay for the commodifies daily Figuired for the kitchen are likely to continue, and whicher these enormous rates: are caused by a scarcity of the articles in question, or owo ir existence to tricks of speculation." The Courier states some facts, which are worthy of tice ; but we may remark that, if thirty cents be deemed high in Boston, what should we confider twenty-five and thirty-one in Carlisle ?-

It Bays: Wild utter is now selling in the Boston mar-Refs at thirty cents a pointd. This is a sort of famine price, and can be justified only by the biast and Faice Silks, among which may be famine price, and can be justified only by the biast and Faice Silks, among which may be found the chapest over brought to Carlisle. MENS AND BOYS WEAR, unch as Cloths, (black and fancy colors,) Casi-meres, Vestings, Satinetts, Jeans and Plaids for Boys' weat. Also, DOMESTIC GOODS that three hubdred and fifty-six tons of butter.
