y sing notice. I mean the doctrine of the recentdy elected Mayor of the city of Philadelphia.
That a citizen born out of the country should not be trusted with civil office, and the still more extraordinary tenets of political faith had, and then bring the power of the govmore extraordinary tenets of political faith had, and then bring the power of the govmore extraordinary tenets of political faith had, by a certain secret organization, which, it is bead, materially sided in elevating thus funclicinary to power.

I am opposed to all secret societies to accomplish political ends. I believe, in the language of Geogram Vasunators, that all such associations, 'are likely in the course of time and things to become potent engines by which canning, ambitious and unprincipled men will be enabled to subject the power of the people; and to surp for the inscluses the reins of government, destroying afterwards the very engines which lifted them to unjust dominion."
