AMERICAN VOLUNTEER.

TERMS.

Supposerring.—One Dollar and Fifty Cents, paid in advance; Two Dollars if paid within the year, and Two Dollars and Fifty Cents, if not paid within the year. These torns will be rigitly adhered to in every instance. No subscription ly adhered to in every instance. No subscription discentiaued until all arrearages are paid unless at the option of the Editor.

Appearagements—Accompanied by the Casifand not exceeding one square, will be inserted three times for one Dollar, and twenty-live conta for each additional insortion. Those of a greater lightly in report ties.

lorgth in proportion.

Jon-Printing—Sach as Hand Bills, Posting Bills, Pamphlets, Blanks, Labels, &c., executed with accuracy and at the appriest notice.

Poetical.

When, poor in all but youth and love,
I clasped thee to this beating heart,
And yows for wealth and fame to rove.
That we might yeep no more to part.
Years have gone by—long weary years
Of toil, to win my station now—
Of ardent hopes and sickening fears,
And wealth is mine—but where art thou t

In life's first hour, despised and lone
I wandered through the busy crowd,
And now that life's best joys have flown,
They greet with smiles and nurrinurslou
Oh! for that voice—thy gentle voice
To breathe to me its welcome now!
Wealth, fame, and all that should rejoice.
To my der win- for where set then?

What spot on earth like home! Tis there the loved ones dwell; Thence thronging memories come, Our hearts with joy to swell. There childhood's happy hours Yore passed in caim delight; Our path was strewn with flowers, Our day foretold no night.

What though the winter winds
Have blasted those fair flowers?
What though experience finds
That life hath some dark hours?
Within our heart of hearts,
The imags of that home
Shall dwell till life departs,
Where'er we rest or roam.

ancicu

"OUR COUNTRY MAY IT ALWAYS BE RIGHT BUT MIGHT OR WRONG, OUR COUNTRY."

CARLISLE, PA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1854.

From the Auberra (Catifornia). Herald, July 20.

The Sports of California.

Brant AND BULL From.—On Saturday lasts grand there: and ball fight was advertised to some grant deere and the transfer of the Saturday lasts grand there: and ball fight was advertised to some grant deere and the state of clock in the colone of the speciators, indermeath with a deepen receld, with ample accommodations for the speciators, undermeath with the person animal of the grant deepen of the speciators, indermeath with the promised as a state of the state of the speciators of the prediction, the provided in animal of the granty to the first of the speciators, and the grant of the catnorillary poculiarity to the capture of the speciators, and the grant of the catnorillary poculiarity to the capture of the speciators, and the grant of the catnorillary poculiarity to the public curiosity to give some additional to the public curiosity to give and the p to the Chief, Justice of Pennsylvania.

ADVENTURE OF AN OURANG-OUTANG.

Oh Jero, dear Jere, I have found you at last, Now memory, burdened, with scores of the past, Restores no to Somersel's mountains and snow, Where you was but Jerd, and I was but Joo."

In the evening they came together, but as I was not there, the world must imagine the rest.

BF Riches are an unfortunate invention—

Find a man with his millions.

Tritles make perfection, but perfectly in the second secon self is no trifle.

Why is a young lady just from a lower ingechool. like a building committee for the base is ready to receive proposals.

How many women have been under liamonds, as bird catchers entire the last led neaven to earth with sparking; glass. In this draw with sparsing great the state of the state of the power to be so while young.

The entrance of a single woman of talent into a family is sufficient to keep it clear of fools for several concentions.

for several generations.

for several generations.

A fellow out in lova jumped so high the other day, that he says he saw the dog star wag his tall.

There is a certain kind of vice that s ersons will shun if they are ever so bad, that s, advice.

Is, advice.

He who knows the world will not be too bashful, and he who knows himself will never be too impudent.

Give a man brains and riches, and he is a king. Give a man brains without riches, and he is a slave. Give a man riches without brains, and he is a fool. miscrated with, on account of his wife running away, said: Don't jiffy no till she comes back again.

ngain.'

The obstinate juryman who persisted in standing out all night, was badly frost bitten.

A title is frequently nothing more than the crest stamped on a silver spoon.

The An editor down cast says that the constant murmur of the sea reminds him of his wife. And no doubt the squall of old ocean remind him of his children.

ID He that is fouldy praised; will be clam-orously consured. He that rises hastily, into fame, will be in danger of sinking saddenly into oblivion.—Laton.

obnivion.—Latern

It is common to speak of those whom a litth has jitted as her victima. This is a grave error; her real victim is the man whom shear-cepts.

A shocmaker in Connecticut brught some shoe pegs made of rotten wood. Not being able to use them, he took his knife, and sharpened the other end of them, and sold them for catal Ooh! pooh! said a wife to her expiring usband, as he strove to utter a few parting words, don't stop to talk, but go on with your dying.

The newspaper is a law book for the indelent, a sermen for the thoughtful; a library for the poor. It may stimulate the most indifferent, it may also instruct the most pro-

Ton't hurry, exclaimed the min who was going to be hung, to the crowd which to lowed him, there'll be no fan till I get them. Physicians rarely take medicine, law-yers seldom go to law, and minister stress of of other parsons' churches. Editors, burger, and all the papers they can get hind, of a nough said.

nough said.

There is a spop for the sale of anathor or rice whiskey, in long Kong, which been over its door the following inscription:

The joys of paradise are nothing compared with a perperual drunk!"

perperual drunk!

DII was a rather left-handed compliment to the memory of the good old deacon, witch his pastor gave out to be sang at his fungral the hymn commencing with—Believing, were joint to set the curse, acmored!

Although men are accused for not knowing their own weakness, yet, perhaps, as few know their own strength. It is in men as in soils, where sometimes there is a vein of gold which the owners know not of.

The heart of a first settles no more tena-ciously on the affections of a gentleman, than a-outton does on one of his shirts—for, in fact, it s no sooner on than it is off again.

What wood is that ferrule made of ?"
asked a schoolmoster of one of his botanical classes; to which she scholar replied—"the weeping willow—it produces so many tears." Training window in produces so many some to be seen that the market-house. You shouldn't say larging, my son—hens lay! 'But I've seen men lay too.' 'Oh no my son.' Yes, but I have seen 'em lay brick!' 'Go split your kindling—' I can't talk to you now.'

ITA young lady was told by a married one that she had better precipitate herself off the Niagara falls into the basin below than to max-range of the property of the lady replied, well, I would if I thought I could find a husband at the bottom.' Did you ever!

Extensive Fine Department.-A western editor is very entlusiastic in praise of the fire department of his locality on the occasion of a late fire. The department apparatus consists of a wash tub, seven buckets, and a large sized

Mrs. Russel says it is not so much troub-le for a 'nuss' to take care of sick people as some folks imagine. The most of 'em don't want nothing, she says, and when they do they don't get it.

don't get it.

There are two reasons trhy 'some people' don't face the advice of 'mind your own business, and second, no mind to bring to it. Rather poorly off, that style of humanity.

To Vanity is the greateomnanding passion, it is this that produces the most grand and theroic deeds, or impels to the most dreadful y It is this that produces the most grand and heroic deeds, or impels to the most dreadful crimes. Saye me but from this passion, and I can defy the others. They are mere urchins, but this is a giant.

TA GOOD ANSWER.—When the Rev. Jesso Lee, the father of Methodism in New England, was asked why there were no doctors of divinity in his denomination, he promptly replied, lecause our divinity is not sick.

DIlair is an excellent manure. Perlians this explains its extensive application of late in the shape of moustaches, to 'cabbage heads' and turnip tops.' It is to be hoped a plentiful crop of brains will be the result.

In Why is a lady a hair like the latest news ?
Because in the morning we always find it in the papers.

The parentage of a lie is the most diffi-cult of all to trace. It is indeed a clever lie that know its own father!

"A retainer at the par," as the poor bey said when caught by a dog, just as he was about to mount the orchard funce.

dellow, that music neard in the least. Queer nost two wins and the delirium tremens; not rightly remembering the name of the disease, be called it the "depth" making bad Latin, but rery good English:

The fellow who never gets in debt be cause no one will trust him, is brother to the old maid who never gets in touble or love, be cause no one will nutice her. "Misfortunite" family, that

HUT WHERE ART THOU!

BY HON. MIS. NORTON.

Faine's dazzling wrealth for thy dear sake
Grow brighter than before to ma,
Lichung to all I thought could make
This lonely heart more worthy thee.
Years have gone by—the haurel droops
If mocking o'er my withered brow,
A conquer'd world before me stoops,
And fame is mine—but where art thou?

To me are vain-for where art thou?

HOME

BY JOHN B. BRATTON.

an in the Separation a

The state of the s

Volunteer.

To matric my tables from the table, and read to the control of the

NO. 25.

AT $2,00 PER ANNUM.