

THE SEASONS.

FROM THE GERMAN.
They are buds and flowers,
and they are buds and flowers,
and they are buds and flowers...

Amusing Incident.

One of the stores of this city, a few days ago, the scene of an amusing mistake. A gentleman from the country had, in view of the nearness of Christmas, been supplying himself with such articles as a gentleman's wardrobe, stepped into a dry goods store...

A Yankee on the Railroad.

It is said that the Highlanders in Canada were, when they first upon Scotch heather, and that when a Swiss soldier hears his native air in a foreign country he is affected to tears. All men like to hear the strains of their own music...

What is sympathy?

What is sympathy? asked Dr. Wharton in his little white pine table, busied with his thanksgiving penning. He was not up to a question which, that sympathy might in vain try to imitate, and she stopped short as the true sympathy was rolling out to answer him. "Sympathy," said she, "is sympathy, sympathy is sympathy, sympathy is sympathy..."

Woman's Sphere.

Woman's Sphere.—Decline never wrote anything more beautiful and true than the following. "The true woman for whose husband's love and her children's adoration is sufficient, who applies her military instincts to the discipline of her household, and whose habits exercise a beneficial influence on her nerves; whose intellect has field enough for her in communion with her husband, and whose heart asks no other honors than his love and the smiles of his children, who does not think it a weakness to attend to her toilet, and who does not disdain to be beautiful; who believes in the virtue of glumy hair and wearing gloves on the who eaters and washed clean; who slip shoes and audacious make-ups; a woman who speaks low, and does not speak much; who is patient and gentle, and whose motherly love is rarely argued, but adjusts with a smile; such a woman is the wife we all have dreamed of since our lives, and who is the mother we all wish to be in the backward distance of the past; such a woman as this does more for human nature, and more for woman's cause, than all the new theories, harangues, judgments, and members of Parliament put together—God-given and God-blessed as she is."

Answer to the Giraffe.

Answer to the Giraffe.—The New Orleans Sun tells a humorous story of a very well dressed and genteel looking person, who was curious to see the Giraffe, and who stepped out to the Giraffe to be seen here? "Yes sir." "I want to see him." "Very well, sir." "Is it very costly?" "One dollar, sir. Fifty cents for servants." "Well, I'm a servant." "You a servant?" "Yes sir." "The devil! Who?" "You, sir, your humble servant." "The joke was worth the price of admission."

A New Poor House.

A New Poor House, in Cook County, Ill., was recently inaugurated by a grand opening. The idea is indicative of progress, and the example may be useful. Opening a Poor House with a ball! "This is a great country."

A Friend said to another.

A friend said to another, on seeing a handsome couple waiting in the street, "I should like to drive out, would you not?" "Yes, in my carriage, and I'll be bound for it, they'll soon drive you out."

Henry Ward Beecher says that "Dress does not suit the man, but the man is made, and looks better dressed up."

An exchange tells us, that paper collars are about coming into fashion.

The Know-Nothings have sworn off wearing any more Irish linen.

There are certain exciting epochs in a woman's life that are never forgotten; such as, for instance, the first time she carries a parasol; the first time she receives a valentine; the first time she goes to an evening party; the first time she wears a dress and the first time she wears a silk dress and the first time she puts on the wedding ring.
