GENTLENEN-We witnessed the butility of yone ornamental "Motallic Patent Burial Case," used to convey the romains of the late Hon. John O. Calboun to the Congressional Gemotry, which impressed us with the belief that it is the best article known to us for transporting the deat to tiof final resting place. With respect we sub-scribe ourselves. Yours & C. H. CLAY, LEWIS CAS, DANIEL WEASTER, D. S. DICKINSON, JEFF. DAVIS, W. R. KING, J. M. BERAREN, H. DORGE, W. P. MANOUN, D. R. ATCHINSON. The above described Burial Cases can, at all times, be obtained of the subscriber, at his Ware-rooms nearly opposite the Bank, North Hanover street, Carlislo. May 17, 1855.

dees for his religious information. Such doc-trines suit better to the monarchial dominions of Austria or Prussa, than Republican Ameri-cA. They are unsuited to our institutions.— Any man who utters them will only be re-garded as a fanatic and a fool, and laughed at bo sensible people. The citizent of every com-munity employ a minister for a certain pur-pose. His duty is to preach the gospel—not political affairs, they would no doubt tell him so. All congregations are composed of men entertaining every shade of political opinions-nad a minister has no carthly right to thrust the eyes of all good men. The duty of ridding the people of this odi-ous law, now devolves on the Democrats. We must scene enlightcured, liberal-minded men to the next logislature, who are unconnected with any sceret lodgo, and who will honestly and fauthfully carry out the wishes of the people. o'clock, P.
