The following, says the Ohio Stateman, is a strown, are, in my opinion, in conflict with the spirit of the Constitution, and unfriendly benor to the Lutheran Church. We are gled to record this act of Irue christian sentiment, the polycourse any church can pursue to save itself from the wrock of the times. To the Editor of the Stark County Democrat:

To the Editor of the Stark County Democrat:

Srn—Not having the pleasure of your personal acquaintance, but having accidentally perused your paper of the 7th inst., which was handed to me by one of your typographical brethren of this city, and having noticed therein a communication, the Pittsburg Synod of the Lutheran Church, signed "Many Lutherans of Stark county," and being an active member of that Church, I therefore hope and expect your columns may be open for a few lines from a friend, though a stranger to you.

Yesterday I read the communication above referred to, a number of prominent members of our church here, and some from the country, all of whom heartily approved of the course adopted by "Many Lutherans of Stark county," and we even go further than to solicit our Synod to answer the questions propounded in that communication, to wit: "Whether it is consistent with the dectrines of our church for a Minister or lay member, to connect himself by an oath with a secret, midnight, political order, proceeding to the dictates of their own conscience?"

We shall demand of each and every one of opposed to the principles of persons "vasality bing God according to the dictates of their own conscience?"

We shall demand of each and every one of our Ministers, respectively, to answer from the Pulpit, a question slinitur to the above, and we hope, that throughout an example, the members of our church will do the same, the reasons which impel us to adopt such a course are obvious, for how can we with any christian feeling assemble with indist similarity the Sacramental Altar, and partake of the body and blood of our Saviour, when we know at the same time, there are men participating with, or perhaps, administering the same to us, who are sworn to lie.

If Dr. Martin Luther were now alive, and in the same to us, who are sworn to lie. If Dr. Martin Luther were now alive, and in the same to us, who are sworn to levent be heard, and if any of his followers, as sministers, would refuse to answer such questions, he would again, as he did often before denounce them as "sucaking and clandestine preachers." We assuredly look for a bold, foarless, and Martin Luther-like response on that subject from the Synod in your paper of nort week.

The Preshyterians at New Wilhington in and sugget from the Synou in your paper of next week.

The Presbyterians at New Withington in this State, assembled in Synod on the 17th of May last, adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That in the judgment of this Presbytery, the principles of our Church exclude from communion the members of the Secret Society, called Know-Nothings, and the members of all such Secret Societies, and that the Presbytery direct sessions to enforce this opinion.

"Wo, as Lutherans, contemplate pursuing this course—that if our ministers decline to purge our church of Christicss members, we design to purge it of Christicss members, we design to r church of Christics members, we design tirge it of Christics preachers.

Yours, very truly,

A LUTHERAN OF PITTSBURGH.

Pro-entinently prominent as the sons of Virginia have been, from the commencement of the Royolition, for their bold advocacy of the cause of freedom—for their consistent and patricite devotion to the only principles upon which a government, constituted like ours, can be sustained, it may well be doubted whether they have ever achieved for themselves more distinguished honor than in the late election, or have ever rendered a higher strict that it would have ashaken and carried the strong hold of that party, upon the falthfulness, patriotism, intelligence and courage of which the country has been obliged mainly to rely in every period of serious danger, whether arising from foreign trains or domestic distensions, it would have been the constitution inder which, is a nation, we have eatilized socially, results so unexampled in the history of the luman race.

The proud elevation on which the Common wealth of Virginia now stands is freely recognized and deserved honored from one extremity of the Union to the other.

Perry County Warm Springs, PENNSYLVANIA.

PENNSYLVANIA.

WILL be open for visiters from the 5th day of June. H. H. ETTER, Proprietor. This most desirable watering place is situated on the banks of Sherman's Greek, which flows at the bage of Pisgah Mountain, some five hundred feet above the level of the creek, in front of the dwellings. This stream affords pleasure to the guests, as there are boats upon it to pass up and down, also a beautiful Island in it, well shaded with large forest trees: the walks up and down the creek are delightful, while there is pleasure for those who desire to fish in the streams. The springs are numerous, and cannot be surpassed for bathing: there are bath houses separate for ladies and gentlemen, also large plunge pools for each, with an abundance of pure spring water.

There is an extensive view of rich and rare scenery of mountains and valleys, being the most picturesque in the State. Among the attractions of the Warm Springs there are numerous shady and romantic summer roads, making it very pleasant for drives. Horses and vehicles will be kept this season to hire.

Having taken pains in making a selection of first-rate servants, I feel confident, they will give general satisfaction to the guests. There shall be no pains spared in supplying my table with the luxuries of the markets.

All persons leaving Philas plan or Baltimore, in the morning train to Duncannon, on the Central Railroad, fourteen miles north-west of Harrisburg, then taking a coach which is always in readiness, will arrive at the Springs about 4 o'clock, the fare being but $3,00 through to the Springs.

MR. DAVID SIPE, of Carlislo, has been appointed Agent for the cointy of Cumberland, for the sale of FISK'S L'ATENT METALLIC BURIAL CASE, which is superior to any of the kind now in uso, for ordinary interments and transporting the dead. It prevents immediate decomposition and obviates the necessity of hasty burials; for, being perfectly air-tight, it prevents any unpleasant odor from escaping and can be kept from day to day, until it saits the convenience of the friends of the deceased to inter. We might offer hundreds of certificates in corroboration of these facts, but the following will sufflee:

Certificates from Clay, Webster and others.

The above described Burial Cases can, at all times, be obtained of the subscriber, at his Ward-rooms nearly opposite the Bank, North Hanover street, Carlisle.
