The Deacon and the Irishman.

A few months ago, as Deacon Ingalls, of Rampscott, R. I., was travelling through the western part of the State of New York, he fell in with an Irishman who had lately arrived in this country, and who was in quest of a brother that came on before him and settled in some of the diggins in that vicinity.

Pat was a strong, athletic man, a true Catholic, and had never seen the interior of a Protestant church. It was a pleasant Sabbath morning, that brother Ingalls met Pat, who inquired the road to the nearest church.

Ingalls was a good pious man. He told Pat he was going to church himself, and invited his new made acquaintance to keep him company thither, his place of destination being a small meeting house near by. There was a great revival there at the time, and one of the deacons (who by the way, was very small in statue,) invited brother Ingalls to take a seat in his pew. He accepted the invitation, and walked in followed by Pat, who looked in vain to find the altar, &c. After he was seated, he turned to brother Ingalls, and in a whisper, which could be heard all round, inquired:

'Sure isn't this a Hiritic church?'

'Hush,' said Ingalls, 'If you speak a loud word they will put you out.'

'Divil a word will I speak, at all, at all,' replied Pat.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the pastor. Pat was eyeing him very closely when an old gentlemen who was standing in the pew directly in front of Pat shouted 'glory.'

'Hah-t ye clear divil,' rejoined Pat, with his loud whisper, which was plainly heard by the minister, 'be decent, and don't make a blackguard of yourself.'

The parson grew more and more fervent in his devotions. Presently the deacon uttered an audible groan. 'Aist-sst you blackguard, have you no decency at all at all?' said Pat, at the same moment giving the deacon a punch in the ribs which caused him nearly to loose his equilibrium.

The minister stopped and extending his hand in a supplicating manner, said,

'Brethren, we cannot be disturbed in this way. Will some man put that man out?'

'Yes; your rivirince,' shouted Pat, 'I will!' and suiting the action to the word, he collared the deacon, and to the utter horror and astonishment of the pastor, brother Ingalls and the whole congregation, he dragged him through the aisle, and with a tremendous kick he landed him in the vestibule of the church.

A Goose Story.—At the mills of Tubbnakeena, near Clonmel, Ireland, while in the possession of the late Mrs. Nowbold, there was a goose which by some accident, was left solitary, without mate or offspring, gander or gosling.

Now it happened, as is common, that the miller's wife set a number of duck's eggs under a hen, which in due course became ducklings. As soon as they came forth, they ran with natural instinct to the water, and the hen was in a bad pucker, her maternity urging her to follow the brood, and her selfishness disposing her to stop on dry land. In the meanwhile up sailed the goose, and with a noisy gabble, which, (being interpreted) meant leave them to my care, she swam up and down with the ducklings; and when they were tired of their aquatic excursion, she consigned them to the care of the hen.

The next morning down came the ducklings to the pond, and there stood the hen in great flustration. On this occasion we are not at all sure that the goose invited the hen, observing her maternal trouble, but it is a fact that she being near the shore, the hen jumped on her back and there sat, the ducklings swimming, and, the goosee and hen after them, up and down the pond. And this was not a solitary event. Day by day the hen was seen on board the goose, attending the ducklings up and down in perfect contentedness and good humor, numbers of people coming to witness the circumstance, which continued until the ducklings, coming to the days of discretion, required no longer the join guardianship of goose and hen.

Five New Western States.—Col. Benton in a recent lecture, shows that the country between Missouri and California, in the latitude, or nearly the latitude of Maryland, is well adapted to settlement and cultivation, and capable of forming five great States. Kansas he would divide into two States, Eastern and Western Kansas. These two States will each have a territory of fifty thousand square miles, and according to Mr. Benton, they will probably be ready for admission into the Union within the next two years. For the third State, Mr. Benton takes a section of the Rocky Mountains from the 37th degree of north latitude to the 41st, making an area of sixty thousand square miles. For the fourth State he takes the valley of the Upper Colorado. This region forms a part of the Territory of Utah, and the process of settling it with white inhabitants is already begun. The fifth State comprises the remainder of Utah.

Prophecy of Napoleon.—Mr. Azor Hoyt, a "spiritualist," of Brooklyn, puts forth the following prophecy as having been communicated to him by the spirit of Napoleon:

"A map of Europe lies before me. Premature convulsions have somewhat tended to frustrate the designs of wise and acute minds. You are now moulding the destinies of Europe to their proper proportions. All appears dark except the very centre, where light, faint though it be, and not yet well defined, is discerned by the watchmen on the walls.

"The world at large may not see cause for hope from the faint gleam, yet sage minds rejoice, because it comes where it should come, from the centre, not from the outskirts. Ere three months have passed, dating from this hour, an assassination of a crowned head will astonish and bewilder the magnates of Europe, and overturn the empire in another quarter. In another quarter a traitor to his king, but a loyal man to his God and to his fellows, shall turn his strength against his master, and raise the banner of the people. This shall be some time after the first events of which I have spoken. No more to-night."

The Delegate Elect from Kansas.—Mr. Whitfield, just chosen to be the delegate from Kansas, is an Arkansas man, reared on the frontier. He is a gentleman of great energy and emphasis of character, and is hard to beat at anything he undertakes. For the comfort of our Northern fellow citizens who have undertaken to mould affairs in Kansas to suit themselves, rather than the people who have cast their lot there, we have to say that in his views of the fitness of things political, Mr. Whitfield will be found to be a second edition of Senator Robert Johnson, of Arkansas. They are emphetically chips from the same block, we hear.—Wash. Exc. Star.

The Decline of Art in Italy.—A Florence correspondent says: 'The experience of this old Academy (Florence Academy of Fine Arts,) richly endowed by the munificence of past times, and furnished as it is, with all possible means and facilities, in the midst of the choicest treasures, affords a conspicuous example of the hopeless inefficiency of such institutions. The growth of art owes nothing to academic machinery and conventional training. Its master infinds and matchless productions were not forced into immortality by any hot-bed culture whatever. But the great age of art in Italy is past! In this, as in other things, the star of empire is westering.'

☞ A lady advertises in the London Times for the address of another lady, with whom she was at school more than twenty years ago that she may return to her old school-fellow the half crowns which she stole from the school-room and the sin of which burthens her consbience.

☞ A country Schoolmaster, happening to be reading about a curious skin of an elephant: 'Did you ever see an elephant's skin,' he asked: 'I have!' shouted a little 'six-year-old' at the foot of the class. 'Where?' he asked quite amused at the boy's earnestness. 'On the elephant,' said he, with a most provoking grin.

THE MARRIAGE STATE;

Shall Happiness and Health, or Misery and Sickness, attend it?

MOST STARTLING CONSIDERATIONS!

Reflections for the Thoughtful.

Strange that countless human beings exist and drag through life as do the beasts of the field, or the insects of the earth, swinging no more thought or reflection than though the noble faculties of mind were not vouchsafed to them.

Many such are husbands and fathers, upon whom are dependent the health, the well-being, and the happiness of a confiding and affectionate wife, with perhaps a family of children.

HOW often it happens that the

in that pitiable condition as not even for one day to feel the happy and exhilerating influence incident to the enjoyment of health.

She may not be an invalid confined to her bed, or even to her room; as her pride, ambition and energy induce, and nerve her to take personal charge of her household, even when her health will not admit of it; but she is nevertheless perceptibly sinking from day to day, and always ailing.

Thus day after day, and month after month transpire. Her health daily sinks till finally even the hope of recovery no longer remains. And thus

THE BLOOMING BRIDE,

But a few years ago in the flush of health and youth, and buoyancy of spirits, rapidly, and apparently inexplicably, becomes a feeble, sickly, debilitated wife, with frame emaciated, nerves unstrung, spirits depressed, countenance bearing the impress of suffering, and an utter physical and mental prostration.

Sometimes this deplorable change may and does arise from organic or constitutional causes. But oftener, by far oftener, to gross and inexcusable ignorance of the simplest and plainest rules of health as connected with the marriage state, the violation of which entails disease, suffering and misery, not only to the wife, but often

From the Parents.

And must this continue? Shall we be wise in all that concerns the cattle of our fields, our horses, our sheep, our cows, our oxen, the nature and character of the soil we possess, the texture and quality of our goods and merchandise; but in all that concerns ourselves as human beings, with human functions and passions, subject to great derangement, involving our future peace and happiness—in all that concerns the health and welfare of the wife of our affections, and the mother of our children; in all that concerns the mental and physical well being of these children, we should be instructed to be darkness and most

BENIGHTED IGNORANCE,

AS CULPABLE AS INEXCUSABLE!

How long shall this ignorance prevail so productive of its bitter fruits? How long shall the wife and mother be ignorant of the nature, character and causes of the various womb and sexual complaints, embittering her days by suffering—suffering often prolonged to years, eventuating in a complication of diseases utterly and hopelessly incurable? Shall we for ever close our eyes to the results of physiological science by which we may arrive at an understanding of ourselves as men and women, subject to serious life-long enduring diseases, and perpetuating them to our children.

LET EVERY WIFE AND HUSBAND PONDER

No husband or wife need be ignorant of what concerns them most to know to secure their health and happiness. That knowledge is contained in a little work entitled

"Man, Know Thyself."

An Invaluable Book for 25 cents.—"Every family should have a copy."

100,000 Copies sold in less than a year. A new edition, revised and improved, just issued.

DR. HUNTER'S Medical Manuel and Hand Book for the Afflicted—containing an outline of the origin, progress, treatment and cure of every form of disease contracted by promiscuous sexual intercourse, by self-abuse or by sexual excess, with advice for their prevention. Written in a familiar style, avoiding all medical technicalities, and everything that would offend the ear of decency; with an outline of complaints incident to Females, from the result of some twenty years' successful practice, exclusively devoted to the cure of diseases of a delicate or private nature.

To which is added receipts for the cure of the above diseases, and a treatise on the causes, symptoms and cure of the Fever and Ague.

Testimony of The Professor of Obstetrics in Penn. College, Philadelphia—"DR. HUNTER'S MEDICAL MANUEL."—The author of this work, unlike the majority of those who advertise to cure the diseases of which it treats is a graduate of one of the best Colleges in the United States. It affords me pleasure to recommend him to the unfortunate, or to the victim of malpractice, as a successful and experienced practitioner, in whose honor and integrity they may place the greatest confidence.

Jos. S. Longshore, M. D.

From A. Woodward, M. D., of Penn. University, Philadelphia.—It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to the professional ability of the Author of the "MEDICAL MANUAL."—Numerous cases of disease of the Genital Organs, some of them of long standing, have come under my notice, in which his skill has been manifest in restoring to perfect health, in some cases where the patient has been considered beyond medical aid. In the treatment of Seminal weakness, or disarrangement of the functions produced by self-abuse or Excess of venery, I do not know his superior in the profession.—I have been acquainted with the Author some thirty years, and deem it no more than justice to him as well as kindness to the unfortunate victim of early indiscretion, to recommend him as one in whose professional skill and integrity they may safely confide themselves.—ALFRED WOODWARD, M. D.

"This is, without exception, the most comprehensive and intelligible work on the class of diseases on which it treats. Avoiding all technical terms, it addresses itself to the reason of its readers. It is free from all objectionable matter, and no parent, however fastidious, can object to placing it in the hands of his sons.—The author has devoted many years to the treatment of the various complaints treated of, and, with too little breath to puff, and too little presumption to impose, he has offered to the world, at the merely nominal price of 25 cents, the fruit of some twenty years' most successful practice."—Herald.

"No teacher or parent should be without the Knowledge imparted in this valuable work. It would save years of pain, mortification and sorraw to the youth under their charge."—People's Advocate.

A Presbyterian clergyman in Ohio, writing of "Hunter's Medical Manuel" says:—"Thousands upon thousands of our youth, by evil example and influence of the passions, have been led into the habit of self-pollution, without realizing the sin and fearful consequences upon themselves and their posterity. The constitutions of thousands who are raising families have been enfeebled, if not broken down, and they do not know the cause or the cure. Anything that can be done so to enlighten, and influence the public mind as to check, and ultimately to remove this wide-spread source of human wretchedness, would confer the greatest blessing next to the religion of Jesus Christ, on the present and coming generation. Intemperance (or the use of intoxicating drinks) though it has slain thousands upon thousands, is not a greater scourge to the human race. Accept my thanks on behalf of the afflicted, and, believe me, your co-worker in the good work you are so actively engaged in."

One copy (securely enveloped) will be forwarded, free of postage, to any part of the United States for 25 cents, or six copies for $1. Address (post paid) COSDEN & CO., Publishers, or Box 196, Philadelphia.

Attention Dyspeptics!

THOSE of you who have been afflicted for years, with this loathsome disease, and who have been using almost every nostrum before the public without relief. We say to you try Boerhave's Anti-dyspeptic," and you will soon be convinced of its great superiority over every other preparation. We could give you many certificates corroborating our assertion, but a single trial is worth more than all. This remedy is prepared and sold at the Drug store of
