J. W. FRV. Treasured. J. W. EBY, Treasurer. Carlislo, July 19, 1855—4t Nowman of delicacy is willing to disclose the peculiar silments incident to her sex, even to a most intimate family physician.

This modesty and delicacy is implanted by nature, and noither should not need be subjected to the rude shocks inevitable in making known to the other sex those allments belonging exclusively to the female.

Except in extreme cases, her sonsitiveness will sacrifice her health rather than her delicacy. The consequences are serious, lamentable, and life-long.

Thus what at first could have been eastly remedied, or perhaps better still, not incurred, becomes a complication of diseases, not only ruining the health of the mother, and embittering her days by sickness and suffering, but entailing broken constitutions upon her children, and embarrassing, if not distressing, the business and pecuniary prospects of the husband. Let overy sensible woman fake varing in time, (as thousands have done) by the bitter experience and sufferings of others, of the dreadful consequences she entails upon herself and those endeand to her, by her ignorance of the simplest and plainest rules of health as connected with the marriage state, the violation of which entails disease, suffering and misser. Notice to Consumers. THE subscriber would respectfully inform his friends and the public, that he is now re-civing 1000 Tons of that very superior RED ASH COAL,

RED ASH COAL, from the Luke Fidler Mines of BOYD, ROS. SOR & CO., the only Red Ash Coal brought from the Shamokin Basin, introduced and known in Carlisle as the "Helfenstein Coal." It is entirely free from slate and all other impurities, and is perfectly adapted to all mechanical and domestic purposes. Its readiness to ignite, renders it particularly desirable for small stoves, while its intensity of heat, and great durability in burning, makes it equally so for large ones. He would also call the attention of Farmers and others to a superior article of Chetanat Coal, from the same mines, for steam and lime purposes. For sale in Carlisle by GEO. W. HILTON. GEO. W.
