From the Pittsburgh Post, March 12th

Excitement in Pittsburgh.

On Saturday morning, Hon. Lynn Boyd, of Kentucky, late Speaker of the House, arrived in our city in the 1 o'clock, A. M., train, on his way home. He was accompanied, by his family and a negro woman who acted as nurse to his children. The fact that this latter person was a slave, became quickly known to the colored servants of the Hotel—the St. Charles—at which the party stopped, on their way to the steamboat in which they designed taking passage to Louisville, and while they were at breakfast a large party surrounded them, avowing their intention to carrying off the woman; but a number of persons interfering, they were compelled to leave the room, without effecting their purpose. Mr. Boyd, in order not to create any difficulty, then determined, to go immediately on board the steamboat, although it had been his intention to remain several days in the city.

On their way to the river they were followed by a crowd of exasperated negroes, who pressed closely upon the party and made several futile attempts to effect a rescue. Arrived at the steamer—the Pennsylvanian—the crowd made a combined effort to rush on board and secure their prey, which no doubt they would have accomplished, had not one of the officers of the boat—Capt. Kleinfelter, we believe—stood upon the gangway with a revolver in his hand, and threatened to shoot the first negro who passed over. This determined conduct intimidated the mob, and Mr. Boyd's party were all safely housed in the ladies' cabin. The boat remained at the wharf until her usual time of starting without any other molestation being offered.

Reynolds Going to Congress.—George Gordon, Jr., announces himself as a candidate for Congress in the Thirteenth District of Virginia, and assigns, in an address in the Wytheville Republican, the following reasons for desiring a seat in Congress:

"I think it nothing but common honesty to confess that I am mainly moved to become a candidate by a dislike of the easy life and the high wages connected with a seat in Congress. Now, I do not mean to assert that the life is easy and the wages high as regards those who occupy a distinguished place in the great business of the Confederacy of this great nation—I allude to those who stand foot or constitute the tail of representation; and of which there must be always such or or ders, and of which, I think, there may now and then be an election without any serious public detriment—therefore I have presumed to become a candidate."

"Have you Blasted Hopes?" asked a lady of a green librarian, whose face was much swollen by the tooth ache. "No ma'am," replied the youth, "but I've got a blasted tooth-ache."
