Ten Days Later from Europe.

ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICA AT HALIFAX.

Highly Important Intelligence.—Austria in Alliance with the Western Powers—War to be Declared Against Russia—Nothing Important from the Crimea.—Sailing of the Washington with a Cargo worth Three Millions of Dollars.—Markets.—Advance in Consols, &c., &c.

HALIFAX, Dec. 23.—The royal mail steamship America, Capt. Laing, from Liverpool, arrived at this port this afternoon, for Boston.

Her advices are ten days later than those received by the Pacific.

The news, although devoid of anything exciting from the seat of war, is of the utmost importance, inasmuch as it is announced that the most important negotiations were in progress, and that Austria had signed a treaty of alliance with France and England.

Nothing of consequence had transpired before Sebastopol.

There is no news whatever of importance from the seat of war. Frequent sorties are recorded, and the Russians were generally repulsed with much damage on either side. The allies were continually receiving reinforcements, and were mainly engaged in strengthening their positions.

The main interest of the news is centered in the negotiations, which had become complicated, and of vast importance.

A treaty of alliance between Austria, France and England, was signed at Vienna on the 2d inst.—binding, it is supposed—Austria to declare war against Russia within one month, and England and France to guarantee Austria against invasion or insurrection.

Austria calls on the Germanic States to support her with federal troops; but Russian influence are at work in opposition to this.—Commercial letters assert that Austria entered into this treaty unwillingly, but consented to it in preference to breaking entirely with the Western Powers.

Nesselrode has published a letter defining the four terms on which Russia will accept peace, namely: A joint protectorate of the two Powers over the Christians in Turkey; a like protectorate over the Principalities, subject to existing Russian treaties; the revision of the treaty of 1841, to which Russia will assent if the Sultan will; and the free navigation of the Danube.

Prussia and all the German States were hastily putting all their armies on a war footing.

It is said that Omer Pasha, with 40,000 troops, is about to embark for the Crimea.

Admiral Hamelin had resigned the command of the French squadron in the Black Sea, and returned to France.

The remainder of the French troops in Greece have been ordered to the Crimea.

A proposition for the augmentation of the British army to the extent of 36,000 men is to be submitted to Parliament.

The Spanish Chambers have decided to support the present dynasty. The ministry resigned upon some trifling financial defeat, but consented to resume office. The latest intelligence however, is to the effect that the crisis continued, and that Espartero had advised the Queen to send for Madoz and Olozo to form a cabinet.

Mr. Soule had arrived at Madrid.

The Danish Ministry had resigned.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

Breadstuffs.—The market for breadstuffs had undergone but little variation, and the demand was quite moderate.

Provisions show no change of moment.

Consols had advanced, and closed at 93¼.

CHURCH DIFFICULTIES.—Rev. Dr. Bond, editor of the New York Christian Advocate, in noticing the opposition to the appropriation of missionary money to the preachers laboring in their slave-holding conferences, says:

"We have seen strange things in the lapse of three score years and ten, but this caps the climax of the marvellous; and though we are no prophet, nor the son of a prophet, yet we venture to predict that mischief is now brewing in our church—agitations, convulsions and disruptions, such as we have never witnessed before."

Married.

In Carlisle, on the 19th inst., by the Rev. Dr. Sharpe, A. B. SHARPE, Esq., to Miss KATE M., daughter of the late Major George Blaney, U. S. Engineer.

On the 17th inst., by Rev. G. W. Showman, THOS. GRAHAM, to Miss MARY J. HALE.

On the 12th inst., by the Rev. J. Evans, Mr. SAMUEL FINESTEIN, to Miss ANNA E. OTTO, both of Newville.

On the 21st inst., by the same, Mr. J. GILBERT HUTCHISON, to Miss ELIZA HISER, both of Dickinson township.

On the same day, by the same, Mr. DAVID KLOSS, to Miss NANCY SHIRK, both of Mifflin township.

On the 21st inst., at Dillsburg, by J. A. Murray, Mr. ELI MOHLER, of Cumberland co., to Miss CAROLINE FICKES, of Adams co.

In Carlisle, on the 21st inst., by the Rev. A. H. Kremer, Mr. JOHN RIEP, to Miss MARGARET CORNMAN, both of Dickinson township.

On the same day, by the same, Mr. MICHAEL P. ANTHONY, to Miss SARAH ASPER, both of Mifflin township.

On the same day, by the same, Mr. ABRAHAM BENTZ, to Miss MARY HERSHNER, all of Dickinson township.

On the same day, by the same, Mr. CHARLES WEIRICH, to Miss MARGARET LANDIS, both of Carlisle.

Died.

In this Borough, on the 21st inst., after a long and painful illness, which she bore with christian fortitude and resignation, Mrs. SUSAN, wife of Mr. John P. Lyne, in the 53d year of her age.

Near Shippensburg, on the 9th of October last, Mrs. SARAH ANN MAINS, wife of Mr. Marshall Mains, and daughter of Thomas Bell, Esq. in the 34th year of her age.

In Dickinson township, this county, on the 9th inst., at the residence of his son-in-law, Hon. Samuel Woodburn, Mr. THOMAS BROWN, formerly of Philadelphia, in the 93d year of his age.

In this borough, on Monday the 18th inst., MISS AUGUST, infant son of William F. and Elizabeth Sellers, aged one year, nine months and seventeen days.

Ere sin could blight or sorrow fade,
Death came with friendly care,
The opening bud to Heaven conveyed,
And bade it blossom there.

Fanny Fern's Novel, RUTH HALL.

A TALE OF DOMESTIC LIFE.

300 pp., 12mo. Cloth. Price, $1,25.

EVERY body knows FANNY FERN; every body has laughed and cried over her sparkling, dashing, fruitful, genial writings; every body will wish to read this, her first novel, and every one who does read it will pronounce it her greatest work. Says an able critic who has read the proof sheets, RUTH HALL is a work which not only exceeds any thing which FANNY FERN has before written, but which in many respects surpasses any other work whatever. For intense and sustained interest of narrative, for originality of conception and treatment, for scorching sarcasm and withering rebuke of pretensions and hypocrisy, for elevation of moral tone and winsomeness of religious inculcations, for vigor, freshness, simplicity, directness and fascination of style, we have seen its equal.

The story takes possession of your heart at once; we follow RUTH thro' her trials with as much interest as tho' she were our own sister; she breathes not a sigh, she suffers not a sorrow, which the reader does not feel as keenly as though the first came from his own bosom, and the second were one of his own sad experiences. The characters are such as we do constantly meeting in every-day life; and how boldly skillfully they are drawn, how powerfully the story is told, how touching is its pathos, how sparkling its wit, how irresistible its humor, how severe its satire, and how true its moral, no adequate idea can be gained except by reading it."

RUTH HALL will be for sale by booksellers generally. To any one sending us the retail price, we will send a copy of the work by mail, post-paid.

CUMBERLAND VALLEY FARMER'S MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

This company was organized in 1851, in the borough of Shippensburg, and has already effected insurance on $200,000 worth of property. As this company was got up exclusively for farmers its operations will be, and are strictly confined to farm property. No town property, stores, mills, distilleries or factories of any kind will be insured in this company.

This company is yet in its infancy, it has, however, $8,710 in premium notes, including cash on hand. They have not, as yet, met with any losses.

It is hoped farmers will find it their interest to give this company their countenance and cordial support. The Board was organized by appointing Sami. Wherry, Esq., President, John Crosier, Secretary, and George Allen, Treasurer.

Established Aug. 4th 1821.

Weekly Edition between 60,000 & 90,000.

THE long period of over Thirty-three years, during which the Saturday Evening Post has been established, and the present immense circulation, are guarantees to all who may subscribe to it that they will receive a full return for their money. Our arrangements so far for the coming year, are such we trust will be thought worthy of the high reputation of the Post. Positive arrangements already have been made for contributions from the gifted pens of Mrs. Southworth, Grace Greenwood, Mrs. Denison, Mary Irving, Ellas Lamont, Mrs. Carlon, Fanny Fern, and a new contributor, whose name by request is withheld.

In the first paper of January next, we design commencing the following Novelet:

Six Weeks of Courtship. By Mrs. Emilie F. Carlen, Author of "One Week of Wedlock," &c. We purpose following this with an Original Novelet—designed to illustrate, incidentally, the great evils of Intemperance—entitled

The Fallen of the Wayfaring.

By a new and distinguished contributor. We have also made arrangements for two stories, to be entitled The Oneida Chief, and the Nabob's Will. By Grace Greenwood, author of "Greenwood Leaves," "Haps and Mishaps," &c. Also, the following additional contributions:

New Series of Sketches.

By Fanny Fern, author of "Fern Leaves," &c.

Mark, the Sexton, a Novelet by Mrs. Denison, author of the "Blue-mantled Rose Pictures," &c.

Nancy Nelson, or Wood with a Silver Lining. A Novelet. By Mrs. Irving. And last, but by no means least, from the fascinating and powerful pen of the Post's own exclusive contributor—

Vicia, a Story of Life Mystery. By Mrs. Emma D. E. N. Southworth, author of "Allriam," "The Lost Heiress," &c.

In addition to the above round array of contributions, we shall endeavor to keep up our usual variety of Original Sketches and Letters, Pictures of Life in our own and Foreign Lands, Choice Selections from all sources, Agricultural Articles, General News, Humorous Anecdotes, View of the Produce and Stock Markets, Bank Note List, Editorials, &c., &c., our object being to give a Complete Record, so far as our limits will admit, of the Great World.

ENGRAVINGS.—In the way of Engravings we generally present at least two weekly—one of an instructive, and the other a humorous character. The postage on the Post to any part of the United States, paid quarterly or yearly in advance, at the office where it is received, is only 26 cents a year.
