STARTLING BUT TRUE!

Warning to Every Sensible Woman. WAY FEMALES SUFFER IN HEALTH.

Way Frinkis Supper it Heatra.

To woman of delicacy is willing to disclose the poculiar allments incident, to her sex, which to a most intimate family physician.

This modesty and delicacy is implanted by nature, and norther should nor need be subjected to the rade shocks inevitable in making known to the other sex those allments belonging exclusively to the female.

Except in extreme cases, her sensitiveness will saurifice her health rather than her delicacy. The consequences are serious, lamentable, and life-long.

The consequences are serious, lamentable, and life-long.

This what at first could have been easily remedified, or perhaps better still, not incurred, becomes a complication of diseases, not only ruining the health of the mother, and embittering her days by sickness and suftering, but ontalling photen constitutions, upon her children, and embarrassing, if not distressing, the business and engarrassing, if not distressing, the business and engarrassing of others, of the husband. Let every sensible woman lake warning in time, (as thousands have done) by the bitter experience and sufferings of others, of the dreadful consequences she entails upon herself and those endared to her, by her ignoranet, and for which the the marriago sto, the violation of which entails disease, suffering and misery.

How many are suffering from obstructions or irregularities peculiar to the female system, which, undermine the health, the effects of which they are ignorant, and for which their delicacy lobids seeking medical advice! How many suffering the remaining of the womb,) or from fluor ulbus (weakness, debility, &c.)!—How many are la constant agony for many months preceding confinement! How many have difficult in the constant agony for many months preceding confinement!

Toths question, how are these to be preven-ted his what shall be done? the answer is simple-Lotbvery woman ascertain for herself, with-out, yielence to ber delicacy, the nature and character of the ailment (to which she as a fe-male is subject) the causes from which it may aging, and the proper remedies for its cure and future prevention.

agies, and the proper remedies for its cut and riture prevention.

"His she can do by possessing a little volume (algready possessed by thousands) which tells her what is the matter, and tells her what to do for it, in simple but chaste words, and such as she can understand. This little volume is entitled, the Married, Women's PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION, by Dr. A. M. MAURICKAU, Professor of Diseases of Women. One hundredth edition (500,000 18mo., pp. 250. [On fine paper, extra binding, $1,00.]

A standard work of established reputation, found-classed in the catalogues of the great Trade Sales in New York, Philadelphia, and other cities, and sold by the principal booksel.

Trade Sales in New York, Philadelphia, and-other cities, and sold by the principal booksellers in the United States. It was first published in 1847, since which time five hundred thousand optic have been sold, or which there were upwired of one hundred thousand sont by mail, attesting the high estimation in which it is held as it reliable popular medical book for every femulo, the author having devoted his exclusive atteintion to the treatment of complaints peculiar to females, in respect to which he is yearly consulted by thousands, both in person and by lettig.

suited by thousands, both in-person and by letter.

Horo every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the mature, character, causes of, and the proper reniedles for, her complaints.

The wife about becoming a mother has often need of instruction and advice of the utmost importance to her future health, will find such instruction and advice, and also explain many symptoms which otherwise would occasion anxiety or larm, as all the peculiarities incident to her situation are described.

It is of course impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of, as they are of a nature strictly intended for the married or those contemplating marriage. The revelations contained in its pages have proved a blessing to thousands, as the innumerable letters received by the author (which he is permitted by the writers to publish) will attest.

Extract of a Letter from a gentleman in Dayton, Orio.

DAYTON, May 1, 1817.

Dr. A. M. Mauriceau:

"My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great angulsh and suffering some months before and during confinement; every successive one more and more debliftated and prostrated her, putting her life in imminent danger, and which was on the last occasion despaired of. I supposed that this state of things was inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the worst. At this time (now about two months) I heard your book highly spoken of, as containing some matters, reaching my case. On its receipt and perusal, I cannot express to you the relief it afforded my distressed mind, and the joy its pages imparted to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Desomeaux provided a remedy. It opened a prospect to me which I little conceived was possible. No pecuniary consideration can over repay the obligations I am under to you, for having been the means of imparting to us the matters contained in "The Married Wocan over repay too oungations I am made to you, for having boon the means of imparting to us the matters contained in "The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion." But for this, ere another year would have passed over my head, in all human probability my wite would have been in her grave and my children left motherloss."

therioss."
In consequence of the universal popularity of the work, as evidenced by its extraordinary sale, various impositions have been attempted, as well on booksellers as on the public, by imitations of title page, spurious editions, and surrepitious infringements of copyright, and other devices and deceptions, it has been found necessary therefore to Caution the Public to buy no book unless the words "Dr. A: M.
