The Old Issues Coming Up. The Philadelphia North American is very extrest in advocating the restoration of United States Bank. The Budhla Express and other carnest in advocating the rostoration of United States Bank. The Binfale Express and cities papers signifying a willingness to accept such an institution,—as a measure of relief.

A number of Whig papers infilmate a willingness to support the passage of a General Bankrupt Law,—as a measure of rollef.

The Protectionist papers revive their old theories, would organize anew their larcenous schemes—for the relief of the country.

The side organization of the Whigs, in the lodges, proposes to revive the allen and selfition laws, to limit religious liberty, and proactibe allen born Americans.

There will be something for Democrate to do for the next halfdozen years. For these achemies of paper money, repudiation, extortion and proscription are levelled at the masses, to product the interests and feed the projudices of an extra clusive class.—Albant Allas.

The Cossack.—The lance which the Coss
