INCIDENTS AND ACCIDENTS.

DISTRESSING OCCURRENCE.—On last Thursday evening, about 8 o'clock, our town was startled from its usually quiet revery by the report that Mrs. Clouser, wife of Francis B. Clouser, had committed suicide. Alas! it proved too true. She had been out of her mind at intervals for a couple of years; and in one of these spells she got possession of her husband's gun, and in his absence loaded it, and placing the muzzle to her head she discharged it, completely shattering her whole head. Her three children were in bed at the time. She sent the hired girl for water a few minutes before the fatal act was committed.

[Perry County Advocate.]

DROWNED.—On Thursday evening last a German by the name of John Kiselyi was drowned in the Codorus, at the west end of Kone's Bridge, in this Borough. It is supposed that while in a state of intoxication he accidentally fell into the Codorus. He was seen near the Bridge early in the evening, and sometime after his hat and umbrella were discovered on the bank, close to the water. Search was made for the body, but it was not discovered until Friday morning. An inquest was held and a verdict rendered in accordance with the foregoing facts.—York Republican.

BREAK IN THE CANAL.—On last Friday the aqueduct over Penns Creek, on the Pennsylvania canal, gave way, and navigation was stopped in consequence for a few days. The jam of boats at Northumberland, detained by the break, is said to have been unprecedented, showing the large amount of business done on the public improvements. The aqueduct has since been repaired.—Sunbury Gazette, Nov. 25.

WHOLE FAMILY KILLED.—We stated at the time of the great accident on the Rock Island Railroad, that the wife and two children of Wm. C. Laughlin, of Gettysburg, Pa., were among the killed. Within a few days news has been received of the deaths of Mr. Laughlin himself and his mother, Catharine Laughlin. His niece, Mary, the only one left of the party, a bright little girl of some six or seven years of age, is also badly scalded, and, at last accounts, was not expected to survive.—Gettysburg Star.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. Peter Hoover, a worthy farmer living a few miles from this place died very suddenly on Thursday last. He was at the fodder-a few miles from his home, in company with his son, loading wood. Whilst in the act of lifting up a stick of wood he fell and instantly expired. He had previously enjoyed good health, and the supposition is that his decease was caused by apoplexy.

ANOTHER.—Mrs. Wolf, wife of Mr. Amos Wolf, living a short distance from this town, was found dead in her bed on Wednesday morning of last week. The deceased retired in the evening in the enjoyment of her usual health. The husband, who occupied another department, rose in the morning and before leaving the house, called to her, but receiving no answer he repaired to the bedside, and found her cold in death.—Waynesboro' Record.

A FATHER CONVICTED OF THE MURDER OF HIS DAUGHTER.—Alfred Artis, of Shelby co., Ohio, was tried last week, and convicted of murder in the first degree. The charge against him was that, about a year ago, he caused the death of his own daughter, quite a young girl, murdering her by the slow process of starvation, exposure, and the most disgusting and fiendish cruelties. Another daughter, older than the deceased, was witness against him.

LOTTERY PESTS.—Most of our business men, and even our clergymen, complain of being constantly annoyed by circulars from lottery schemers of all kinds, and hailing from all parts of the country but particularly from Baltimore. Some gentlemen, who are justly and prudently very much opposed to any connection whatever with such swindling operations, have endeavored to get relieved from the annoyance by requesting the ostensible lottery firms no longer to take the liberty of sending them circulars.—Instead, however, of this being attended to they have been mailed with insult worthy of the audacity of unprincipled gamblers.

[Harrisburg Herald.

ROBBERY.—The store of M. B. & J. Holman, in Liverpool, was entered on last Saturday night through the window above the door.—One of the proprietors hearing a noise, hastened to the store, but the robbers had decamped.—He heard their footsteps a short distance off, but was unable to ascertain who they were.—They had drawn the safe out into the middle of the room, but had not yet succeeded in opening it when they were alarmed. Several candles were found burning. A small amount of change, which had been left in the drawer, was all the robbers secured.—Perry Democrat.

THE INDEPENDENCE MONUMENT.—In his late message Gov. Reid, of North Carolina, calls the attention of the Legislature of that State to the subject of erecting a monument to the soldiers and sages of '76, in Independence Square, and accompanied his message with all the papers relating to that matter. It now remains for the people's more immediate representatives to act. Will they hesitate? We are confident they will not, when the question is presented in all its force. North Carolina is too deeply indebted to the wisdom and patriotism of her sons, to refuse this tribute to their memories.—In the darkest days of the Revolution, the brave sons of North Carolina never wavered nor faltered. On the battle field, and in the Council chamber, they led the column for liberty. With the sword and the pen they were equally bold and fearless. It is to perpetuate in a National manner the virtues and patriotism of these men that North Carolina is called upon by her sisters of the "Old Thirteen" to unite with them. As her patriots and sages did not hesitate in '76, she will not now. We look with certainty to the early and favorable action of the North Carolina Legislature in favor of the Independence Monument.—Philadelphia Argus.

THE KNOW-NOTHING NATIONAL CONVENTION.—This body is still in session, we understand, in this city. It is rumored, we know not upon what authority, that the Council have under discussion a resolution making an authorized publication of the objects and aims of their political organization. Should it be done the party would stand infinitely higher in public esteem. If the designs and principles of the association are good as is alleged, why not give them publicity? Truth never needs to be concealed from the public gaze—it is only darkness and error which shun light and dread observation. There are twenty-three millions of native-born citizens to two millions of foreigners, and the former surely have nothing to fear from a free promulgation of their intentions in regard to the latter. It may safely be inferred that that measure which will not stand discussion and bear observation, is neither wise nor just, and ought to be condemned. The Know-Nothings, by their secrecy, indicate a distrust of the public judgment upon their principles, if openly presented for adoption. If they are not afraid, let them come forward like bold and courageous men—Americans—fearlessly avow their intentions to the world, and, our word for it, they will find that their order has increased in public respect.—Cin. Enquirer, Nov. 25th.

A HEROINE.—Miss Florence Nightingale, the young English lady who, some time since, sailed for the seat of war in the East, with a corps of forty nurses, to minister to the relief of the wounded and suffering soldiers there, is the daughter of a gentleman of wealth, named William Shore Nightingale, residing at Embly Park, Derbyshire, and heiress to his fortune.—She is conversant with many languages, ancient and modern, has traveled much, is a person of fine natural intellect, and possessed of a happy and luxurious home.

BEAUTIFUL SIMILE.—Our prayers and God's mercy are like two buckets in a well—while the one ascends the other descends.

Markets.

PHILADELPHIA, DEC. 6.

FLOUR AND MEAL.—The Flour market is rather firmer with but little doing. Shipping brands are held at $8 50, but no sales are reported. Sales for home consumption are limited within the range of $81 for good brands, without sales, and extra from $9 to $9 50.

GRAIN.—Receipts of Wheat are light. Sales of prime Southern red at 190 a 195c., and fair red and prime white at 200c. Rye is in demand at $122 for Southern, and $1 25 for Penna.—Corn is steady; sales of new yellow at 84 a 85c, and prime at 87c. Oats are in good demand; sales of prime Delaware at 49 cents.

WHISKEY is firmer; sales of bbls. at 25 a 26c, and hhds. at 44c.

REPORT OF POOR-HOUSE VISITORS.

To the Honorable, the Judges of the Court of Cumberland County:

The undersigned, two of the Committee appointed by the Court, to visit, examine into, and report upon the mode of management and present condition of the Poor-House of this County, beg leave to state—That, in discharge of the duties assigned them, they have visited the Institution at different times during the year. These visits, generally, were made without giving any notice to the Steward, thus affording him no opportunity to arrange matters and things to suit the occasion, and they are much gratified in being able to say, that in all instances they found every thing in good order. All the apartments looked into presented a neat and tidy appearance. The inmates of the House looked cheerful and contented, and when questioned as to their wants and wishes, invariably replied that they had every comfort they could ask for. Their clothing is abundant, their diet nutritious and healthful. Any who are sick, receive the advice and attention of the regular Physician of the Establishment, careful nurses being employed to wait upon them. Labor is provided for such as are able to perform it, in conducting the business of the house and farm, and all who have sufficient strength participate in this healthful exercise; children who are born in the house, or are taken there in their infancy have proper care and attention bestowed upon them, and when they have attained sufficient strength and years, are put out to service with suitable persons who engage to teach them some useful trade or employment. The number of Paupers registered on the books of the Institution on the first day of November, 1853, was 120. There have been admitted since then 201, together with 16 out-door paupers, making the whole number provided for during the year 337; of these 22 have died, 8 have been out, and 103 have been discharged, leaving the number in the house on the first day of November, 1854, including 16 out-door paupers, 108. In addition to the above, 407 transient paupers have been admitted and their wants supplied. Upon the whole, your Committee is satisfied that the Institution has been well managed for the year just expired.

Respectfully, &c.

C. STAYMAN, } Visitors.
