FOUND .- We picked up on the street, a day or two since, a pocket-book, containing a few pieces of money. The owner can have it by

OUR STORES .-- Our merchants have all supplied themselves with new Spring and Sumr

COLD MORNINGS AND EVENINGS -The "oldest inhabitant" has no recollection of such cold mornings and evenings at this season of the year, as we have had thus far. We have but yet, owing to the dryness of the atmosphere. the fruit has not been injured.

"PLACE NONE BUT AMERICANS ON QUARD

Nearly every Know-Nothing paper we pick p has the above quotation for its motto, and ive credit and attribute the words to WARH ington! Washington never used this Ian guage, nor anything like it, and we challenge any Know-Nothing editor or all of them put to ocratic Standing Committee, it will be seen that gether, to point out the passage in WASHING memory of the father of our country, and to

> It is the habit of Know-Nothing editors to prevaricate-it is their vocation to misrepresent nd lie-it is their privilege (they appear to MEN !" think) to consider their readers fools and to tally ignorant of history. None but a Know Nothing editor could adopt as his motto, and put in quotation points, a diabolical falsehood; nor would any other consider his readers so ignorant as to be unable to detect the fraud he attempted to paim upon them.

It will not do for the miserable, oath-bound onspirators and Infidels of the Know-Nothing Goods. See their advertisements and then go lodges to quote WASHINGTON in support of their nfamous and damnable doctrines. No !-WASHINGTON, a man of cularged views, a patriot in every sense of the word, whose writings prove that he was possessed of more than ordi-nary benevolence of heart—who, in the gener the year, as we have had thus far. We have had frost nearly every night during this month. The right to the direction of the property of the p tates of his conscience, and who had mingled with and shared the hardships of patriotic ANOTHER RICHMOND IN THE FIELD .- By re- inforcing read," would, were be now living, scorn Amount flames to a 18 februs on the second transfer of the second tr ference to his Card, in another column, it will to own as his sentiment, " place none but Abe seen that WM. REILY, Esq., Clerk to the mericans on guard to night." Side by side mmissioners, announces himself a candidate, and shoulder to shoulder Washington, La for Sheriff. Col. Robert M'Cartney also of Favette, Dr-Kald, Kosciuko, Pulaski, Stu-

July next.

Resolved. That the Delegates composing the commission as full texpedient, also place in nomination a full county Ticket, to be supported by the Democrated County Ticket, to be supported by the Democrated at the ensuing general election.

The Latest PROD VIRBIANA.

The latest news from Virginia makes Wisz's majority nearly 10,000. All the Democratic candidates for Congress are elected except two, and the candidates for Congress are elected except two, and the Legislature is Democratic by a very large to feed the babies spoon victuals from and after their second tooth in the position of any articles of value by their boarders or large transfer of the state.

The latest rews from Virginia makes Wisz's gage to feed the babies spoon victuals from and after their second tooth in the position of the state is possible for the loss of any articles of value by their boarders or land the Legislature is Democratic by a very large to feed the babies spoon victuals from and after their second tooth in the position of the latest news from Virginia makes Wisz's gage to feed the babies spoon victuals from and after their second tooth in the position of the position of the latest news from Virginia makes Wisz's gage to feed the babies spoon victuals from and after their second tooth in the position of the posit County Ticket, to be supported by the Democracy at the ensuing general election.

Begolved, That we recommend to the Democratio of any articles of value by their boarders or guests, unless they be deposited with them for crats of the various wards, townships and boroughs to be careful and reject all votes that may be offered by those who continue to act and vote with the prescriptive and intolerant Know-Nothings. "Those who are not for us which come with mere erapty show of baggage are elected except two, of any articles of value by their boarders or guests, unless they be deposited with them for safe keeping, nor for the robbery of their baggage allows and intolerant Know-Nothings. "Those who are not for us who come with mere erapty show of baggage."

In a smeal responsible for the loss candidates for Congress are elected except two, and the Legislature is Democratic by a very large majority.

Mr. Buchanan.—The Washington Star of Saturday last says, that letters have been regions to the right of lieu upon the baggage for board due, and renders swindling boarders or guests, unless they be deposited with them for large majority.

Mr. Buchanan, which can will be a candidates for Congress are elected except two, and the Legislature is Democratic by a very large majority.

Mr. BUCHANAN.—The Washington Star of Saturday last says, that letters have been regions to the construction of the properties of the construction of the con crais of the various wards, townships and boroughs to be careful and reject all votes that may be offered by those who continue to act may be offered by t

GLORIOUS OLD VIRGINIA!

with the "Ming" are and what principles the what principles the profess, we copy from Eugene Saw's ***Mandering**

**Ming of Tumbing Down - All the Democratic Members of Congress steated as a state of the Congress steated as a

THE "THUES."

The Order Presented.

communities assailed still more closely together, and to intensify the espit de corps, that distinguish them.

"Let them have free scope; and they will, like a circle in the water, spread more widely and more feebly, till they end is nothingness.

"But while we say this, we doem it just to warn good and orderly citizens of the danger to which associations of this kind subject them.—I They are liable at any moment fo be involved in a criminal charge. If their leaders are guilty of overtracts of illegality, they will find it difficult to repel the presumption, that they, too, are guilty. The lw proves a combination, and a common purpos2, and establishes the guilt to convict all the members of this secret and sworn association.

"This is not a theoretic danger, nor a remote contingency. Law-abiling citizens are, at any time, exposed to the dangers of a criminal posecution, by the acts of their vicious or reckless associates. They will find too late, perhaps, that while they have intended to accompany their sacret guardians and chiefs only to the outer limits of the law, that these have passed the boundary, and subjected them all to common dangers, as offenders against the State."

A sound and healthy public opinion is operat-page to feed the babies spoon victuals from and present organization:

"In Italy there was a particular order of friars called Fraires Ignoranties, that is, Brethren of guited upon a schedule of prices to be observed would neither know, learn, nor understand any hereafter. The increasa is from 15 to 20 per cents. as follows:

"In large of the babies spoon victuals from and present organization:

"In the lythree was a particular order of friars called Fraires Ignoranties, that is, Brethren of generation, learn from understand any thing at all, but answer all things with Nescio, the large of the la

Martial Music at Funerals.

The Order Presented.

We have been asked by several of our K. N. Within a short time past the Know-Nothing order has been presented for comparison. The "Thuga" was the same presented for the comparison. To give our reader an idea of the profess, we copy from Eguses Suda Windering Jense Land, and association, all the members of the following allasion to them:

"The Order Presented.

Within a short time past the Know-Nothing order has been presented for comparison. To give our readers an idea of the profess, we copy from Eguses Suda Windering Jense Land, and association, all the members of the following allasion to them:

"The Chemon Council at Allamy has paraded an ordinate of the Stow-Nothing and the presented for the Comparison. To give our readers an idea of the comparison. To give our readers an idea of the comparison. The following allasion to them:

"The Chemon Council at Allamy has paraded an ordinate of the Stow-Nothing with a country to the control of the condition of the readers of the comparison of the condition of the readers of the comparison. The given presentative of the State. While we have no yet for give our readers an idea of the States, and the same harmony the states under the title of the State. While we have no great the same harmony the same horison the control of the same harmony the same harmony than the same harmony the comparison of the control of sweet many than the same harmony this is an epoch of reform, and the ordinance mentioned above is but one of a series of the ### Base Forgery Exposed.

The Cincinnati Daily Enquirer of Octobe 1st, 1854, contained an article stating that the ords "if ever the liberty of the United States is destroyed it will be by Romish priests." had been "dug out" of a letter written by Lafayette to a gentleman in New York, shortly after the last visit of the marquis to this country n the year 1829, and that the words were quoted by Lafayette from the letter of the New Yorker only to be refuted. A long extract from the alleged letter of Lafayette was given in the Enquirer, from which it is sufficient for us to quote the following:

From Lafayette's Alleged Letter.

"I cannot but admire your noble sentiments of devotion and attachment to your country and its institutions. But I must be permitted to assure you that the fears, in your patriotic zeal, you seem to entertain [that if ever the liberty of the United States is destroyed it will be by Romish Priests] are certainly without any shadow of foundation whatever. An intrmate acquaintance of more than half a century with the prominent and influential vriests and members of that church, both in Europe and America was reasonable and in the content of the prominent to promine the content of the content of the injury they are doing the content of the prominent and influential triests and members of that church, both in Europe and America was reasonable to a sent of the New of a higher Christian duty for a minister to engage in than an effort to preserve the birds in his parish. be by Romish Priests] are certainly without shape of countiess catterpillars, grues and any shadow of foundation whatever. An intrade acquaintance of more than half a century with the prominent and influential priests and members of that church, both in Europe and Memerica, warrants me in assuring you that you need entertain no apprehension of danger to your republican institutions from that quarter."

**The words in brackets are taken from the command "thou shalt not wantonly kill a single thing of all creation that is not necessary for man's sustepance, or that is not decrease.

The words in brackets are taken from the

The words in brackets are taken from the context and attributed to Lafayette who quoted them only to refute them! The Louisville K. N's., aided by the telegraph, are trying to make it appear that Prof. Morse "proves" that Lafayette used the expression above. So he did, and said besides that the fears implied in the expression were "WITHOUT ANY SHADOW OF FOUNDATION WHATEVER."

Exchanging Wives-A Remarkable Transaction at 7 mp South.—A late number of the Eastern Clarion, published at Paulding. Miss, gives an account of a swap negotiated in that vicinity by two of its subscribers, and vouches for the truth of the story. The chattels which exchanged owners were nothing less than the wives of the parties, who were on the eve of emigrating, as they eventually did—the one to Alabama and the other to Texas. The Clarion of the proving the real names of the output has and pepper-corns. and verry refrains from giving the real names of the output has a design and pepper-corns. and verry refrains from giving the real names of the output has a poper of land should be altured to an at retry will have been a few that a sound to the country of the chatters which exchanged owners were nothing less than the wives of the parties, who were on the eve of the parties, who were on the eve of emigrating, as they eventually did—the one to Alabama and the other to Texas. The Clarion published at Paul and the theory of land should be altured to an and the content and the thought of all cratical will all the single thing of all cratical to his interest. Children should be at ught not only to love the mais angle thing of all cratical to his interest. Children should be taught not only to love the mais of birds, but to look upon that is not any models of birds, but to look upon that is not a creating the time in the tender of birds, but to look upon the time trained to birds, but to look upon the trained to birds and the sanked to birds and the the music of birds, but to look upon that is not described by an inclusive of birds, but to look u EXCHANGING WIVES-A REMARKABLE TRANS-ACTION AT THE SOUTH.—A late number of the Eastern Clarion, published at Paulding. Miss, gives an account of a swap negotiated in that vicinity by two of its subscribers, and vouches for the truth of the story. The chattels which exchanged owners were nothing less than the wives of the parties, who were on the eve of emigrating, as they eventually did—the one to Alabama and the other to Texas. The Clarion refrains from giving the real names of the faithless Benedicts, and calls them "Obadiah," and "Dick," but records the circumstances of the transaction—how they went into the woods, sat down on a log, and entered upon the business; how they came near spoiling the trade sat down on a log. and entered upon the busi-ness; how they came near spoiling the trade-because Obe's wife was a "younger critter by a dozen years;" and how, after much chaffer-ing, the difference was finally equalized by the generous proposal of Dick to give in the way of boot, "a cow and calf, two goals, an old gun and ox-bell." The respective children of the two mothers remaind with their respective fa-thers, and with their strangely-acquired step mothers, followed them to the States of their adoption.

A DUEL IN THE DARK .- A late California paper mentions a duel which was fought between a Yankee and an Englishman in a dark room. The Yankee, not wishing to have blood on his hands, fired his pistol up the chimney, and, to his horror, down came the Englishman.

risburg Union of last week, says-We learn that the Rev. Mr. M'FADDEN, of the Church of these remonstrances, by a vote 32 to 3 in God, has been appointed Messenger for the School Department. This is a new office-one that has been created to appease a few raven ous, importunate Know-Nothing beggars.

Louis Napoleon has abandoned the idea of going to the Crimea to take command of the allied armies.

mocking bird was sold in Philadelphia last Tuesday for $47, and a poodle dog for $25.

A letter from Paris says-"Paris gives six days to business, and the seventh to the

An excursion to Sebastopol is talked of ot public accommodation are essential to the by a New York Steamboat company. Tickets convenience of citizens and the wants of travel-8500.

Nine thousand shad were taken at a sin gle haul at Havre de Grace on Tuesday. Five members of the Massachusetts Log-

There are twelve railroads which termi. nate in and pass through the city of Chicago, and it is said that every twenty-four hours ten | great as over. thousand strangers arrive in that city. A good reputation is better than a fine coat in almost any kind of businessvooing a fashionable lady. The cradle is a woman's ballot box .-Some of them put in two votes at once, which the New York Mercury says is illegal. The "Soda Water" business promises to

THE BIRDS.

of a landscape, and wood as soon think of chopping down the orchard, shooting the tur-keys and wringing the necks off of the bara-yard fowls, or making mutton of the sheep or giving the lambs to the dogs, as to think of destroying or driving them from the premi-sest.

"Going a gunning" with the murderous intent to kill such birds ought to consign a man to the infamy that we are apt to attach to a savage or a bruto who wantonly kills the finest of God's creation.

Without birds a country is desolate: with them it is always cheerful. Their songs would enliven the heart of a stone or make a miser for the monary forcet his monary.

the moment forget his money.

The association of children with birds, when and that should be at their own fdle carcasses, with fine salt and pepper-corns, and every owner of land should be allowed by law thus to salt and pepper any of these idle ragabonds who come upon his grounds without leave to doom the birds to destruction.

Farmers! let your notto be—and impress it upon all your family—Never kill a bird.

[Tribune.

NULLIPICATION IN MASSACRUSETTS .- The owning act of the many iniquities with which the late Legislature of Massachusetts have soiled the escutcheon of that ancient Commonwealth, was perpetrated on Monday last, previous to their adjournment, by the passage, over the Governor's vete, of a bill nullifying a provision of the Constitution and a law of the United States. The "Personal Library Bill," as it is miscalled, thesigned to prewhich Gov. Gardiner, himself an Abolitionist, was compelled to veto under a sense of imperative duty, and which the Attorney General, al-Another Preacher in Oppion. - The Har- so of the Abolition school, pronounced unconthis high-handed act of nullification, remarks: that has been created to appease a few ravenus, importunate Know-Nothing beggars.

If Louis Napoleon has abandoned the idea of going to the Crimea to take command of the lilied armies.

Hand Times.—The receipts of Grisi's 17 oncerts in Boston, amounted to $45,000. A nocking bird was sold in Philadelphia last

How shall Hotels be Sustained .- The Fillage Record regards this as an important question, now that no license are any longer to be granted to hotel-keepers to sell liquor, affecting not only landlords but the public. That house lers, is admitted by all.—Herotofore, the owners and proprietors have looked almost exclusively to the profits upon the sales of liquor for their remuneration, and comparatively fow houses, ven where kept on temperance principles, islature have died since the beginning of the have been able to make a tespectable living morely by entertaining strangers and travellers with food and lodging.

It is obvious that the necessity for hotels, is entertain atrangers and travellers, will be just as It is right roo, that those who are so essential to public accommodation and whose hospitality is extended to all—should have a fair and liberal remuneration. The calling should be not only honorable but profitable The profession has many attractions for those fond of public life, and, now that neither customnor law, requires them to minister to the worst appoiltes of men, they will pursue it with great pleasure. But how shall they be sustain. od? There is but one way, and that is by increasing their charges. This will be expected by be exceedingly large in New York the coming overy reasonable man. In this county and it summer, on the supposition that the liquor law ral districts, capocially, the charges for salt will be enforced.

The travelor supposition that the liquor law ral districts, capocially, the charges for salt tainment should be advanced. The travelor Geo. H. Norris, Democrat, has been can afford to pay almost any price for a class well aired bed, and should refuse at all times well aired bed, and should refuse at all times well aired bed, and should refuse at all times well aired bed.