Proposed Commission for Private Claims.

SEPTEMBER,

OCTOBER,

NOVEMBER,

DECEMBER.

The Weekly Union says, it gives us much pleasure to state that Hon. Mr. Brodhead, of Pennsylvania, introduced a bill into the Senate on Wednesday last, to establish a board of commissioners for the examination and adjustment of private claims. We have not seen the bill: but we have that confidence in Mr. Brodhead's foresight, that we feel assured that it has been so framed and guarded that it will fully meet the expectations of the country. We know of no measure before Congress of greater Importance, or more imperatively demanded by the growing necessities of the country, than the establishment of such a commission as has been asked for. Private claims against the government are steadily increasing in number, and have already reached such an extent as to preclude the hope of their settlement, as far as Twin. Gould, as an auction store, fronting the action of Congress is concerned, before a lapse of time so extended as would be fatal to the just expectations of their holders. We can as a great and growing evil for a very large class of meritoriuos citizens, than in the plan proposed by Mr. Brodhead, which if adopted, will entitle him not only to the gratitude of those immediately interested, but to the thanks of

THE GOVERNOR OF UTAH .- Col. Steptoc, who has been appointed Governor of Utah, in place of Brigham Young, is said to be a consisten Christian in his professions. He has four companies of United States troops with bim, and is at Salt Lake, where his commission will reach him. According to Elder Hyde, polygamy does not improve the purity of the people's manners and morals in Utah. In a recent defence of that institution, he denounces very strongly the lawedness of men and women residing in Salt Lake City, and calls curses upon their heads.

The girl's neck was broken, caus-If her instant death : the man suffered a frac-The of the leg, and was taken to a hotel in Ambirishing, where his wife is now kindly attending the following the fascination of style, we have never seen its equal.

The story takes possession of our heart at once; we follow 'Rull'' thro' her trials with as much interest as the' she were our own sister; she breathes not a sigh, she suffers not a story which the reader does not feel as acutely as though the first came from his own heart, and the second were one of his own sad experiences. The characters are such as we are constantly meeting in every-day life; and how boldly and skillfully they are drawn, how powerfully the story is told, how touching is its pathos, how sparking its wit, how irresistable its humor, how severe its satire, and how true its moral, no adequate idea can be gained except by reading it.
